This report was written according to the EUAA COI Report Methodology \(2023\). The report is based on carefully selected sources of information. All sources used are referenced.

The information contained in this report has been researched, evaluated and analysed with utmost care within a limited timeframe. However, this document does not claim to be exhaustive. If a particular event, person or organisation is not mentioned in the report, this does not mean that the event has not taken place or that the person or organisation does not exist.

Furthermore, this report is not conclusive as to the determination or merit of any particular application for international protection. Terminology used should not be regarded as indicative of a particular legal position.

‘Refugee’, ‘risk’ and similar terminology are used as generic terminology and not in the legal sense as applied in the EU Asylum Acquis, the 1951 Refugee Convention and the 1967 Protocol relating to the Status of Refugees.

Neither EUAA nor any person acting on its behalf may be held responsible for the use which may be made of the information contained in this report.

On 19 January 2022, the European Asylum Support Office (EASO) became the European Union Agency for Asylum (EUAA). All references to EASO, EASO products and bodies should be understood as references to the EUAA.

The drafting of this report was finalised on 5 September 2025. Any event taking place after this date is not included in this report. More information on the reference period for this report can be found in the methodology section of the Introduction.

Introduction

The purpose of this report is to provide relevant information for the assessment of applications for international protection, including refugee status and subsidiary protection. This report is to be read in conjunction with the EUAA COI Report – Nigeria Country Focus, November 2025. Both COI reports are for use in updating of EUAA's Country Guidance on Nigeria (2026).

The report provides an update on and mapping of the security situation at both country and state level, namely for the 36 states plus for Abuja Federal Capital Territory (FCT). The report builds upon preceding EUAA COI reports, notably Nigeria - Country Focus July 2024, and Nigeria - Security Situation June 2021.

Methodology

This COI report was written in line with the EUAA COI Report Methodology \(2023\)¹ and the EUAA COI Writing and Referencing Style Guide \(2023\).²

Defining the terms of reference

The terms of reference for this COI report draw on previous EUAA COI reports on Nigeria and internal consultations. They were developed with careful consideration of country of origin information deemed most relevant to the intended users of the report. In addition, as part of the country guidance development process, national asylum authorities from EU+ countries within the Country Guidance Network on Nigeria were surveyed to assess their needs in relation to their respective national caseloads. Their input was incorporated into the design of these terms of reference, with the consolidated feedback and suggestions reflected in the final version presented in Annex 2: Terms of Reference.

The reference period for this report covers from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025 and also includes general background information to contextualise the current situation. Drafting was completed on 5 September 2025, followed by peer review (8–19 September 2025) and a quality review process, during which additional information was incorporated until 15 October 2025. The report then underwent internal final review and proofreading by EUAA prior to publication.

Collecting information

This report is based on publicly available information from both electronic and print sources gathered through desk-based research, complemented by interviews with oral sources. All sources used are referenced. To address information gaps identified during the research, the EUAA conducted interviews with experts on selected topics. All interviewed and written sources are referenced in Annex 1: Bibliography. Where information could not be obtained within the drafting timeframe, this is noted in the relevant sections of the report.

Quality control

In line with the EUAA COI Report Methodology (2023) and the EUAA COI Writing and Referencing Style Guide (2023), the report underwent peer review by COI experts from national authorities from EU+ countries (as noted in the Acknowledgments) as well as internal peer review by the EUAA COI Sector. All comments provided by the reviewers were duly considered, and most were incorporated into the final draft, which was completed on 15 October 2025.

Sources

As per EUAA COI research principles,³ a range of different published documentary sources have been consulted. The information results mainly from desk research of public specialised paper-based, and electronic sources. These include:

- reports produced by various United Nations (UN) bodies;
- reports produced by other international and non-governmental organisations active in the field of human rights, conflict and security situation;
- reports produced by EU and governmental organisations;
- reports produced by foundations, and advocacy organisations;
- academic publications, investigative articles and think tank reports;
- reports from international, regional and local media sources in English;
- reports and datasets by organisations specialised in specific topics or profiles, such as security and conflict monitoring;
- reports produced by local and grassroots organisations.

In addition, oral sources were interviewed, including scholars, international experts, government officials, and NGO representatives working on the ground in Nigeria. Some interviewees requested anonymity for security and operational reasons. All sources were assessed for their background, publication history, reputability, and current ground-level expertise. The interviews were conducted between July and September 2025, and all oral sources are described in Annex 1: Bibliography.

Sources on security incidents and fatalities

Data of the Armed Conflict Location and Event Data Project \(ACLED\)⁴ have been used for information on security events and fatalities.

ACLED is a project that collects, analyses and maps information on ‘dates, actors, locations, fatalities, and types of all reported political violence and protest events around the world’.⁵

³ EUAA COI Report Methodology, 2023, url

⁴ ACLED, Data & Tools, n.d., url

⁵ ACLED, About ACLED, n.d., url

The ACLED curated data files on Nigeria used in this report were downloaded by the EUAA on 10 September 2025.

ACLED explains the methodology applied for coding and monitoring the data in a codebook⁶ where it states that ‘The fundamental unit of observation in ACLED is the event’.⁷ ACLED records six event types: battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians, protests, riots and strategic developments.⁸ For the analysis of the security situation in Nigeria in this report, battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians and riots were included as incidents.

ACLED uses the following definitions of these event types:

- battle: ‘a violent interaction between two organized armed groups at a particular time and location. ‘Battles’ can occur between armed and organized state, non-state, and external groups, and in any combination therein. There is no fatality minimum necessary for inclusion. Civilians can be harmed in the course of larger ‘Battles’ events if they are caught in the crossfire(...);’
- explosions/remote violence: ‘events as incidents in which one side uses weapon types that, by their nature, are at range and widely destructive. The weapons used in ‘Explosions/Remote violence’ events are explosive devices, including but not limited to: bombs, grenades, improvised explosive devices (IEDs), artillery fire or shelling, missile attacks, air or drone strikes, and other widely destructive heavy weapons or chemical weapons. Suicide attacks using explosives also fall under this category’;
- violence against civilians: ‘events where an organized armed group inflicts violence upon unarmed non-combatants. By definition, civilians are unarmed and cannot engage in political violence. (...) The perpetrators of such acts include state forces and their affiliates, rebels, militias, and external/other forces.’;
- riots: ‘violent events where demonstrators or mobs of three or more engage in violent or destructive acts, including but not limited to physical fights, rock throwing, property destruction, etc. They may engage individuals, property, businesses, other rioting groups, or armed actors.’⁹

Regarding fatalities, ACLED stated on 7 May 2024:

- ‘ACLED does not have a fatality threshold for an event’s inclusion in the dataset. This means that political violence and demonstration events in ACLED do not need to produce any fatalities in order to be included as valid events. No arbitrary number of deaths is used to define a conflict.’;
- ‘ACLED codes fatalities from the most reliable possible sources and/or partners in a given conflict environment. Further, researchers seek out information to triangulate – where and when possible – the fatality numbers from reports.’;
- ‘If source reports differ or a vague estimate is provided, ACLED uses the most conservative estimate available and seeks to note in the ‘Notes’ column when there has been a dispute. When better information becomes available, these totals will be revised and corrected – upward or downward. When sources report estimates such as “tens” or “dozens” or “hundreds,” ACLED codes 10 for “tens,” 12 for “dozens,” 100 for “hundreds,” and so on’;

- ‘When a report does not indicate whether or not any fatalities occurred or notes that it is unknown whether fatalities occurred at all, ACLED defaults to coding 0 as the fatality estimate. ACLED distinguishes between ‘fatalities’ and ‘casualties.’ Fatalities are deaths, whereas casualties are assumed to be injuries or fatalities. As such, if a report only indicates “casualties” (or similar ambiguous wording in other languages), the conservative approach that ACLED takes is to assume all casualties are injuries and hence code 0 fatalities.’
- ‘When a report indicates that an event did indeed lead to fatalities, yet there is no additional information on how many fatalities may have occurred, ACLED codes this unspecified number of fatalities as either 3 or 10 fatalities depending on the circumstances of the event. If the information in the event and the general understanding of the conflict context indicates the event has a high death toll (likely over 10), then 10 fatalities are coded.’
- ‘ACLED does not code reported fatalities according to which group suffered fatalities, nor according to the number of people killed by a specific group. For this reason, the data cannot generally be used to estimate the number of deaths caused or suffered by one actor or another in a conflict, as a single event may contain information on fatalities caused or suffered by both parties in a battle. The exception to this is events targeting civilians and protesters, who are by definition not engaging in violence themselves.’
- ‘Fatality numbers are not consistently reliable from any source. All reported fatalities, from all forms of media and partners, are estimates.’¹⁰

Qualitative information and data on security incidents and fatalities from the research project Nigeria Watch¹¹ have also been used in the report, alongside ACLED data. The project began in July 2006 and is hosted by the French Institute for Research in Africa (IFRA-Nigeria) on the campus of the University of Ibadan since July 2013.¹²

Qualitative information and data on security incidents and fatalities reported by the Foundation for Partnership Initiatives in the Niger Delta \(PIND\) have also been used, when available, for the states comprising the Niger Delta region (Abia, Akwa Ibom, Bayelsa, Cross River, Delta, Edo, Imo, Ondo, Rivers).¹³

It must be noted that ACLED, Nigeria Watch and PIND follow different methodologies and, as such, their data are not directly comparable.

Structure and use of the report

The report is divided into two parts. The first part provides an analytical overview on long-standing security challenges and major conflicts, including information on the state armed actors and non-state armed actors involved. The second part of the report provides a breakdown of the security situation by geopolitical zone and state, covering security trends in the period 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025. This part includes information on major security issues and main actors, main types of violence, recent security trends and state response in maintaining law and order.

Terminology and classification of actors

In examining matters concerning Boko Haram, it is important to note that the term serves as an umbrella definition for an armed group comprising internal factions. Some sources do not explicitly differentiate between the two main factions: Jamaatu Ahlis-Sunnah lid-Da'wah wal-Jihad (JAS) and the Islamic State West Africa Province (ISWAP), which may affect the specificity of information related to their activities, structures, and areas of control. In this report, the terms JAS and Boko Haram are used interchangeably, in contrast to ISWAP and other Boko Haram factions.

When reporting on issues involving especially cult groups, herder-farmer conflicts, banditry (and in some instances, vigilante groups, separatist armed groups, Islamist groups), sources often use broad labels such as 'criminals', 'gunmen', 'bandits', 'terrorists' to describe perpetrators. Such terminology, at times, creates challenges in distinguishing between different groups and incidents, particularly as some actors overlap. Given the complex nature of these phenomena in Nigeria, it is not always possible to provide precise or clear-cut information about the actors involved.

Further, some sources use the terms 'hunters' and 'vigilantes' interchangeably to describe community-based security groups in Nigeria. However, the term 'vigilante' is more commonly used as the broader label for these non-state security actors.¹⁴

1. General description of the security situation

Nigeria continues to face a variety of concurrent security challenges,¹⁶ each of them multifaceted and posing a serious threat to the country's stability. These challenges have kept the country in a state of security crisis for the past two decades.¹⁷

Northern Nigeria has remained affected by the decade-and-a-half-long Islamist insurgency.¹⁸ While such insurgency, led by Boko Haram and related al-Qaeda and Islamic State affiliates, had long been seen as the most significant threat to the country's stability, by early 2024 violence arising from banditry has become both more lethal and widespread. Perpetrated by groups described as 'highly fragmented' and diverse in terms of their capabilities and degree of organisation,¹⁹ banditry was reported in the country's North-West²⁰ and North-Central zones,²¹ as well as in Lagos and other areas of the South-West.²²

Meanwhile, tensions between herders and farmers over livelihoods²³ remained an issue across the North-Central zone²⁴ (also known as the Middle Belt)²⁵ and other parts of the country.²⁶ Some sources attributed these security challenges to ethno-religious tensions²⁷ and, at times, also to criminal activity.²⁸ Moreover, the reference period witnessed a continuation of Biafran secessionist activities in the South-East, criminality in the Niger Delta,²⁹ activities of violent gangs centred around the South-South and the South-West,³⁰ and pre-election-related violence in Edo state.³¹ These manifold security issues have left the country's military and police forces overstretched.³²

The UN noted a rise in insecurity during the first half 2024.³³ Several sources highlighted the volatility of the security situation in Nigeria's North-Eastern zone,³⁴ the border zones between Nigeria, Niger and Benin,³⁵ and across the Sahel region at large.³⁶ The Global Terrorism Index (GTI) covering events of the year 2024 ranked Nigeria in sixth place among countries most impacted by terrorism (a deterioration by two places from 2023),³⁷ based on a weighted analysis of terrorism incidents, fatalities, injuries and hostages taken.³⁸ According to the Global Peace Index 2025, Nigeria ranked 148th out of 163 independent countries and territories surveyed (a deterioration by three places from the previous year).³⁹ The Fragile States Index covering the year 2024 ranked Nigeria as the 15th most fragile country out of 179 countries assessed.⁴⁰

Nigeria has been marked by high levels of corruption, poverty, unemployment and underdevelopment.⁴¹ The government of Bola Tinubu, elected president in February 2023,⁴² has attempted to diminish corruption both in public and private institutions, but the issue remained pervasive, especially in the oil and security sector.⁴³ Economic policies introduced by the government since 2023, including the removal of a petrol subsidy, cuts to subsidies on electricity prices, and currency devaluations, have resulted in high inflation rates.⁴⁴ The country's political opposition has been weakened by defections to the ruling All Progressives Congress (APC).⁴⁵ However, in July 2025, the leaders of the two main opposition parties joined forces to challenge Tinubu and the APC in the next election.⁴⁶ For more general information on the country, including on latest political developments and human rights situation see EUAA COI Country Focus Report Nigeria, November 2025.

1.1. Main Actors

This section focuses on developments relevant to actors involved in the different conflicts within the reference period. Detailed information, including historical background, on state and non-state actors is provided in section 1.3. Armed Actors of the EUAA COI Report – Nigeria: Security Situation, June 2021.

1.1.1. State armed actors

Nigerian Police Force (NPF)

The Nigerian Police Force (NPF) acts under the jurisdiction of both federal and state institutions⁴⁷ and is commanded by an Inspector-General of Police. Reflecting other existing administrative structures in the country, the police force consists of the following entities: the force headquarters, zonal headquarters, headquarters of the state command, divisional police headquarters, police stations, police posts, and village police posts.⁴⁸ Both recent sources and sources dating back as far as 2007 claimed that the NPF had an estimated strength of 371 800,⁴⁹ serving a total population estimated in 2024 at 236 747 130.⁵⁰ The resulting shortage in police personnel was compounded by the fact that more than 100 000 police officers were assigned to the protection of politicians and VIPs,⁵¹ rather than to tasks serving the general population.⁵² This shortage in manpower, as well as corruption and insufficient resources have resulted in delayed responses to crimes and numerous communities being left without protection.⁵³ With reliable accountability mechanisms lacking, there were reports of police officers engaging in misconduct, including arbitrary arrests, extortion of money⁵⁴ and excessive use of violence.⁵⁵

Nigerian Armed Forces (NAF)

The Nigerian Armed Forces (NAF) are comprised of three branches: the army, the air force, and the navy.⁵⁶ Information on numbers of personnel numbers varied among sources. While Global Firepower estimated the total strength of the armed forces at 280 000 (including 230 000 active personnel),⁵⁷ another recent estimate put the number of active service personnel at 140 000.⁵⁸ The army, estimated to be 65 000 strong,⁵⁹ was deployed in all 36 states. It was engaged in counterinsurgency operations in the North-East and combating criminal gangs/banditry in the North-West, farmer–herder violence, military and criminal activity targeting the oil industry in the Niger Delta, and separatist agitation in Biafra state.⁶⁰

The armed forces are equipped with a variety of weapons systems of Chinese, Russian, Middle Eastern, European and US origin and have been undergoing modernisation.⁶¹ In mid-2024, NAF launched its new aviation wing to provide aerial support for its ground operations.⁶² However, while the military budget has been consistently increased over the past years, criticism had been voiced over the volume and quality of the weaponry available.⁶³ Multiple security breaches allowed large-scale kidnappings to unfold and military aircraft to be shot down by militants using anti-aircraft weaponry.⁶⁴ A government airstrike targeting a site of the insurgent group Lakurawa in Sokoto State mistakenly killed 10 civilians in late 2024.⁶⁵

Nigerian Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC)

State actors also comprise the Nigerian Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC), a paramilitary organisation under the federal government tasked with combating threats to the country and its citizens⁶⁶ and protecting ‘critical national assets and infrastructure’,⁶⁷ including oil pipelines. The reference period witnessed disputes between the NSCDC and the police over their respective roles,⁶⁸ and at least one instance of violent altercation between members of the two institutions.⁶⁹

1.1.2. Vigilante groups and other communal defence forces

Hundreds of vigilante groups have been set up by local communities to combat crime across the country.⁷⁰ They notably operate in remote under-policed areas,⁷¹ protecting farms and conducting patrols.⁷²

Some groups, especially those sponsored by state administrations, have clear-cut structures at state, zone, LGA and community levels, as well as well-defined operational procedures. However, many other vigilante groups, particularly smaller ones, operated under no specific guidelines,⁷³ and were loosely organised.⁷⁴ Most groups indeed acted with little external oversight, with the nature of relations between vigilantes and state entities like the NPF, the NAF and the NSCDC described as ranging from cordiality and collaboration to suspiciousness and outright hostility.⁷⁵ The quality of recruitment practices also differed widely among groups⁷⁶ and many vigilantes were poorly trained.⁷⁷

As of 2025, the highly structured Vigilante Group of Nigeria (VGN), originally from Benue, was described by Nigeria's Guardian newspaper as the country's most powerful vigilante group.⁷⁸ As of December 2023, the group was estimated to have around 13 000 members, including at least 4 000 equipped with firearms (e.g., Dane guns, rifles, and shotguns). Other major groups include the Borno State Hunters Association (BoSHA), the Kesh Kesh vigilante group, and the Civilian Joint Task Force (CJTF), operating primarily in the North-East.⁷⁹ While there has been some evidence of success in fulfilling their tasks, including in eliminating bandits⁸⁰ and rescuing victims of kidnapping,⁸¹ vigilantes also suffered heavy losses in bandit attacks.⁸² As the majority of groups operated with limited internal accountability,⁸³ members of vigilante groups have also been accused of excesses⁸⁴ such as torture and killing of innocent individuals they suspected of banditry.⁸⁵ Some residents in states where vigilante groups are present were quoted as saying that actions by these groups were getting out of control.⁸⁶ In a notable incident, armed vigilantes in Edo State killed a group of 16 hunters in May 2025, allegedly mistaking them for kidnappers.⁸⁷

In the South-West, the Western Security Network, codenamed 'Amotekun'⁸⁸ (Yoruba for 'Leopard'),⁸⁹ created in 2019 by the region's six state governors,⁹⁰ has been engaged in efforts to tackle banditry and herder-farmer conflicts,⁹¹ conducting dozens of arrests of suspected criminals.⁹² At the same time, Amotekun commanders in various southwestern states pointed to a number of obstacles facing their forces, such as lack of funding, personnel, advanced

1.1.3. Non-state armed actors

Boko Haram

Since 2016, there have been two main distinct factions of Boko Haram – the Islamic State West Africa Province (ISWAP) and Jama'atu Ahlis Sunna Lidda'awati wal-Jihad (JAS) – with considerable differences in their modi operandi.⁹⁷

Fighting between these two factions has continued during the reporting period.⁹⁸ Both groups have strengthened their hold over their respective territories, and the frontline between them appears to have largely stabilised.⁹⁹

For information on developments pertaining to these factions prior to mid-2024, including territorial control, see section 1.3.2 Non-state armed actors of the EUAA COI Report – Nigeria: Security Situation, June 2021 and section 2.4.2 Non-state armed groups of the EUAA COI Report – Nigeria: Country Focus, July 2024.

ISWAP - Sources variously estimated that ISWAP had between 4 000 and 7 000¹⁰⁰ or even 8 000 to 12 000 fighters within its ranks.¹⁰¹ As of late 2024, the group's operations were limited to Borno and Yobe states.¹⁰² Its leadership structure involves a shura (advisory council). Shura consists of a number of senior commanders and clerics who must be consulted in key decision-making matters,¹⁰³ overseeing the group's strategy, approving appointments to positions of command, and ensuring ideological conformity.¹⁰⁴ The group has split its territories of operation in northeastern Nigeria into wilaya (provinces), which are further subdivided into several mantiqa (districts). A mantiqa is commanded by an amir-ul mantiqa (district head) who reports to the ISWAP's leadership.¹⁰⁵

As of mid-2025, there were said to be three wilaya: Buhaira (on the fringes of Lake Chad), Faruq (covering southern Borno, southern Yobe and northern Adamawa), and Krenowa (comprising areas of northern and central Borno).¹⁰⁶ Vincent Foucher, a political scientist specialised in security issues in West Africa,¹⁰⁷ pointed to sources indicating that ISWAP had strengthened its presence outside of the North-East since the 2021 death of Abubakar Shekau¹⁰⁸ who led the rival faction JAS (often referred to as Boko Haram).¹⁰⁹

ISWAP's attacks mainly targeted the military forces.¹¹⁰ While the group also considered Christian communities as legitimate targets for its attacks, it sought to regulate its relations with Muslim communities on whom it imposed levies to maintain its standing armed fighting force. ISWAP has set up standardised military units, strengthened internal surveillance, and intensified its use of information technology.¹¹¹ Thus, the group has made effective use of technology to increase its appeal among young people and drive its recruitment efforts, spreading jihadist propaganda and justifying killings in TikTok videos.¹¹²

During its operations against positions of government forces in the first half of 2025, ISWAP gave evidence of using new military tactics¹¹³ as it adapted to the government's 'super camp'¹¹⁴ strategy,¹¹⁵ including through the deployment of motorcycle-mounted combat units,¹¹⁶ rapid assaults using light weaponry, nighttime raids,¹¹⁷ near-simultaneous attacks at different places,¹¹⁸ attacks on strategic roads and bridges, and diversionary attacks to prevent the arrival of government reinforcements.¹¹⁹ Moreover, since December 2024, the group has used drones to conduct attacks,¹²⁰ rather than merely employing them for surveillance/ intelligence gathering¹²¹ and propaganda purposes.¹²² Following its successful overrunning of multiple military bases in Borno, researchers Malik Samuel and Ed Stoddard held that ISWAP had expanded its geographical scope and acquired the capability to attack ‘any location’ in the state, including garrison towns.¹²³

JAS (Boko Haram) - JAS also remained active.¹²⁴ As of mid-2024, the group controlled several separate enclaves in Nigeria, including its main territory on the Lake Chad islands and Gwoza Hills near the Nigeria-Cameroon border. JAS also maintains at least one enclave outside the North-East, located in the hills near the Shiroro Reservoir in Kaduna State (North-West). The current top leader (imam) of JAS is Ibrahim Bakura Doro, also known as Bakura Buduma. Estimates on the number of JAS troops are particularly difficult to determine, as the organisation of its forces is much less structured compared to ISWAP, lacking standardised unit sizes. To gather resources, the group continued to resort to plunder and kidnap residents for ransom in the areas under its control, including Muslims. However, it has also started to tax residents in its Lake Chad enclave.¹²⁵ Although JAS primarily targeted civilians, it has continued to pose a threat to the military. Attacking military posts remained one of the group’s main methods of replenishing its arsenal.¹²⁶

Other Islamist armed groups

Lakurawa - Insurgents with suspected¹²⁷ links to Islamic State Sahel Province (ISSP), locally known as Lakurawa, have been operating in northwestern Nigeria’s Kebbi,¹²⁸ Sokoto¹²⁹ and Zamfara states. Described as a violent jihadist group, Lakurawa became a high security concern in northern Nigeria in 2024. Its fighters are believed to have crossed into Sokoto State from the Niger Republic in 2018.¹³⁰ Its members have assaulted villages in both Nigeria and Niger and were believed to hold territory in several villages, where they levied taxes.¹³¹ After the Lakurawa killed 15 people in an attack on Mera village in Kebbi State in November

Pro-Biafran separatist groups

Indigenous People of Biafra (IPOB) - IPOB is a secessionist group striving for the restoration of the now-defunct Republic of Biafra.¹³⁹ It was designated by the Nigerian government as a terrorist organisation and banned in 2017. The group's supreme leader Nnamdi Kanu was arrested and detained in 2021.¹⁴⁰ Since then, IPOB has been implementing a sit-at-home order across the South-East initially designed as a weekly protest calling for the release of its detained leader Nnamdi Kanu. Compliance with the weekly shutdowns have been enforced by armed men¹⁴¹ known for resorting to coercive tactics such as looting, arson and targeted assassinations.¹⁴² Meanwhile, there has been a recent shift away from armed violence in IPOB's messaging, assessed to be a 'more tactical than an ideological shift'.¹⁴³

Eastern Security Network (ESN) - ESN is IPOB's paramilitary wing,¹⁴⁴ and it was created in December 2020 to protect Igbos from attacks by armed men (including Fulani herders).¹⁴⁵ ESN launched a campaign targeting Fulanis in the forests of the South-East. Over 2024, the campaign reportedly dislodged more than 70 Fulani herders and criminal settlements in these areas.¹⁴⁶ It also engaged in clashes with security forces, often conducting guerrilla-style attacks against police and military installations.¹⁴⁷ As of mid-2025, ESN's strength was unknown. A Nigerian senior security advisor told EUAA in July 2025 that the security forces had killed many ESN commanders and members since 2023 and that attacks on security personnel had declined in frequency and fatalities since late 2024.¹⁴⁸

Biafran Republic Government In Exile (BRGIE) and the Biafran Liberation Army (BLA) - Meanwhile, a rise in violent activities in the South-East since 2023 has been attributed to fighters linked to Simon Ekpa, a Finland-based agitator and self-acclaimed disciple of Kanu who that year announced the creation of the so-called Biafran Republic Government In Exile (BRGIE) and the Biafran Liberation Army (BLA).¹⁴⁹

Farmers and herders

While the conflict between farmers and herders was resurging over the first half of 2025, there was disagreement over the nature and categorisation¹⁵⁰ of this complex and under-researched phenomenon.¹⁵¹ Some observers linked the clashes to pressures on herders induced by climate change¹⁵² and competition over ever-dwindling resources,¹⁵³ while others labelled the violence as manifestations of organised criminality led by armed groups¹⁵⁴ or terrorism. Yet others have traced the violence to religious differences between the mostly Muslim herders and largely Christian farming communities, or to disputes between herders and farmers over land use.¹⁵⁵ For more information see 1.2.2 Intercommunal conflicts, including between farmers and herders.

Bandits/criminal groups

Bandits are characterised by fragmentation and diversity in their capabilities and levels of organisation.¹⁵⁶ Some observers noted that the labelling of banditry as 'organised criminals', 'unknown gunmen', or 'terrorists' has created challenges in understanding the complex nature of this phenomenon. Bandit groups are described as diverse, mobile, and economically motivated. Their violence disproportionately affects men through killings and women through sexual assault, while the frequency and intensity of attacks continue to rise. Despite receiving limited attention compared to the insurgency in the North-East, in recent years banditry

Cult groups/armed gangs

Numerous violent armed gangs originated as university confraternities (or cult groups) in southern Nigeria between the 1960s and the 2000s. These include Black Axe¹⁵⁸ (also known as Aiye), the Supreme Eiye Confraternity, the Supreme Vikings Confraternity, the Buccaneers¹⁵⁹ (Alora Sea Lords),¹⁶⁰ the Maphite, Deygbam and Deywell,¹⁶¹ and ‘waterfront gangs’ of the Icelanders and Greenlanders¹⁶² primarily operating in Rivers, Edo, Delta and Bayelsa states.¹⁶³ Few of these groups, with the exception of Black Axe, have sought to recruit new members outside their established homebases in the south.¹⁶⁴ While these groups are well-known, the most recorded incidents of lethal violence were linked to unidentified gangs.¹⁶⁵

Black Axe is an organised criminal group running cells in numerous countries. In Nigeria, where it is often perceived as synonymous with its legal parent group, the Neo-Black Movement of Africa (NBM), Black Axe is notorious for its violence and brutality. Its members, active in cities like Lagos, Port Harcourt and Benin City, regularly engage in kidnapping, extortion, smuggling and drug dealing while competing with rival gangs (e.g., the Maphites, the Eiye and the Vikings) over territory. Like other gangs, Black Axe recruits new adherents from secondary schools and universities¹⁶⁶ and enforces permanent membership.¹⁶⁷

The Maphite gang was dominant in Edo State, while Deygbam, Deywell and Icelanders were the dominant groups in Rivers. The Vikings were strongly established in Edo and Delta states. As of mid-2025, SBM Intelligence has identified three main gang rivalries: a fierce battle between Black Axe and Eiye’s over control of the Lagos underworld; the Vikings’ active resistance to Black Axe’s attempts to expand in the South-East and the South-South; and a deadly rivalry between local Icelanders and Greenlanders in Rivers State.¹⁶⁸ For more information see [1.2.4. 1.2. Conflict drivers and security trends

1.2.1. Attacks by Islamist groups and counter-insurgency operations

Northern Nigeria was described as a one of the main hotbeds of violence as it continued to be affected by armed attacks, abductions and banditry.¹⁶⁹ During the first half of 2024, the UN observed a deterioration of security conditions across the Lake Chad basin as operations of the Multinational Joint Task Force (MNJTF)¹⁷⁰ faced disruptions after the military coup in Niger¹⁷¹ in July 2023,¹⁷² prompting a rise in militant and extremist activity in the North-East.¹⁷³

Following a period of relative lull in insurgent activity,¹⁷⁴ ISWAP, a splinter faction of Boko Haram,¹⁷⁵ attacked Nigerian troops in Borno state in January 2025¹⁷⁶ and then launched a large-scale offensive across its zone of operation in the North-East, overrunning positions of government forces at multiple instances.¹⁷⁷ Amongst others, the group attacked army positions in Yamtaye town¹⁷⁸ and carried out coordinated attacks on Marte, Dikwa and Rann towns¹⁷⁹ (all located in Borno state).¹⁸⁰ It also extended its attacks into Yobe and Adamawa states.¹⁸¹ Between February and late June 2025, ISWAP conducted 22 attacks on heavily fortified 'super camps' of the Nigerian armed forces, as recorded by the Jamestown Foundation.¹⁸² Dozens of soldiers were killed in these attacks.¹⁸³ Some of the attacks were repelled by the army¹⁸⁴ or followed by counter-offensives that retook at least one base seized by the militants.¹⁸⁵

Besides conducting attacks on military forces, ISWAP perpetrated deadly assaults against communities of Shiites (August 2024)¹⁸⁶ and Christians (April¹⁸⁷ and May 2025¹⁸⁸). The Boko

Haram faction, JAS, likewise intensified its attacks on civilians and perceived government collaborators.¹⁸⁹ The Global Protection Cluster (GPC) identified 214 attacks on civilians by armed groups over the year 2024, resulting in more than 300 deaths.¹⁹⁰ Dozens of civilians were killed in attacks by Boko Haram factions in the region in September 2024¹⁹¹ and January¹⁹² and April 2025.¹⁹³ A key Boko Haram (JAS) commander and two of his deputies were killed in a targeted security operation in May 2025.¹⁹⁴

In remote areas of the North-West, Lakurawa - a militant group with suspected¹⁹⁵ links to ISSP¹⁹⁶ and whose existence was only first acknowledged by the Nigerian government in November 2024 - launched attacks on local villages in late 2024/early 2025, killing dozens of residents. In response, armed forces launched air and ground operations against Lakurawa in late 2024¹⁹⁷ and arrested 174 suspected members of the group at the Nigeria-Niger border in January 2025.¹⁹⁸ According to Nigeria Watch, Lakurawa's raids on local communities and government operations against the group in 2024 resulted in 48 fatalities in Zamfara, Kebbi and Sokoto states.¹⁹⁹

Military and security campaigns against insurgents further intensified in mid-2025, involving clearance operations, airstrikes and ambushes mainly in Borno, Adamawa, Kebbi and Zamfara states, resulting in the killing of dozens of armed militants.²⁰⁰

1.2.2. Intercommunal conflicts, including between farmers and herders

The country witnessed continued violence between herders and farmers²⁰¹ as well as deadly attacks on local communities by unidentified perpetrators.²⁰² In late May 2025, Amnesty International reported that at least 10 217 people had been killed in armed attacks in the states of Benue, Plateau (North-Central), Katsina, Kebbi, Sokoto and Zamfara (North-West) and Edo (South-South) since the end of May 2023, with Benue accounting for most deaths (6 896), followed by Plateau (2 630).²⁰³

After high levels of lethal violence in 2023,²⁰⁴ the year 2024 saw a drop in fatalities from herder-farmer violence as Nigeria Watch recorded 567 such fatalities over the year (compared to 860 in 2023), with the largest numbers recorded in Kaduna state, the FCT and Delta state.²⁰⁵ However, in the second quarter of 2025, Benue and Plateau states witnessed another ‘resurgence’ of the conflict,²⁰⁶ involving a series of mass-casualty attacks by assailants linked to herders across Benue resulting in over 150 deaths²⁰⁷ and several mass-casualty²⁰⁸/coordinated attacks in Plateau.²⁰⁹ Government efforts to enhance security were hindered by a lack of police and military personnel and shortages in equipment, as Nnamdi Obasi, International Crisis Group’s senior adviser for Nigeria, told the Financial Times.²¹⁰

1.2.3. Banditry and kidnappings

Banditry is described as a multifaceted crime encompassing acts such as armed robbery, murder, rape, kidnapping,²¹¹ cattle rustling, armed attacks, and raids targeting local communities.²¹² Perpetrated by groups defined as ‘highly fragmented’ and diverse in terms of their capabilities and degree of organisation, violence arising from banditry has increasingly become both more widespread and lethal,²¹³ spreading from the North-West to other regions and affecting remote villages, towns, and cities.²¹⁴

During the reference period, banditry-related violence was reported in the country’s North-West²¹⁵ and North-Central zones,²¹⁶ as well as in Lagos and other areas of the South-West.²¹⁷ Riding on motorbikes (okadas), the mobility, weaponry, and unpredictable nature of these groups have reportedly created widespread fear across communities, with anecdotal accounts from residents suggesting that the gunmen ‘can reach anywhere ... whenever they want’ and ‘kidnap at their own discretion.’²¹⁸

During 2024, Nigeria Watch reported an increase in fatalities arising from rural banditry, cattle rustling and related government operations (1 452 deaths, compared to 892 in 2023), with most fatalities recorded in Katsina, Zamfara and Kaduna.²¹⁹ In mid-2025, a further 'significant surge' in violence linked to banditry was reported, particularly across Niger, Katsina and Zamfara.²²⁰

Early 2024 saw a rise in kidnappings for ransom across the country,²²¹ including hundreds abductions in various parts of northern Nigeria in February and March 2024.²²² According to a February 2024 study by the Nigeria-based polling agency NOI Polls, the prevalence of kidnapping was highest in the North-Central zone, followed by the South-West, North-West, and South-East.²²³ According to the consulting firm Nextier, 2 452 individuals were kidnapped during the year 2024, a 31 % rise over the 1 878 victims of kidnapping recorded in 2023.²²⁴ At the same time, abduction-related fatalities dropped in 2024, according to Nigeria Watch (425 deaths, compared to 536 recorded in 2023).²²⁵ 2025 saw continued large-scale kidnappings²²⁶ and killings of abductees,²²⁷ with kidnappings remaining a 'pervasive threat' across multiple states as of mid-2025.²²⁸ Urban and rural areas, along with national highways, have emerged as vulnerable locations where kidnappings occur.²²⁹ Victims of kidnappings included villagers,²³⁰ travellers, political figures,²³¹ large numbers of schoolchildren and IDPs,²³² businesspeople, priests, and individuals perceived as being well-off.²³³ Several military operations were launched in April 2025 against hideouts of bandits in northwestern Nigeria.²³⁴

1.2.4. Violence linked to criminality, gangs/cults and separatism in the Niger Delta

The main drivers of insecurity and lethal violence in the Niger Delta region included criminality, violence linked to gangs/cults, mob violence, separatist agitation, communal violence,²³⁵ disputes over land and resources,²³⁶ armed clashes between criminals and security forces.²³⁷ According to the Foundation for Partnership Initiatives in the Niger Delta (PIND), an Abuja-based non-profit organisation working on economic and conflict-related issues in the Niger Delta, in 2024, the region saw a 30 % decline in fatalities linked to violent incidents compared to 2023 (from 1 019 to 713 fatalities), with decreases recorded for fatalities linked to criminal violence (from 647 deaths to 475), communal violence (from 74 to 68) and cult/gang-related clashes (from 177 to 143). However, insecurity still persisted across the Niger Delta, as PIND recorded an 11 % rise in incidents of criminal violence (from 401 to 445 incidents).²³⁸ For the first quarter of 2025, the same source reported a marginal 8.3 % decline in violent incidents compared to the last quarter of 2024, alongside a 27.7 % increase in overall conflict-related fatalities that was attributed to a rise in deaths from communal violence (from eight to 85), criminal violence (from 94 to 104) and mob violence (from 23 to 30).²³⁹ The second quarter of 2025 saw a 24 % decline in overall conflict-related fatalities from the first quarter of 2025, attributed to a decrease in deaths from mob violence (30 to six), criminal violence (126 to 110) and communal conflicts (from 85 to 39).²⁴⁰

Nigeria Watch reported 328 fatalities arising from violence related to gangs/cults, with most fatalities recorded in Anambra, Lagos and Rivers states.²⁴¹ SBM Intelligence, a consultancy specialising in market and security research in West Africa,²⁴² stated that between January 2020 and March 2025, 1 686 individuals had been killed in at least 909 violent incidents linked to gangs/cults in Nigeria. Among these years under review, 2024 recorded by far the highest number of incidents (273), and the third-highest number of fatalities (333) (following 377 in 2021 and 350 in 2020).²⁴³ The ‘epicentres’ of gang/cult-related violence were the South-South (accounting for more than 750 gang-related fatalities between January 2020 and March 2025) and the South-West (more than 491 fatalities). The South-East ranked third in terms of fatalities (more than 215 fatalities). By contrast, the North-East and the North-West together saw less than 30 fatalities linked to these traditional gangs,²⁴⁴ which can all trace their origins to the south.²⁴⁵ Meanwhile, the South-East also saw 379 deaths arising from violence related to pro-Biafran agitation in 2024.²⁴⁶

1.2.6. Improvised explosive devices (IEDs) and airstrikes

Sources reported widely different numbers of fatalities caused by IED attacks, with Action on Armed Violence (AOAV) recording 200 such civilian deaths²⁴⁸ and SBM Intelligence documenting 42 related deaths in 2024.²⁴⁹ After years of low incidence of suicide attacks,²⁵⁰ a notable upsurge in bombings by ISWAP was observed in the North-East,²⁵¹ with unclaimed suicide attacks killing dozens in mid-2024 in Borno's Gwoza and Konduga LGAs.²⁵² At least one large-scale suicide attack was reported in 2025.²⁵³ Meanwhile, airstrikes by the Nigerian armed forces killed dozens of civilians in Kaduna,²⁵⁴ Sokoto²⁵⁵ and Zamfara states.²⁵⁶ Amongst others, an airstrike targeting a site of the insurgent group Lakurawa in Sokoto State mistakenly killed 10 civilians in late 2024.²⁵⁷

1.2.7. Main security trends and impact on the civilian population

Security Incidents

According to ACLED data, 7 127 security incidents (coded as 'battles', 'explosions/remote violence', 'riots', and 'violence against civilians'²⁵⁸) occurred across the country during the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025. Of these incidents, 2 627 were coded by ACLED as battles, 348 as explosions/remote violence, 566 as riots, and 3 586 as violence against civilians.²⁵⁹

Fatalities

ACLED recorded a total of 17 109 fatalities as having been caused by security incidents across the country, recorded during the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, including 5 840 that resulted from incidents coded as ‘violence against civilians’.²⁷²

Internal Displacement

According to UNHCR, as of August 2025, 3 575 114 IDPs and 23 732 refugee returnees were living in Nigeria. The highest number of people were displaced in the North-East (2 252 348), mainly due to insurgency (92 %) and communal violence (6 %), followed by the North-West (718 126) and North-Central (604 640), driven by a variety of conflict-related dynamics. At state level, most IDPs were recorded in Borno (1 704 175), Benue (457 666), Katsina (270 968), Zamfara (216 968) and Adamawa states (200 211).²⁷³ According to the IDMC, 295 000 people were newly displaced across the country as a result of conflict and violence, including nearly 123 000 due to criminal violence in the North-West (Katsina, Sokoto and Zamfara), 57 000 due to conflict in states such as Borno and Yobe, and 43 000 as a result of communal violence in Benue.²⁷⁴

2. Security situation per state and Federal Capital Territory

Nigeria is a federal republic with three levels of government: federal, state, and local.²⁷⁵ It is divided into 36 states and the Federal Capital Territory (FCT), Abuja. The 36 states and the FCT are grouped into six geopolitical regions.²⁷⁶

2.1. North-Central

North-Central consists of the following six states and the Federal Capital Territory (FCT): Benue, FCT Abuja, Kogi, Kwara, Nasarawa, Niger and Plateau.²⁸⁰

For an overview of the main conflict drivers at the country and regional levels, see 1. General description of the security situation.

2.1.1. Benue

Benue state is comprised of the following 23 Local Government Areas (LGAs): Ado, Agatu, Apa, Buruku, Gboko, Guma, Gwer East, Gwer West, Katsina-Ala, Konshisha, Kwande, Logo, Makurdi, Obi, Ogbadibo, Ohimini, Oju, Okpokwu, Otukpo, Tarka, Ukum, Ushongo and Vandeikya. The state's capital is Makurdi.²⁸¹

The main ethnic groups are Tiv, Idoma, Iggede, Etulo, Abakpa, Jukun, Hausa, Akweya and Nyifon.²⁸²

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 6 141 284 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.²⁸³

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

Benue was frequently affected by intercommunal clashes, primarily fuelled by disputes between nomadic herders and predominantly settled farming communities regarding access to and control of natural resources, including land and water.²⁸⁴ Attacks primarily affected farmers.²⁸⁵ In a May 2025 report, Amnesty International mentioned that all 23 LGAs of Benue state had experienced attacks by gunmen and bandits, with Ukum, Logo, Katsina-Ala, Gwer West, Gwer East, Apa and Agatu LGAs facing attacks more frequently.²⁸⁶ In March 2025, SBM Intelligence mentioned protests against attacks by alleged Fulani herdsmen. remained the ‘epicentre’ of protests. According to SBM ‘reports suggest some peaceful Fulani communities face increasing hostility, regardless of their involvement in violence.’²⁸⁷

Regular killings by (alleged) herders were reported over the reference period in 2024 (for example in March,²⁸⁸ July,²⁸⁹ October,²⁹⁰ and December²⁹¹) and 2025 (for example in February,²⁹² April,²⁹³ May,²⁹⁴ June²⁹⁵ and July²⁹⁶). Besides attacks by Fulani militias²⁹⁷ and unspecified armed men,²⁹⁸ other types of violence included clashes between rival militias²⁹⁹ and abductions.³⁰⁰ According to a report by Nextier, 97 kidnap victims were recorded in 2024.³⁰¹

Clashes between cult groups were also reported.³⁰² According to a July 2025 SBM Intelligence report, Benue state recorded 81 gang-related deaths, with gang activities ‘often intersecting with farmer-herder clashes.’³⁰³ The gang environment of the state was marked by longstanding rivalries among groups like the Eiye, Vikings, and Buccaneers, as well as the presence of localised factions such as the Red Axe and Chain. The Red Axe, an offshoot of the Supreme Eiye confraternity, operated exclusively within Benue.³⁰⁴

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period between 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 406 security incidents in Benue state, which resulted in 1 338 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 106 were coded as battles, 29 as riots and 271 as incidents of violence against civilians.³⁰⁵

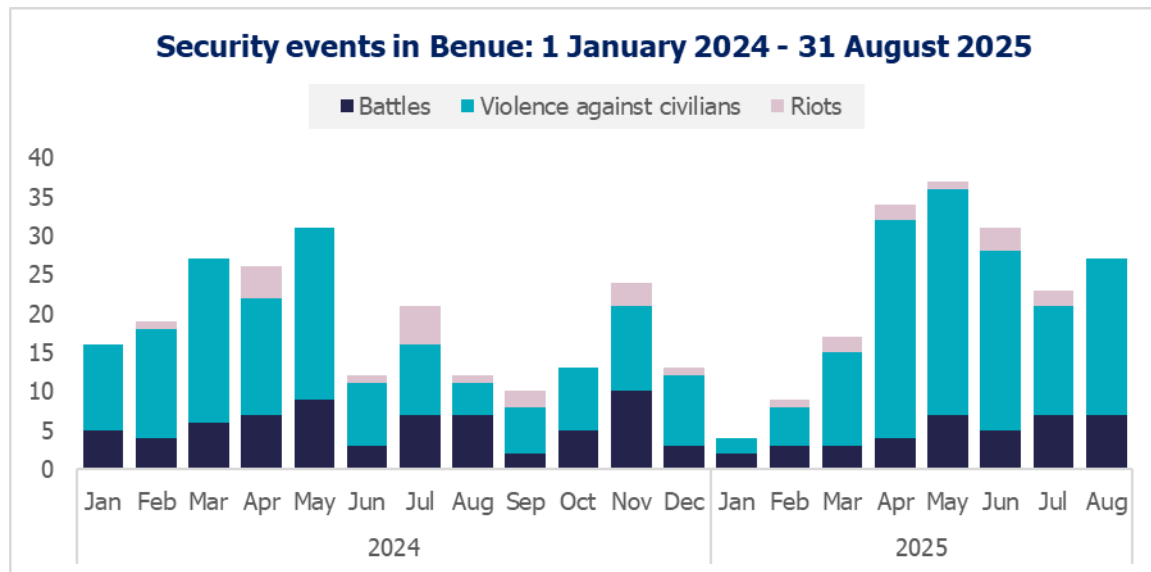

Figure 5: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Benue state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.³⁰⁶

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 22 LGAs of the state, with the highest numbers documented in Makurdi (62 incidents), Agatu (48 incidents), Otukpo (41 incidents), Ukum (39 incidents) and Qwer West LGAs (37). No incidents were recorded in one LGA (Obi). According to ACLED, Fulani ethnic militia and unidentified armed groups (coded as either ‘Actor1’ or ‘Actor2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.³⁰⁷

According to Nigeria Watch’s annual report covering 2024, the highest number of deaths from violence involving farmers and herders countrywide was recorded in Benue State (376), with Agatu (99), Kwande (76), Logo (60), Gwer West (46) and Apa (32) LGAs being the most affected.³⁰⁸

According to Nigeria Watch, regarding fatalities, Benue was the second most affected state by ethno-communal violence in 2024,³⁰⁹ with deadly incidents reported in Ado LGA in December 2024³¹⁰ and April 2025.³¹¹

In February 2025, eight people were killed in alleged clashes between the Black Axe and Vikings cult groups in Benue’s capital Makurdi.³¹² In April 2025, an attack by alleged members of the Effium community against members of the Ezza community resulted in the killing of two persons and the disappearance of several others.³¹³ In April 2025, suspected herders killed 11 persons in Afia community in Ukum LGA,³¹⁴ and in May 2025 suspected herders killed 42 people in four communities in Gwer West LGA.³¹⁵ In June 2025, up to over 200 people were killed in attacks by gunmen in Yelewata, in Guma LGA.³¹⁶

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - In May 2025, Amnesty International reported that gunmen not only killed individuals but also destroyed boreholes, clinics, and schools following attacks. Amnesty International documented that, during attacks on communities in Ukum and Logo LGAs, grain reserves and religious sites were destroyed.³¹⁷ Reportedly armed groups occupied farmland and obstructed agricultural activities.³¹⁸

Road security - Kidnappings were reported along various roads in the reference period.³¹⁹

Displacement, movement and return - As of February 2025, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Benue state at 457 666³²⁰ compared to 401 403 as of November 2024.³²¹ IOM lists communal clashes (45 %), farmer-herder clash (36 %) and insurgency (18 %) as the main reasons for displacement in the state.³²² IDMC recorded 43 000 displacements triggered by communal conflicts in Benue in 2024.³²³ According to a July 2025 article by Amnesty International, attacks by gunmen had displaced at least 500 000 people.³²⁴

No information could be found on returns in Benue state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Media reported on Operation Whirl Stroke (OPWS), launched in May 2018,³²⁵ with activities in Benue state, including the rescue of kidnapped victims,³²⁶ operations against bandit hideouts³²⁷ and the arrest of suspects.³²⁸ In June 2025, new combat and mobility equipment was deployed to troops of OPWS³²⁹ following the killing of civilians in Yelewata on 14 June 2025 (see above), with sources alleging state failure regarding the protection of citizens.³³⁰

Also, the Nigeria Police Force, military, and intelligence services were criticised for their continued inability ‘to safeguard vulnerable communities and deter armed non-state actors’ following the attacks.³³¹ An April 2025 article by France 24 on killings in Benue state noted that critics alleged ‘a failure by authorities and police to govern the countryside.’³³² Reportedly, despite various efforts, state-level initiatives such as the anti-open grazing law, community dialogues and compensation programmes had not proven effective, while military operations often triggered reprisals by bandits and armed groups.³³³

2.1.2. FCT Abuja

The Federal Capital Territory (FCT) of Abuja is comprised of the following six LGAs: Abaji, Abuja Municipal, Gwagwalada, Kuje, Bwari and Kwali.³³⁴

The main ethnic group in Abuja is Gbagyi (Gwari).³³⁵

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 3 067 457 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.³³⁶

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

The FCT was frequently affected by kidnappings,³³⁷ often occurring in the suburbs of the FCT.³³⁸ According to a report by Nextier, 116 kidnap victims were recorded in 2024.³³⁹ Incidents, for example, were reported in November 2024,³⁴⁰ and January,³⁴¹ February,³⁴² March,³⁴³ and May³⁴⁴ 2025. c) State response in maintaining law and order

In July 2025, the FCT Police Command initiated a joint security patrol and deployment in collaboration with the military and paramilitary agencies, 'following recent security incidents within the Federal Capital Territory, particularly kidnapping, one chance robbery attacks and vandalism of public property'.³⁷⁰ Already in January 2024, the Inspector-General of Police (IGP) had launched the Special Intervention Squad (SIS) in the FTC to combat insecurity and kidnapping.³⁷¹ According to the IGP, the SIS consisted of 'trained, well-equipped and highly mobile police officers'.³⁷² At the end of February 2024, the SIS had reportedly carried out operations in 'Kawu, Kuchikau, Bwari, Nigerian Law School, Verias University, Claritian Missionary Seminary, Zuma I, Zuma II, Iguh areas of the FCT which are known areas for terrorist and bandit activities'.³⁷³ In March 2025, for example, police killed a 'notorious kidnapper', and in June 2025 arrested a 'suspected kidnap kingpin' during operations.³⁷⁴

2.1.3. Kogi

Kogi state is comprised of the following 21 LGAs: Adavi, Ajaokuta, Ankpa, Bassa, Dekina, Ibaji, Idah, Igalamela-Odolu, Ijumu, Kabba/Bunu, Kogi, Lokoja, Mopa-Muro, Ofu, Ogori/Magongo, Okehi, Okene, Olamaboro, Omala, Yagba East, Yagba West.³⁷⁵ The capital city is Lokoja.³⁷⁶

The main ethnic groups are Igala (including the Ogugu subgroup), Ebira, and Okun. Other minorities include Bassa, Nupe (mainly in Lokoja), Gwari, Kakanda, Oworo, Ogori Magongo and the Eggan community.³⁷⁷

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 4 466 801 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.³⁷⁸

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

According to a report by Nextier, 68 kidnap victims were recorded in Kogi in 2024,³⁷⁹ while according to SBM Intelligence, 80 people were kidnapped in 2024.³⁸⁰ Kidnappers often demanded ransom.³⁸¹ Data from the Nigeria Risk Index, cited by a June 2025 article by The Journal Nigeria ranked Kogi state ‘among the top five states affected by kidnapping nationwide.’³⁸² Cases of kidnapping were for example reported in February,³⁸³ August,³⁸⁴ November,³⁸⁵ and December 2024,³⁸⁶ and in February,³⁸⁷ March,³⁸⁸ April,³⁸⁹ and May 2025.³⁹⁰ In May 2025, the Punch Newspaper reported that Kogi was affected by a ‘spate of kidnappings’ in the previous weeks.³⁹¹

According to an April 2025 article by Nigerian newspaper The Sun, 57 people were killed by bandits, herders or criminal groups between November 2024 and April 2025.³⁹² Deadly attacks by bandits were for example reported in January and April 2024,³⁹³ and in January 2025.³⁹⁴ Violence linked to conflicts between herders and farmers included incidents in April 2024 in Omala LGA³⁹⁵ and in November 2024 in Ijumu LGA.³⁹⁶

SBM Intelligence noted in July 2025 that Kogi was affected by gang activity, describing the state as ‘notable hotspot’ within the North-Central zone.³⁹⁷

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period between 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 115 security incidents in Kogi state, which resulted in 98 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 30 were coded as battles, 8 as riots and 77 as incidents of violence against civilians.³⁹⁹

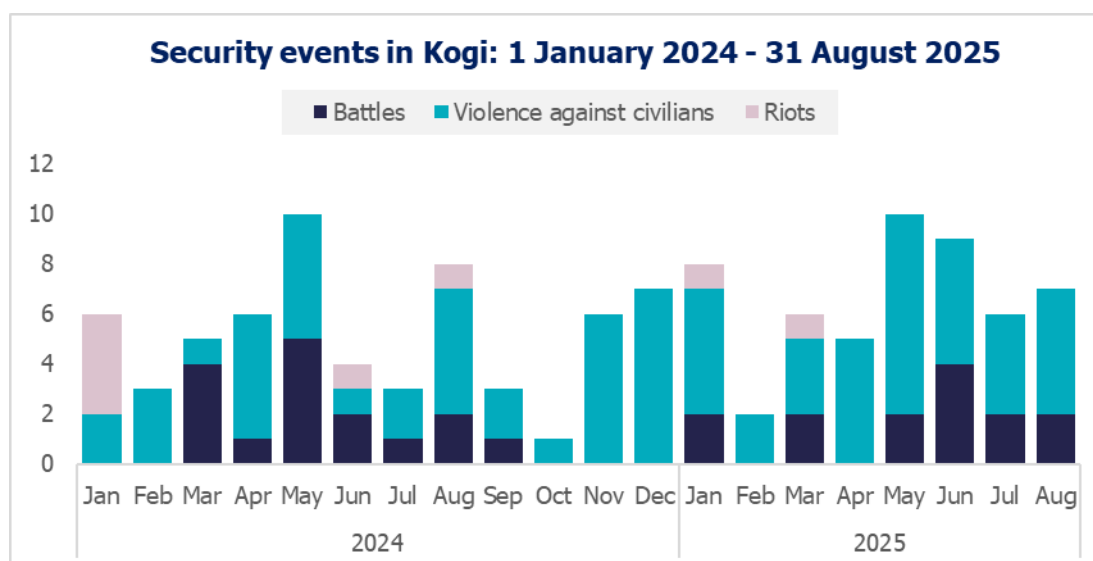

Figure 7: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Kogi state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.⁴⁰⁰

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 20 LGAs of the state, with the highest numbers documented in Lokoja (25 incidents), Yagba West (15 incidents), Kabba (14 incidents), Ofu (9 incidents), Adavi, Dekina and Omala LGAs (6 incidents each). No incidents were recorded in one LGA (Ogori). According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups and Kogi communal militias (coded as either 'Actor1' or 'Actor2') were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.⁴⁰¹

A February 2025 article by the Daily Post mentions the destruction of property in the conflict between communities in Bassa LGA.⁴⁰⁴

Road security - As noted in section 2.1.2 FCT Abuja, the Abuja-Lokoja Highway was ‘long plagued by violent crime, kidnappings, and fear’. The most affected areas in Kogi state ‘included the Kwaita-Chikara-Omoko-Idu-Gegu-Orehi-Ochonyi-Akpogu and Koton Karfe communities’ and ‘Chikara-Sharp Bend, Aseni, Ahoko-Adabo, and the Orehi/Achabo axis.’ The article however noted that ‘recent reports indicate a significant reduction in criminal activities’ along the route, credited ‘to increased patrols led by the Nigerian army and other security agencies.’ However, certain sections of the road continued to suffer from potholes, poor lighting, and deserted checkpoints, which were frequently used as ambush spots.⁴⁰⁵ In July 2025, for example, kidnappings were reported along Egume-Ankpa expressway.⁴⁰⁶

Displacement, movement and return - As of February 2025, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Kogi state at 20 793⁴⁰⁷ compared to 24 576 as of November 2024.⁴⁰⁸ IOM lists disaster (90 %) and farmer-herder clashes (9 %) as the main reasons for displacement in the state.⁴⁰⁹

No information could be found on returns in Kogi state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

In December 2024, the Kogi State Command of the Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps concluded the training of 262 of its personnel, ‘in response to escalating security challenges and the need to safeguard critical infrastructure.’⁴¹⁰ In June 2024, the state government planned the recruitment of 50 hunters in each of the state’s 21 LGAs and cited ‘a shortage of security personnel’ and the necessity ‘to curb crime and criminality in the state’ as reasons for the proposed recruitment.⁴¹¹ In December 2024, the state government reported that in 2024, it had deployed 3 000 security personnel throughout the 21 LGAs to combat banditry and other forms of crime.⁴¹² In October 2024, a forward operational base of the Nigerian Army in Egbe began operations as part of efforts ‘to stem kidnapping, banditry and other criminal activities in the border community.’⁴¹³ According to a June 2025 media article, the base, strategically located ‘at the crossroads of Kogi, Kwara, Ekiti, Osun, and Niger states’ provided ‘rapid-response capability and a permanent military presence to deter criminal elements exploiting the remote forested terrains of the region.’⁴¹⁴

2.1.4. Kwara

Kwara state is comprised of the following 16 LGAs: Asa, Baruten, Edu, Ekiti, Ifelodun, Ilorin East, Ilorin West, Ilorin South, Irepodun, Kaiama, Moro, Offa, Oyun, Isin, Oke-Ero and Patigi. The capital city is Ilorin.⁴¹⁸

The main ethnic groups residing in Kwara State are the Yoruba, Nupe, Bariba and Fulani.⁴¹⁹

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 3 551 023 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.⁴²⁰

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

In June 2025, Premium Times mentioned that across seven LGAs in the southern part of Kwara state, individuals described as ‘foreign elements’ were reportedly ambushing road users and carrying out kidnappings for ransom, while armed herders were allegedly driving cattle onto farmland and attacking farmers who try to resist.⁴²¹ A March 2024 study noted that ‘poor communication, crop destruction, and cattle theft are the primary causes of conflict between the crop farmers and cattle herders in Kwara State.’⁴²² A December 2024 article mentioned ‘incessant conflicts between herders and farmers’ in Kaiama LGA.⁴²³

In April 2025, the emergence of a new ‘terrorist group’ named Mahmuda was reported.⁴²⁴ The group is believed to be a breakaway faction of Boko Haram and is also referred to as the Mallam Group after its leader.⁴²⁵ It was mostly active in Kainji Lake National Park.⁴²⁶ The group financed its operations through a combination of kidnapping for ransom, forced labour, and

Kwara state was affected by kidnappings, for example in August,⁴³¹ September 2024,⁴³² April,⁴³³ May,⁴³⁴ June,⁴³⁵ and July 2025.⁴³⁶ In response to ‘unabated kidnappings’ in Edu LGA, angry youths attacked and set fire to the palace of the local Emir and the local office of the National Drug Law Enforcement Agency (NDLEA) in June 2025.⁴³⁷

Killings by gunmen were reported for example in October 2024,⁴³⁸ and in March,⁴³⁹ April,⁴⁴⁰ and June 2025.⁴⁴¹

Deadly violence targeted members of the Miyetti Allah Cattle Breeders Association of Nigeria (MACBAN),⁴⁴² an organisation supporting Fulani issues.⁴⁴³

According to a July 2025 report by SBM Intelligence, Kwara recorded 58 youth gang-related deaths between January 2020 and March 2025.⁴⁴⁴ The report described the state as ‘notable hotspot’ within the North-Central zone, with violence involving the Black Axe (Aiye) group.⁴⁴⁵ In June 2024, Daily Trust newspaper reported ‘rising cases of cult wars and clashes between rival cult groups in Kwara State’.⁴⁴⁶

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period between 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 133 security incidents in Kwara state, which resulted in 144 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 33 were coded as battles, 12 as riots and 88 as incidents of violence against civilians.⁴⁴⁷

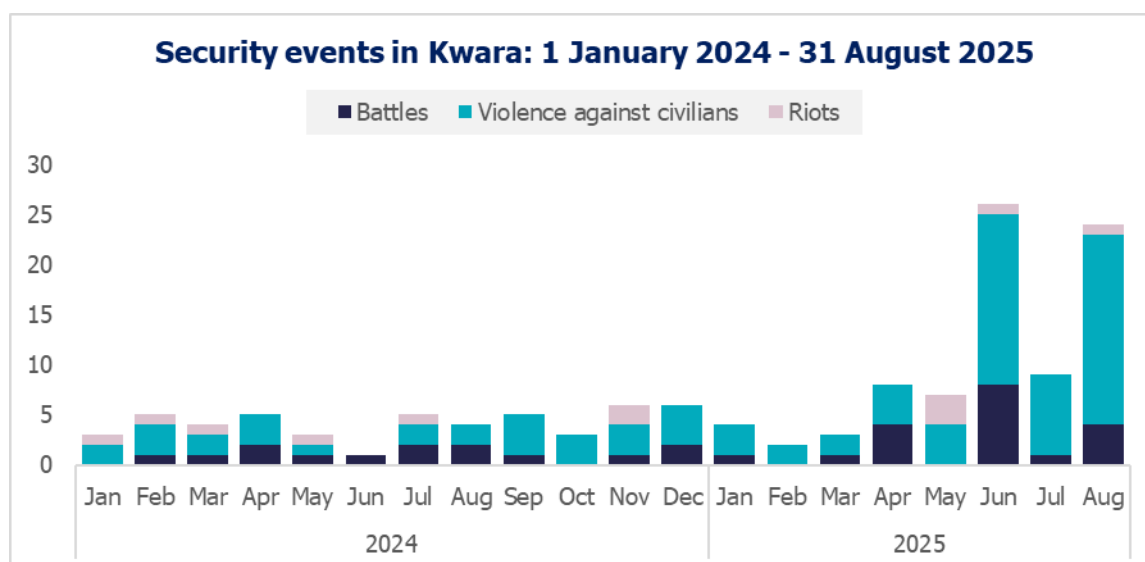

Figure 8: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Kwara state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.⁴⁴⁸

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 14 LGAs of the state, with the highest numbers documented in Ifelodun (28 incidents), Ilorin West (20 incidents), Edu (17 incidents), Pategi (17 incidents) and Baruten LGAs (9 incidents). No incidents were recorded in two LGAs. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups and Kwara communal militias (coded as either ‘Actor1’ or ‘Actor2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.⁴⁴⁹

In June 2025, Mahmuda members reportedly killed three persons in an attack on Duruma village in Baruten LGA.⁴⁵⁰ In April 2025, youths set fire to huts in a village in Kaiama LGA, accusing ‘the inhabitants of the Fulani settlement of colluding with bandits in the kidnapping and killing of locals.’⁴⁵¹ Also in April 2025, gunmen killed seven persons in Baruten and Kaiama LGAs.⁴⁵² In August 2024, 20 travellers were kidnapped in Ekiti LGA and later rescued by police and local vigilante.⁴⁵³

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - Two schools in Ilorin West LGA were temporarily shut in May 2025 due to student clashes, which had also resulted in property damage.⁴⁵⁴ In July 2025, a media article mentioned that Kwara and the FCT had ‘recorded the highest number of attacks on telecom infrastructure’ in an ‘increasing wave of vandalism and theft of telecommunications infrastructure across the country.’⁴⁵⁵

Road security - Kidnappings were reported along various roads in Kwara state in the reference period.⁴⁵⁶

Displacement, movement and return - No information could be found on conflict-induced displacement or returns in Kwara state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

In July 2025, the Kwara State Government announced a new military campaign ‘to address growing security concerns in isolated settlements, particularly in Ifelodun, Edu, and Patigi Local Government Areas.’ The campaign would be supported by ‘newly trained forest guards.’⁴⁵⁷ However, in June 2025, members of the armed group Mahmuda had allegedly taken advantage of security gaps caused by the temporary absence of local hunters, who were ‘undergoing training for the newly approved National Forests Guard’. The attack happened ‘despite the presence of soldiers deployed in flashpoint areas in recent months’.⁴⁵⁸ Already in May 2025, the Nigerian army had launched ‘Operation Park Strike Four’ to fight ‘bandits and other criminal elements hiding within the Kainji Lake National Park and surrounding border areas between Kwara and Niger States’⁴⁵⁹ and arrested 12 ‘suspected terrorists’.⁴⁶⁰ In December 2024, the state government earmarked 1 000 hectares of land in Kaiama LGA for pastoral development, to ‘reduce the conflict between herders and farmers’.⁴⁶¹ In November 2024, the Kwara State Command of the Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) said that its Agro Rangers had resolved 196 farmer-herder conflicts in the past year and its personnel were trained in Alternative Dispute Resolution to mediate disputes across all 16 LGAs.⁴⁶²

2.1.5. Nasarawa

Nasarawa state is comprised of the following 13 LGAs: Akwanga, Awe, Doma, Karu, Keana, Keffi, Kokona, Lafia, Nasarawa, Nasarawa Egon, Obi, Toto, Wamba. The capital city is Lafia.⁴⁶³

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - Bandits reportedly burnt houses and shops in March 2024⁵⁴³ and houses and farms in November 2024⁵⁴⁴ in Rafi LGA. In October 2024, attacks by bandits on the Shiroro-Kaduna power lines were reported.⁵⁴⁵

Road security - No information could be found during the reference period.

Displacement, movement and return - As of February 2025, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Niger state at 47 215⁵⁴⁶ compared to 42 486 as of November 2024.⁵⁴⁷ IOM lists armed banditry/kidnapping (61 %) and insurgency (38 %) as the main reasons for displacement in the state,⁵⁴⁸ while the Africa Center for Strategic Studies in October 2024 attributed 100 % of displacements in Niger state to criminal group activity.⁵⁴⁹

No information could be found on returns in Niger state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

In April 2024, the state government said security in Madaka in Rafi LGA had been reinforced 'to prevent further attacks on the community'.⁵⁵⁰ Also in April 2024, the Nigerian military withdrew troops from areas affected by bandit attacks 'for tactical reasons', as the forces 'suffered human and equipment casualties'.⁵⁵¹ In October 2024, bandits reportedly took over a military training camp. The military camp covered a vast area between Kontagora and Mariga LGAs.⁵⁵² In November 2024, the Chief of Defence Staff (CDS) ordered the reorganisation of

In May 2025, the Emir of Kagara commended security agencies for the ‘improved security situation’ in Kagara in Rafi LGA and their prompt response that curtailed bandit activities,⁵⁵⁴ while in June 2025, members of the Northern Elders Forum (NEF), an organisation advocating for the well-being of northern Nigeria,⁵⁵⁵ described the killing of more than 20 soldiers in a June 2025 attack in Mariga LGA ‘as further evidence of a total collapse of security in Northern Nigeria’.⁵⁵⁶ Between 24 and 26 June 2025, the Nigerian Air Force launched airstrikes ‘targeting terrorist elements behind recent attacks and cattle rustling’.⁵⁵⁷

In April 2025, HumAngle noted that ‘a significant portion of the Lapkma axis in Shiroro is ungoverned’ and Allawa and Bassa communities in Shiroro LGA were ‘characterised by a lack of effective governance control and security architectures’.⁵⁵⁸ In June 2025, HumAngle reported that Shiroro, Mashegu, and Borgu LGAs were ‘steadily slipping from state and federal control’.⁵⁵⁹

2.1.7. Plateau

Plateau state is comprised of the following 17 LGAs: Barkin Ladi, Bassa, Bokkos, Jos East, Jos North, Jos South, Kanam, Kanke, Langtang North, Langtang South, Mangu, Mikang, Pankshin, Qua’an Pan, Riyom, Shendam, Wase. The capital city is Jos.⁵⁶⁰

There are more than forty ethno-linguistic groups in the state. The main groups include Berom, Afizere, Amo, Anaguta, Aten, Bogghom, Buji, Challa, Chip, Fier, Gashish, Goemai, Irigwe, Jarawa, Jukun, Kofyar (comprising Doemak, Kwalla, and Mernyang), Montol, Mushere, Mupun, Mwaghavul, Ngas, Piapung, Pyem, Ron-Kulere, Bache, Talet, Tarok, Youm and Fulani/Kanuri in Wase. Other small communities include Igbo, Yoruba, Ibibio, Annang, Efik, Ijaw, and Bini. Besides English, Hausa is also a medium of communication and commerce, similarly to most parts of the North and Middle Belt of Nigeria.⁵⁶¹

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 4 717 305 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.⁵⁶²

Plateau state was affected by farmer-herder violence in the reference period.⁵⁶³ This violence was mainly driven by competition over resources and was 'complicated by religious undertones as many herders are Muslim and farmers Christian.'⁵⁶⁴

Attacks by gunmen were reported for example in January,⁵⁶⁵ May⁵⁶⁶ and September 2024⁵⁶⁷ and in April,⁵⁶⁸ May,⁵⁶⁹ June⁵⁷⁰ and July 2025.⁵⁷¹ Attacks were reportedly carried out both by members of farmer and herder communities. Ten people were killed in the Fulani attacks, while the farmer attacks resulted in the killing of cows.⁵⁷²

Kidnappings were reported, for example, in April,⁵⁷³ May,⁵⁷⁴ and July 2025,⁵⁷⁵ including the rescue of kidnapping victims by security forces.⁵⁷⁶

Clashes between bandits and vigilantes were reported in April⁵⁷⁷ and November 2024⁵⁷⁸ and in June⁵⁷⁹ and July 2025.⁵⁸⁰ In some cases, clashes involved joint operations between security forces and vigilantes.⁵⁸¹

Clashes between military forces and armed men were reported for example in November 2024,⁵⁸² and in February,⁵⁸³ March,⁵⁸⁴ and May 2025.⁵⁸⁵

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

coded as battles, 1 as explosion/remote violence, 18 as riots and 170 as incidents of violence against civilians.⁵⁸⁶

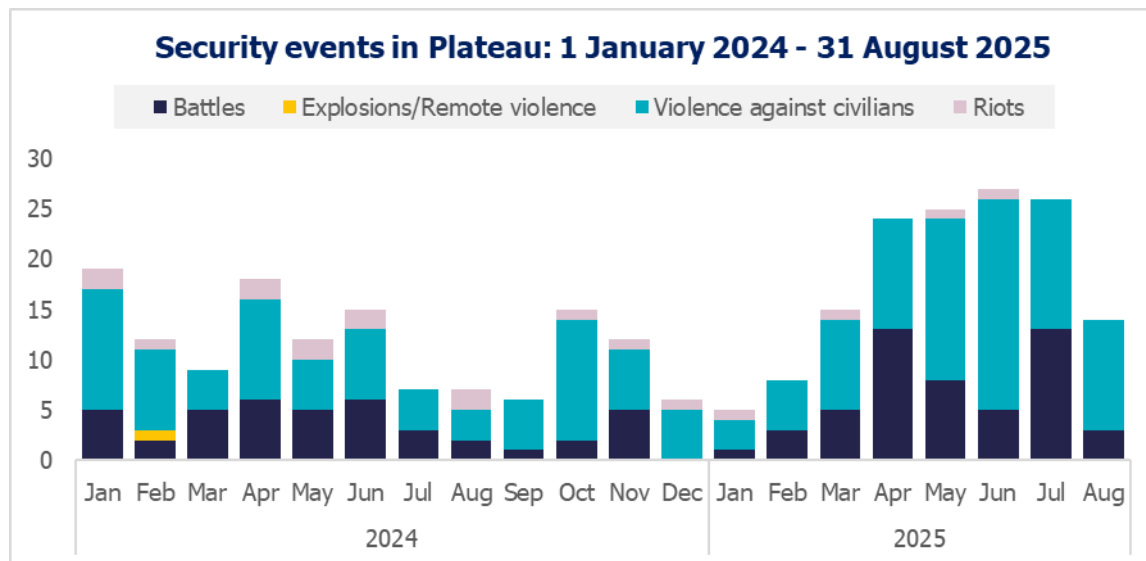

Figure 11: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Plateau state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.⁵⁸⁷

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 13 LGAs of the state, with the highest numbers documented in Bokkos (74 incidents), Wase (33 incidents), and Jos North (32 incidents) LGAs. No incidents were recorded in four LGAs. According to ACLED, Plateau communal militias and Fulani ethnic militias (coded as either ‘Actor1’ or ‘Actor2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.⁵⁸⁸

According to Nigeria Watch’s annual report covering 2024, the second-highest number of deaths from violence involving farmers and herders countrywide was recorded in Plateau State, with Bokkos (40) and Riyom (14) LGAs being the most affected.⁵⁸⁹

According to an April 2025 article by Nigerian newspaper The Sun, out of 578 people killed by bandits, herders and criminal groups across the North-Central states, 137 were killed in Plateau between November 2024 and April 2025.⁵⁹⁰

In April 2025, gunmen attacked the communities of Zike and Kimakpa in Bassa LGA, reportedly killing 51 people. Less than two weeks earlier, armed men had killed 52 people in attacks in Bokkos LGA.⁵⁹¹ In July 2025, gunmen reportedly killed at least 27 farmers, including men and women, in an attack on Tahoss village in Riyom LGA.⁵⁹² In July 2025, armed men abducted two children in an attack on a herder settlement in Tarangol district,⁵⁹³ and in August 2025 gunmen killed two herders in Butura district,⁵⁹⁴ both in Bokkos LGA.

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - Burning of houses, vehicles and property, and the killing of cattle was reported in Barkin Ladi LGA in March 2024.⁵⁹⁵ Media reported the destruction of more than 50 farms between January and March 2025 in Bassa and/or Jos LGAs belonging to the Irigwe people.⁵⁹⁶ Media also reported the rustling or killing of cattle and sheep between March and April 2025, and herders claimed incidents of cattle poisoning in Bassa and Mangu LGAs.⁵⁹⁷ According to Open Doors, between the end of March and mid-April 2025, over 300 homes were destroyed in attacks in Bokkos and Bassa LGAs.⁵⁹⁸ In May 2025, over 20 houses were burnt and food looted in attacks by gunmen on Wereng camp in Riyom LGA⁵⁹⁹ and around 300 hectares of farmland were destroyed in Kpachudu village in Bassa LGA.⁶⁰⁰ In July 2025, the burning of houses in attacks by bandits was reported in Kanam,⁶⁰¹ Wase,⁶⁰² and Riyom⁶⁰³ LGAs.

Road security - Media reported kidnappings along various roads, for example along Jos-Mangu,⁶⁰⁴ Jos-Makurdi,⁶⁰⁵ and Jos-Ganawuri⁶⁰⁶ roads. In June 2025, a bus carrying passengers to a wedding in Qua'an Pan LGA⁶⁰⁷ was reportedly attacked by a mob in Mangu LGA, leaving at least a dozen people dead.⁶⁰⁸

Displacement, movement and return - As of February 2025, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Plateau state at 55 053⁶⁰⁹ compared to 56 690 as of November 2024.⁶¹⁰ IOM lists communal clashes (45 %) and farmer-herder-clashes (40 %) as the main reasons for displacement in the state.⁶¹¹

No information could be found on returns in Plateau state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Media reported on activities of the Plateau State security outfit Operation Rainbow⁶¹⁴ and Operation Safe Haven (OPSH)⁶¹⁵ during the reference period. In November 2024, the state government planned to recruit 2 000 youths for Operation Rainbow, 'as part of efforts to tackle insecurity in rural communities.'⁶¹⁶ In January 2024, Operation Rainbow had been accused by residents of Mangu LGA of carrying out extrajudicial killings and arson.⁶¹⁷

Following attacks in Bassa LGA in April 2025, Amnesty International described the killings as an 'inexcusable security failure'.⁶¹⁸ The Plateau state governor banned night grazing and the movement of vehicles and cattle in the night following the attacks.⁶¹⁹ In June 2025, the Nigerian military announced the deployment of over 800 special forces in 'troubled states', including Plateau, to combat security challenges,⁶²⁰ and in July 2025, the governor announced the recruitment of 150 new Agro-Rangers to provide security for farmers.⁶²¹

In July 2025, the state governor claimed that 'proactive security measures have ensured that no LGA remains under bandit control'.⁶²² However, according to a July 2025 article by Global Upfront, the presence of the Nigerian military under Operation Safe Haven had 'yielded diminishing returns.' The state government now wanted to deploy Mobile Police units instead, as the 'the military's conventional warfare tactics are ill-suited to addressing communal clashes and guerrilla-style attacks'. Plateau state also advocated for federal support for Operation Rainbow.⁶²³

2.2.1. Adamawa

Adamawa state is comprised of the following 21 LGAs: Demsa, Fufore, Ganye, Girei, Gombi, Guyuk, Hong, Jada, Lamurde, Madagali, Maiha, Mayo-Belwa, Michika, Mubi North, Mubi South, Numan, Song, Shelleng, Toungo,⁶²⁵ Yola North and Yola South.⁶²⁶ The capital city is Yola.⁶²⁷

The main ethnic groups include Fulani, Verre, Chamba, Mumuye, Dabanci, Dangsa, Higgi, Nyandang, Sukur, Margi, Gudu, Hona, Mboi, Ga'anda, Yungur, Bwatiye, Mbula, Bala, Bille, Sate, Koma, Bura, Lala, Gwaba, Njanyi, Fali, Gude, Holma, Lunguda, Kanakuru, Jen, Matakam, Laka, Wula, Lilba, Kwah, Waja, Tambo, LiboMwama, Kilba, Viengo and others.⁶²⁸

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population of Adamawa in 2022 at 4 902 055, based on figures from the 2006 census figures.⁶²⁹

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

Alongside Borno and Yobe states, Adamawa is one of the main bases of Boko Haram and ISWAP in Nigeria. ISWAP has assigned the state's north to its Faruq wilaya (province) and has expanded its operations there.⁶³⁰ A July 2024 report by the consulting firm Nextier identified five LGAs in Adamawa (Madagali, Michika, Mubi North, Mubi South and Maiha),⁶³¹ all located in the state's north,⁶³² as being part of what it called the 'Northeast Belt of Insurgency'.⁶³³ In 2025, heightened insurgent activity was seen in Hong LGA.⁶³⁴

As of July 2025, the situation in Adamawa state was described as being marked by insecurity.⁶³⁵ During the first half of 2025, insurgent activity focused on Hong LGA,⁶³⁶ where individual armed attacks in January⁶³⁷ and February 2025⁶³⁸ were followed by a wave of attacks between April and June 2025 that killed dozens of people,⁶³⁹ including at least 17 within the space of two weeks in April.⁶⁴⁰ A number of these attacks occurred in villages bordering the Sambisa forest,⁶⁴¹ a Boko Haram stronghold.⁶⁴² Boko Haram/ISWAP repeatedly attacked the villages of Banga⁶⁴³ (a Christian community)⁶⁴⁴ and Kopre (Kwapre).⁶⁴⁵ Attacks were carried out by gunmen on motorbikes⁶⁴⁶ and involved the use of explosives against vigilantes and police.⁶⁴⁷

Meanwhile, deadly communal clashes erupted between ethnic Setti of Numan LGA and Kpasham of Demsa LGA (March 2024)⁶⁴⁸ and between ethnic Bachama and Tsobo in Lamurde LGA (early July 2025).⁶⁴⁹ Moreover, armed robberies occurred in Yola city,⁶⁵⁰ in Girei LGA,⁶⁵¹ and along the Numan–Gombe road axis,⁶⁵² including by youths affiliated with the ‘Shila Boys’ gang.⁶⁵³ The state also saw over a dozen kidnappings between mid-2023 and mid-2025,⁶⁵⁴ with villagers⁶⁵⁵ and Catholic clergymen among those targeted.⁶⁵⁶

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period from 1 January 2024 to 15 August 2025, ACLED recorded 73 security incidents in Adamawa state that resulted in a total of 123 fatalities. Of these incidents, 26 were coded as battles, 3 as explosion/remote violence, 10 as riots, and 34 as violence against civilians.⁶⁵⁷

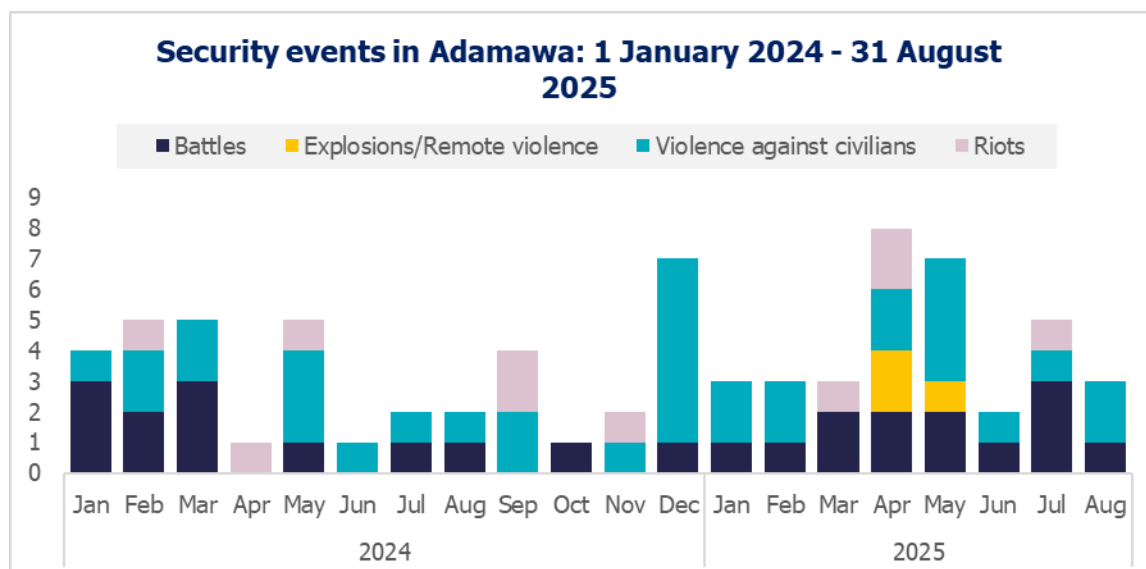

Figure 3: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Adamawa state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.⁶⁵⁸

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 18 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Hong LGA (16 incidents), followed by Madagali (13) and Fufore and Yola-North LGAs (6 incidents each). No incidents were recorded in three LGAs. According to ACLED, Boko Haram and unidentified armed groups (coded as either 'Actor1' or 'Actor2') were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.⁶⁵⁹

In Hong LGA, insurgent attacks resulted in dozens of fatalities among local residents, including in Banga and Larh villages (between six⁶⁶⁰ and seven deaths on 15 April 2025⁶⁶¹ and at least six more on 11 June 2025⁶⁶²) and Kopre on 26 April 2025 (between 10⁶⁶³ and 12 deaths among hunters and CJTF members).⁶⁶⁴ Communal clashes caused at least five fatalities in Numan/Demsa LGA (March 2024)⁶⁶⁵ and – depending on sources – two,⁶⁶⁶ three,⁶⁶⁷ or 10 or more fatalities in Lamurde LGA (early July 2025).⁶⁶⁸ Kidnappers targeted dozens of people during the reference period.⁶⁶⁹

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - The destruction of multiple civilian structures during insurgent attacks in Hong LGA in February,⁶⁷⁰ mid-April⁶⁷¹ and June 2025 was reported.⁶⁷² In the context of communal tensions and violence, several houses were burnt in Guyuk LGA in March 2025⁶⁷³ and early July 2025, while more than 20 houses were burnt in Lamurde LGA in July 2025.⁶⁷⁴

Road security - No information could be found during the reference period.

Displacement, movement and return - As of November 2024, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Adamawa state at 200 211,⁶⁷⁵ compared to 196 189 as of September 2024. IOM lists insurgency (72 %) and communal clashes (27 %) as the main reasons for displacement in the state.⁶⁷⁶ Attacks on five communities in Hong in April 2025 prompted the displacement of most residents.⁶⁷⁷ As of August 2024, there were 882 021 returnees (IDP returnees and returnees from abroad) in Adamawa state.⁶⁷⁸

c) State response in maintaining law and order

The NAF reported some gains during counter-insurgency operations in Adamawa in October 2024, although militant attacks on security forces and civilians continued in the region.⁶⁷⁹ Counter-insurgency operations again intensified in early July 2025.⁶⁸⁰ Meanwhile, according to local sources in Hong LGA interviewed by media during the second quarter of 2025, the situation in villages bordering the Sambisa forest was marked by a lack of adequate security presence⁶⁸¹ and responsiveness of security forces.⁶⁸² In the context of efforts to combat crime, coordinated security operations led to the rescue of a number of victims of kidnappings and

2.2.2. Bauchi

Bauchi state is comprised of the following 20 LGAs: Alkaleri, Bauchi, Bogoro, Dambam, Darazo, Dass, Gamawa, Ganjuwa, Giade, Itas/Gadau, Jama'are, Katagum, Krifi, Misau, Ningi, Shira, Tafawa Balewa, Toro, Warji and Zaki. The capital city is Bauchi.⁶⁸⁵

According to the Nigerian government, there are 55 ethnic groups in Bauchi state, including the Hausa, Fulani, Sayawa, Bulewa, Karekare, Kanuri, Warjawa, Zulawa and Badawa.⁶⁸⁶

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population of Bauchi in 2022 at 8 308 783, based on figures from the 2006 census figures.⁶⁸⁷

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

During the reference period, Bauchi's governor declared that the state was one of the country's most secure.⁶⁸⁸ Security incidents included an assassination of a former local politician (May 2025)⁶⁸⁹ and a deadly ambush by suspected bandits on a security patrol⁶⁹⁰ of vigilantes and hunters who were faced with 'superior firepower' from the attackers⁶⁹¹ (Gwana district, Alkaleri LGA, May 2025).⁶⁹² Moreover, a group of around 30 gunmen carried out a deadly attack on Dogon Ruwa village in the same LGA in July 2025,⁶⁹³ while clashes were reported between herders and farmers in Darazo LGA.⁶⁹⁴ The state also saw between 10 and 15 kidnappings in 2024, according to Nigeria Watch.⁶⁹⁵

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 58 security incidents in Bauchi state that resulted in a total of 159 fatalities. Of these incidents, 15 were coded as battles, 1 as explosion/remote violence, 17 as riots, and 25 as violence against civilians.⁶⁹⁶

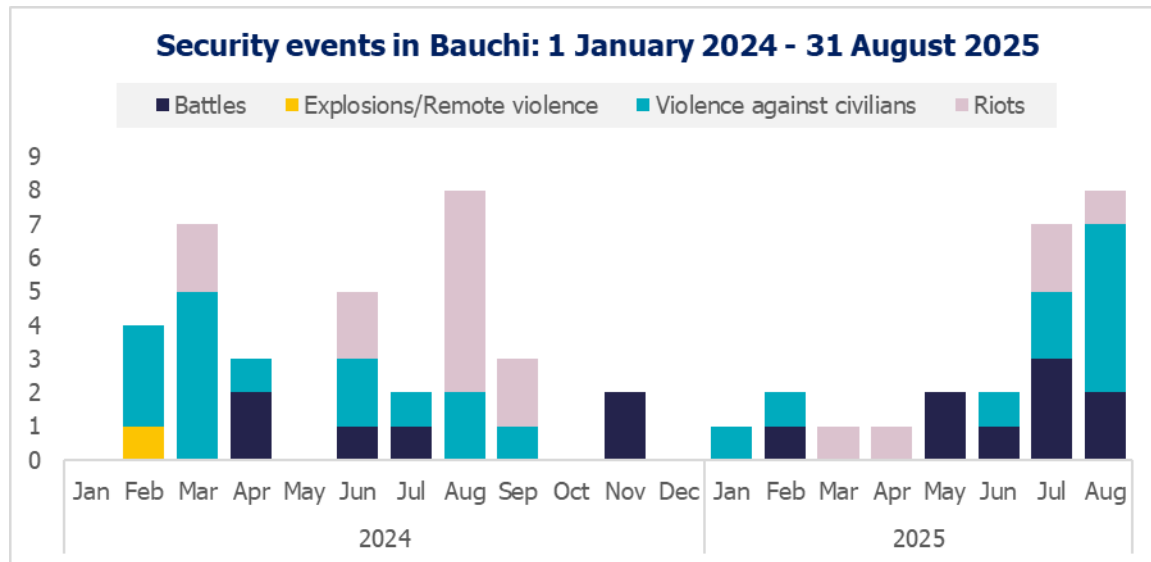

Figure 4: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Bauchi state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.⁶⁹⁷

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 11 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Alkaleri LGA (16 incidents), followed by Bauchi (15) and Toro (10) LGAs. No incidents were recorded in nine LGAs. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups (coded as either 'Actor1' or 'Actor2') were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.⁶⁹⁸

The May 2025 suspected bandit attack on a local security team in Gwana district of Alkaleri LGA resulted in a gun battle⁶⁹⁹ that killed 10 civilians (reportedly all Fulani herders) and 13 hunters/vigilantes, alongside more than 60 attackers.⁷⁰⁰ This incident was preceded by the bandits kidnapping 16 villagers and rustling some 500 cattle.⁷⁰¹ The July 2025 assault on Dogon Ruwa left one person dead, another injured, and ten more abducted.⁷⁰²

Displacement, movement and return - As of November 2024, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Bauchi state at 65 876,⁷⁰³ compared to 65 358 as of September 2024. IOM lists insurgency (83 %) and communal clashes (17 %) as the main reasons for displacement in the state.⁷⁰⁴ No information could be found on returns in the state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

According to a February 2024 statement by the Bauchi state governor, the state had rivers, mountains and forests that could serve bandits as hideouts.⁷⁰⁵ In April 2025, the NAF reportedly thwarted plans by ISWAP to set up bases in the state.⁷⁰⁶ After the May 2025 attack in Alkaleri LGA, the state governor announced a new joint security force to tackle insecurity in Gwana district.⁷⁰⁷ The July 2025 attack on Dogon Ruwa village further prompted the deployment of security forces (troops, police, vigilantes and hunters) to the affected area to track down assailants and search for victims.⁷⁰⁸ Community-based hunters and vigilantes were patrolling areas of the state.⁷⁰⁹

2.2.3. Borno

Borno state is comprised of the following 27 LGAs: Maiduguri, Askira/Uba, Abadam, Ngala, Bayo, Gubio, Kala/Balge, Biu, Guzamala, Mafa, Chibok, Kaga, Konduga, Damboa, Kukawa, Bama, Gwoza, Magumeri, Jere, Hawul, Marte, Dikwa, Kwaya Kusar, Mobbar, Shani, Monguno, and Nnganzai. The capital city is Maiduguri.⁷¹⁰

The Kanuri are the dominant ethnic group in the state, accounting for about three quarters of its population. Other ethnic groups include the Fulani, Hausa, Chibok, Babur, Bura, Shuwa, Marghi, Gamergu, Kanakuru, Ngoshe, Guduf, Mandara and Tera. The Chibok minority group inhabits the newly created Chibok LGA. The Hausa reside mainly in Askira and Maiduguri.⁷¹¹

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population of Borno in 2022 at 6 111 462, based on figures from the 2006 census figures.⁷¹²

Borno state has been at the centre of the 15-year-long insurgency by Boko Haram.⁷¹³ ISWAP has assigned parts of the state to its three main wilaya (provinces) Buhaira (encompassing the fringes of Lake Chad), Faruq (comprising southern Borno, alongside areas in Yobe and Adamawa states), and Krenowa (covering territories in central and northern Borno).⁷¹⁴ A July 2024 report by the consulting firm Nextier identified ten LGAs across Borno (Bama, Baga, Biu, Chibok, Gwoza, Kukawa, Kaga, Marte, Mongonu and Ngala) as being part of what it called the 'Northeast Belt of Insurgency'.⁷¹⁵ In ISWAP-controlled villages in the state's north, the group extorted levies from farmers and fishermen. At the same time, insurgent activities were largely limited to rural zones.⁷¹⁶

While the NAF were able to push back against Boko Haram in recent years⁷¹⁷ and continued to report gains in security operations in 2024, insurgent attacks against security forces and civilians persisted.⁷¹⁸ Deadly militant assaults in 2024 and early 2025 targeted the police in Nganzai LGA and the military forces in Marte, Mobbar, Gwoza and Damboa LGAs, as well as killing dozens of civilians in Chibok and Nganzai (January 2024),⁷¹⁹ Gwoza (including in January, February⁷²⁰ and September 2024) and Kukawa (May 2024⁷²¹ and January 2025⁷²²).

During the first half of 2025, ISWAP made some territorial gains in the state as it carried out several complex attacks against security installations and civilians.⁷²³ ISWAP attacks intensified in March⁷²⁴/April 2025⁷²⁵ in what was seen as a 'resurgence' of militancy,⁷²⁶ with Borno's state governor declaring that the authorities were 'losing ground' to the insurgents.⁷²⁷ Between late April and mid-May 2025, ISWAP and Boko Haram conducted at least 12 attacks of various types.⁷²⁸ In a series of coordinated attacks in May that involved highly mobile tactics and drones, ISWAP overran Marte town⁷²⁹ (the site of Borno's largest military base),⁷³⁰ Dikwa town and Kala-Balge LGA's Rann town,⁷³¹ killing a number of soldiers stationed at military bases.⁷³²

As of late May 2025, all but one of the over 300 towns and villages of Marte LGA were outside government control.⁷³³ Militants also killed dozens of local residents as they assaulted communities in Gwoza,⁷³⁴ Kukawa,⁷³⁵ Chibok⁷³⁶ and Mobbar in April and May,⁷³⁷ in Abadam in July 2025,⁷³⁸ and in Bama in September 2025.⁷³⁹ As of mid-2025, Borno continued to 'bear the brunt' of armed activities in Nigeria, which also included IED attacks and mass kidnappings.⁷⁴⁰

Between early 2024 and mid-2025, SBM Intelligence recorded eight bombings in the state, including three in the single month of January 2025 and four more between March and June 2025. The source attributed all but one of the attacks to either ISWAP or Boko Haram.⁷⁴¹ Deadly IED attacks struck travellers in Kukawa and Gamboru (Ngala) (both April 2024), forest workers in Konduga (November 2024), and individuals travelling along the Maiduguri–Damboa highway⁷⁴² and between Rann to Gamboru (both April 2025).⁷⁴³ Four coordinated suicide attacks occurred in Gwoza,⁷⁴⁴ targeting a wedding on 29 June 2024,⁷⁴⁵ followed by a bombing of a teashop in Konduga (31 July 2024).⁷⁴⁶ Another unclaimed deadly suicide attack occurred in Konduga in June 2025.⁷⁴⁷ These attacks left dozens of people dead.⁷⁴⁸ Boko Haram/ISWAP also conducted multiple abductions targeting IDPs in Ngala (February 2024),⁷⁴⁹ villagers in Gwoza (September/October 2024⁷⁵⁰ and July 2025),⁷⁵¹ Chibok (April 2025)⁷⁵² and Kukawa (May 2025),⁷⁵³ and travellers (e.g., June 2024⁷⁵⁴ and July 2025⁷⁵⁵).

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 813 security incidents in Borno state that resulted in a total of 3 995 fatalities. Of these incidents, 416 were coded as battles, 178 as explosion/remote violence, 10 as riots, and 209 as violence against civilians.⁷⁵⁶

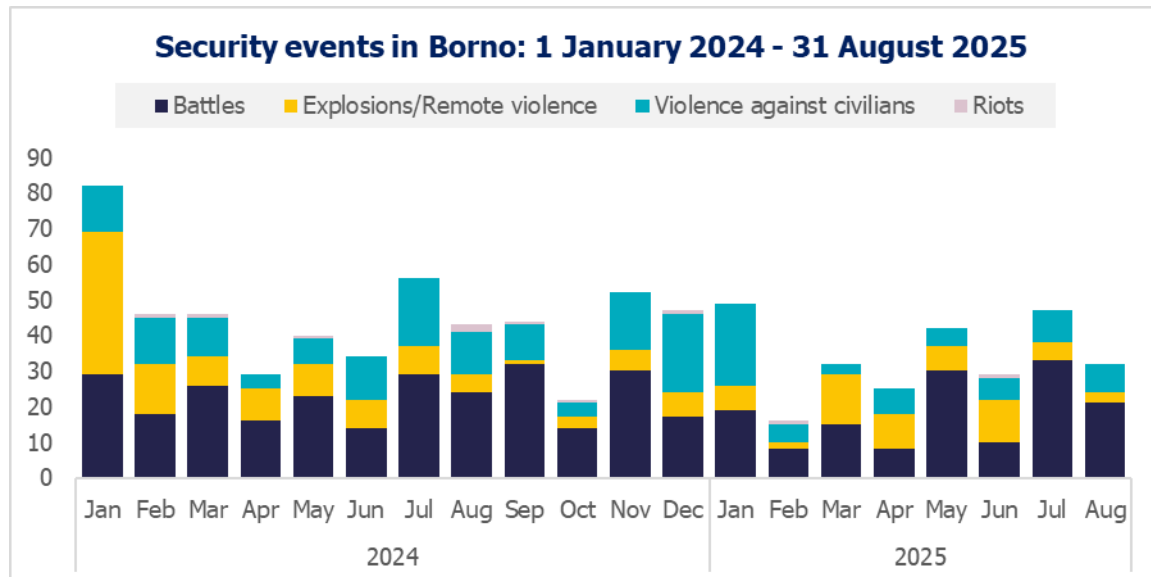

Figure 5: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Borno state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.⁷⁵⁷

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 26 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Gwoza LGA (141 incidents), followed by Bama (109), Damboa (77), Konduga (60) and Kukawa (49) LGAs. There was only one LGA where no incidents were recorded. According to ACLED, ISWAP and Boko Haram (coded as either 'Actor1' or 'Actor2') were involved in the vast majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.⁷⁵⁸

According to Nigeria Watch, in 2024, Borno recorded the highest number of fatalities from violent incidents in absolute terms (1 263), followed by Zamfara, Niger, Katsina and Benue. With 16 57 violence-related fatalities per 100 000 inhabitants, Borno, after Zamfara, ranked second among the country's 'most dangerous' states, with Niger, Katsina and Benue following Borno in third, fourth and fifth place, respectively.⁷⁵⁹

Amongst others, suspected insurgents killed at least 63 farmers and fishermen in Kukawa in January and May 2025,⁷⁶⁰ at least 54 civilians between late April and mid-May 2025 in Ngala,

Chibok, Mobbar and Kukawa,⁷⁶¹ and over 50 further civilians in Bama in early September 2025.⁷⁶² Coordinated suicide attacks in Gwoza⁷⁶³ (29 June 2024) and a further bombing in Konduga (31 July 2024) resulted in a total of 48 deaths.⁷⁶⁴ Civilians kidnapped by insurgents included more than 600 IDPs in Ngala (February⁷⁶⁵ and March 2024⁷⁶⁶) as well as dozens of villagers across the state.⁷⁶⁷

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - ISWAP attacks also continued to target critical infrastructure.⁷⁶⁸ The destruction of infrastructure (roads, bridges, and lines of communication) in insurgent attacks across Borno, Adamawa, and Yobe states in 2025,⁷⁶⁹ including in Borno's Bayo LGA in April 2025,⁷⁷⁰ led to disruptions in troop movements and obstruction of humanitarian aid.⁷⁷¹ In an attack on Wulgo town in May 2025, the insurgents burnt down public structures such as hospitals and schools, as well as several military vehicles,⁷⁷² while in early September 2025, Boko Haram attack on Darul Jamal village in Bama LGA resulted in the destruction of over 20 houses and 10 buses.⁷⁷³

Road security - IED attacks killed at least 35 travellers along the Maiduguri–Damboa highway and between Rann to Gamboru (April 2025) and multiple travellers along the Maiduguri–Damaturu highway (June 2024)⁷⁷⁴ and the Maiduguri–Mafa road (July 2025).⁷⁷⁵ Similarly, the Maiduguri–Monguno road was affected by recurrent kidnappings and continued to see illegal checkpoints set up by suspected non-state armed groups.⁷⁷⁶

Displacement, movement and return - As of November 2024, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Borno state at 1 704 175,⁷⁷⁷ compared to 1 722 263 as of September 2024. IOM lists insurgency as the exclusive reason for displacement in the state.⁷⁷⁸ As of August 2024, there were 890 960 returnees in the state, including IDP returnees and returnees from abroad.⁷⁷⁹ The IDMC reported that violence and conflict across several states, including Borno, Yobe and Katsina, had prompted the displacement of 57 000 people in 2024.⁷⁸⁰ ISWAP's attacks on multiple military bases in Borno in May 2025 resulted in numerous civilians in nearby communities being displaced internally and across the border into Cameroon.⁷⁸¹ More than 100 people were newly displaced in the deadly early September 2025 Boko Haram attack on Darul Jamal village (Bama LGA)⁷⁸² which had only recently seen residents returning from years of displacement.⁷⁸³

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Hundreds of Boko Haram/ISWAP fighters were killed in battles following insurgent attacks on military sites⁷⁸⁴ or during security operations,⁷⁸⁵ with military gains against insurgents reported during most months of 2024.⁷⁸⁶ Meanwhile, in 2025, soldiers saw themselves overpowered as dozens of well-armed ISWAP fighters attacked their base in Marte⁷⁸⁷ and by Boko Haram militants who stormed Darul Jamal village in September 2025.⁷⁸⁸

As of mid-April 2025, it was noted that the NAF had intensified its efforts to contain ISWAP and Boko Haram.⁷⁸⁹ Amongst others, the NAF killed at least 60 insurgents after repelling an assault on a military camp in Bitu (Gwoza LGA).⁷⁹⁰ A targeted intelligence-based operation in Kukawa involving the NAF, MNJTF and CJTF led to the killing of Boko Haram (JAS) commander Amir Abu Fatima and his key deputies in May 2025.⁷⁹¹ As of July 2025, the state remained one of the country's main operational theatres areas for counter-insurgency campaigns.⁷⁹²

2.2.4. Gombe

Gombe state is comprised of the following 11 LGAs: Akko, Balanga, Billiri, Dukku, Funakaye, Gombe, Kaltungo, Kwami, Nafada, Shongom, and Yamaltu Deba. The capital city is Gombe.⁷⁹³

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

Gombe state authorities described the state as relatively secure in comparison to other states while pointing to several security issues.⁷⁹⁶

In Gombe LGA, there were reports of criminals clashing with police (April 2025)⁷⁹⁷ and a deadly attack by Kalare boys (June 2025).⁷⁹⁸ Elsewhere, there was a deliberate truck attack on Christians (Billiri LGA, April 2025),⁷⁹⁹ violent herder–farmer conflicts (Kwami, Yamaltu Deba⁸⁰⁰ and Billiri LGAs⁸⁰¹ in December 2024⁸⁰²), and kidnappings linked to cattle rustling. Security was reported to have been negatively affected by an influx of criminal elements from adjacent states.⁸⁰³

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 12 security incidents in Gombe state that resulted in a total of 10 fatalities. Of these incidents, two were coded as battles, six as riots and four as violence against civilians.⁸⁰⁴

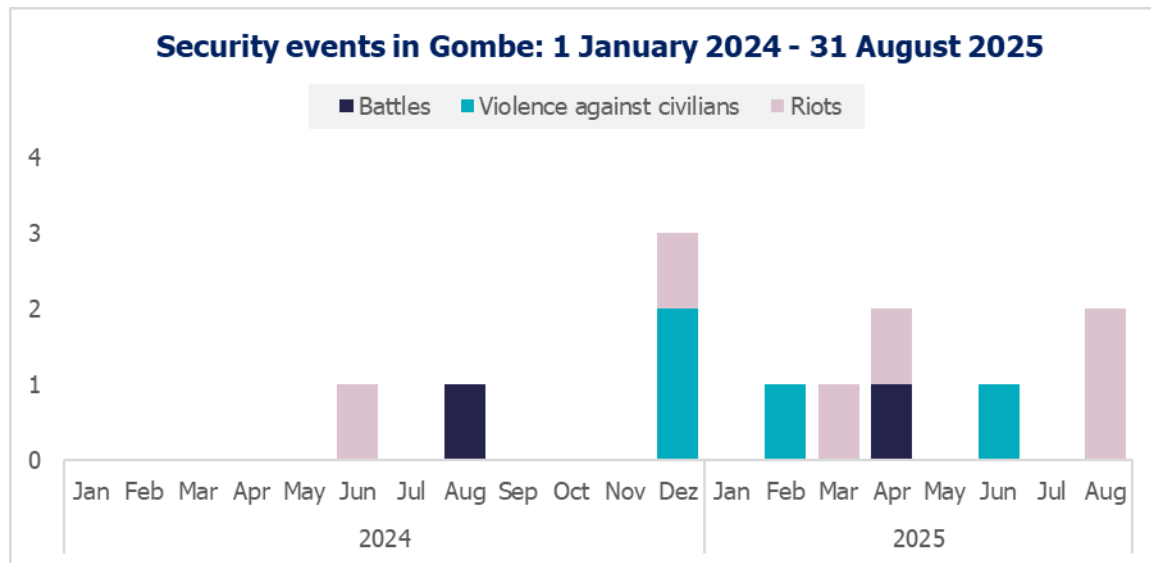

Figure 15: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Gombe state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.⁸⁰⁵

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in six LGAs of the state, with the highest numbers documented in Billiri and Akko LGAs (3 incidents each), followed by Dukku and Gombe LGAs (2 each). No incidents were recorded in five LGAs. According to ACLED, Fulani ethnic militia, the Kalare Boys gang, and an unidentified armed group (coded as either ‘Actor1’ or ‘Actor2’) were involved in the incidents coded as violence against civilians.⁸⁰⁶

Nigeria Watch ranked Gombe as Nigeria’s most peaceful state in 2024.⁸⁰⁷ ACLED reported a similar trend, with Gombe ranking as the state with the lowest number of security incidents overall (defined as battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians, and riots), during the reference period.⁸⁰⁸

Civilian casualties from reported security incidents, including events not recorded by ACLED, arose from clashes between herders and farmers in Yamaltu Deba LGA (December 2024, one fatality)⁸⁰⁹ and Billiri LGA (December 2024, two fatalities),⁸¹⁰ a truck driver ramming participants of a Christian procession in Billiri LGA in April 2025 (six fatalities and dozens of injuries),⁸¹¹ and an assault by suspected Kalare boys in Gombe city (June 2025, one fatality).⁸¹²

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - The December 2024 herder-farmer clashes in Billiri LGA led to the destruction of farm produce,⁸¹³ burning of houses, and livestock rustling.⁸¹⁴

Road security - No information could be found during the reference period.

Displacement, movement and return - As of November 2024, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Gombe state at 52 202,⁸¹⁵ compared to 51 028 as of September 2024. IOM lists insurgency (68 %) and communal clashes (32 %) as the reasons for displacement in the state.⁸¹⁶ No information could be found on returns in Gombe state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

In the aftermath of the herder–farmer clashes in Billiri LGA, local residents complained about what they saw as ‘ineffectiveness of security operatives’, with one source stating that security forces were slow to respond and failed to take decisive action upon their arrival.⁸¹⁷ According to the police, a combined team of police and 301 Artillery Regiment personnel were deployed to the scene, but the assailants had fled prior to its arrival.⁸¹⁸

2.2.5. Taraba

Taraba state is comprised of the following 16 LGAs: Ardo Kola, Bali, Donga, Gashaka, Gassol, Ibi, Jalingo, Karim Lamido, Kurmi, Lau, Sardauna, Takum, Ussa, Wukari, Yororo, and Zing. The capital city is Jalingo.⁸¹⁹

The main ethnic groups include Fulani, Mumuye, Jukun, Jenjo, Kuteb, Chamba and Mambilla.⁸²⁰

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population of Taraba in 2022 at 3 609 843, based on figures from the 2006 census figures.⁸²¹ reported activity of criminals deployed by Boko Haram and ISWAP.⁸²³ The state has witnessed conflicts between farmers and herders,⁸²⁴ kidnappings⁸²⁵ and banditry,⁸²⁶ including armed robberies.⁸²⁷ Southern Taraba, including Wukari LGA, faced long-standing land disputes between ethnic Tiv and Jukun communities,⁸²⁸ with suspected militia attacks on farmers resulting in casualties in April 2025⁸²⁹ and May 2025.⁸³⁰

Parts of Karim Lamido LGA saw recurrent communal clashes between herders and farmers, including in Bandawa, Munga, and Fulani communities, resulting in multiple deaths.⁸³¹ An intensification of attacks was observed in May 2025 as eight youths were killed in Munga Dosso.⁸³² Violence further escalated on 23 May 2025 when gunmen on motorcycles assaulted Munga Lelau and other nearby villages,⁸³³ killing dozens of people.⁸³⁴ The attack on Munga Lelau, reportedly involving over 50 assailants,⁸³⁵ was attributed to Fulani herdsmen.⁸³⁶ Attacks on farming communities also occurred in Bali LGA,⁸³⁷ including in the context of tensions between Tiv residents and Fulani herders.⁸³⁸

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 135 security incidents in Taraba state that resulted in a total of 219 fatalities. Of these incidents, 54 were coded as battles, 10 as riots, and 71 as violence against civilians.⁸³⁹

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 15 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Karim Lamidu LGA (26 incidents), followed by Wukari (24) and Takum (23) LGAs. There was only one LGA where no incidents were recorded. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups, Taraba communal militia and Fulani ethnic militia (coded as either 'Actor1' or 'Actor2') were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.⁸⁴¹

Nigeria Watch recorded that in 2024, six deaths resulted from incidents related to rural banditry (which represents the country's lowest number of fatalities linked to rural banditry in 2024) and 33 from kidnappings.⁸⁴² Gunmen suspected to be herders killed at least 40 people as they launched attacks in Karim Lamido LGA on 23 May 2025.⁸⁴³

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - Multiple houses were set on fire in herder attacks in Munga Lelau, Magami⁸⁴⁴ and Bandawa villages (Karim Lamido LGA)⁸⁴⁵ and in communal clashes in Wukari⁸⁴⁶ and Bali LGAs.⁸⁴⁷

Road security - A deadly attack on commuters occurred along the Takum-Wukari highway (August 2024),⁸⁴⁸ while several travellers were kidnapped on the Chinkai-Kente-Wukari road Displacement, movement and return - As of November 2024, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Taraba state at 62 564,⁸⁵¹ compared to 65 589 as of September 2024. IOM lists communal clashes (82 %) and insurgency (18 %) as the main reasons for displacement in the state.⁸⁵² The 23 May 2025 attack on the Munga Lelau community in Karim Lamido LGA resulted in the displacement of hundreds of residents.⁸⁵³ No information could be found on returns in Taraba state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

The NAF’s 6 Brigade and Sector 3 of OPWS dismantled a number of bandit hideouts during clearance operations in Takum, Donga,⁸⁵⁴ Karim Lamido⁸⁵⁵ and Wukari LGAs,⁸⁵⁶ arrested dozens of bandits⁸⁵⁷ and a suspected criminal working for Boko Haram,⁸⁵⁸ and foiled a planned bandit attack on villages in southern Taraba.⁸⁵⁹ Meanwhile, at the time when the deadly May 2025 attack on Munga Lelau was launched, security forces were stationed in Bandawa and arrived at the scene only after the killings,⁸⁶⁰ while residents in Ardo Kola LGA pointed to a lack of adequate security presence in their area, particularly during nighttime.⁸⁶¹

2.2.6. Yobe

Yobe state is comprised of the following 17 LGAs: Bursari, Damaturu, Geidam, Bade, Gujba, Gulani, Fika, Fune, Jakusko, Karasuwa, Machina, Nangere, Nguru, Potiskum, Tarmuwa, Yunusari and Yusufari. The capital city is Damaturu.⁸⁶²

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

Alongside Borno and Adamawa, Yobe is one of the main bases of Boko Haram and ISWAP in Nigeria. The state's south has been integrated into ISWAP's Faruq wilaya ('province').⁸⁶⁵ A July 2024 report by the consulting firm Nextier identified three LGAs in Yobe (Damaturu, Gujba and Geidam) as being part of what it called the 'Northeast Belt of Insurgency'.⁸⁶⁶

Deadly attacks by suspected armed groups/insurgents targeted communities in Fika and Potiskum (January 2024),⁸⁶⁷ Geidam (January and August 2024),⁸⁶⁸ Damaturu (February 2024),⁸⁶⁹ Gujba (May 2024),⁸⁷⁰ Yunusari (May 2025),⁸⁷¹ and notably in Tarmuwa LGA⁸⁷² where insurgents conducted a large-scale attack on Mafa village in September 2024.⁸⁷³ The latter attack involved around 150 assailants armed with rifles and RPGs and riding motorcycles, with sources variously attributing the incident to either Boko Haram⁸⁷⁴ or ISWAP.⁸⁷⁵ Apart from communities, insurgents targeted NAF troops in at least two deadly assaults on military sites in the same LGA in April and May 2025⁸⁷⁶ and in a suicide car attack in January 2025⁸⁷⁷ in Gujba LGA.⁸⁷⁸ SBM Intelligence recorded two more bombings in May 2024 and April 2025, attributing both to ISWAP.⁸⁷⁹ Yobe also saw several attempted and actual kidnappings.⁸⁸⁰

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 128 security incidents in Yobe state that resulted in a total of 225 fatalities. Of these incidents, 58 were coded as battles, 19 as explosion/remote violence, 7 as riots, and 44 as violence against civilians.⁸⁸¹

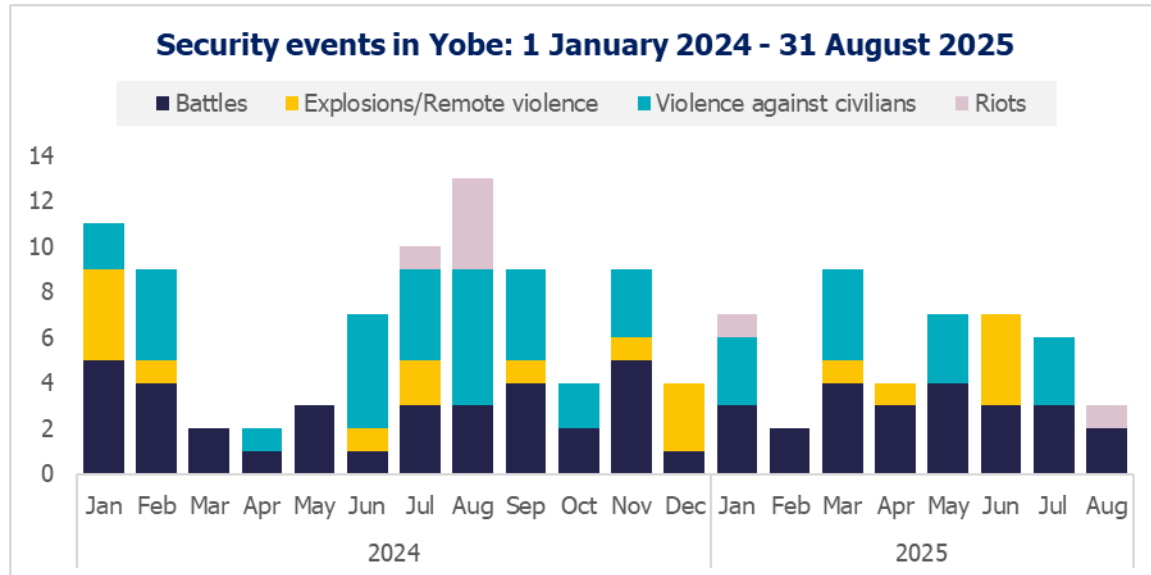

Figure 6: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Yobe state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.⁸⁸²

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 12 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Gujba LGA (75 incidents), followed by Damaturu (11) and Tarmua LGAs (10). No incidents were recorded in five LGAs. According to ACLED, ISWAP, Boko Haram and unidentified armed groups (coded as either ‘Actor1’ or ‘Actor2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.⁸⁸³

According to Nigeria Watch, in 2024 Yobe state recorded the country’s second-highest number of fatalities (123) related to attacks by insurgent groups and government counter-operations.⁸⁸⁴

While the UN Secretary-General stated that the September 2024 insurgent attack on Mafa caused on unknown number of casualties,⁸⁸⁵ other sources gave various estimates of the death toll, including at least 81 people (AFP quoting local officials),⁸⁸⁶ over 100 people (AI

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - The attack on Mafa also resulted in infrastructure damage, with assailants burnt down businesses, shelters, and other property and planted IEDs along roads leading towards the community.⁸⁹⁵

Road security - No information could be found during the reference period.

Displacement, movement and return - As of November 2024, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Yobe state at 167 320,⁸⁹⁶ compared to 155 168 as of September 2024. IOM lists insurgency (94 %) as the main reason for displacement in the state.⁸⁹⁷ As of August 2024, there were 356 344 returnees in the state, including IDP returnees and returnees from abroad.⁸⁹⁸ The IDMC reported that over the year 2024, violence and conflict across several states, including Borno, Yobe and Katsina, had prompted the displacement of 57 000 people.⁸⁹⁹ The September 2024 attack on Mafa displaced thousands of individuals to Babban Gida town (Tarmuwa LGA's headquarters) and other nearby communities, as well as into Borno state.⁹⁰⁰ Instances of attack or threat of attack by armed groups in Fika and Potiskum in January 2024,⁹⁰¹ Gujba in May 2024⁹⁰² and Yunusari in January 2025⁹⁰³ each resulted in the displacement of thousands of people.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

While several security breaches led to insurgent attacks (e.g., in Mafa and Geidam in 2024),⁹⁰⁴ security operations resulted in the killing or arrest of dozens of insurgents⁹⁰⁵ (e.g., in Donga, Takum and Tarmuwa LGAs),⁹⁰⁶ the arrest of suspected members of a gang specialised in kidnapping for ransom,⁹⁰⁷ and the rescue of kidnapping victims.⁹⁰⁸

2.3. North-West

The North-West consists of the following seven states: Jigawa, Kaduna, Kano, Katsina, Kebbi, Sokoto, and Zamfara.⁹⁰⁹

For an overview of the main conflict drivers at the country and regional levels, see 1. General description of the security situation.

2.3.1. Jigawa

Jigawa state is comprised of the following 27 LGAs: Auyo, Babura, Biriniwa, Birnin Kudu, Buji, Dutse, Gagarawa, Garki, Gumel, Guri, Gwaram, Gwiwa, Hadejia, Jahun, Kafin Hausa, Kaugama, Kazaure, Kiri Kasama, Kiyawa, Maigatari, Malam Madori (or: Mallam Madori), Miga, Ringim, Roni, Sule Tankarkar, Taura and Yankwashi.⁹¹⁰ The capital city is Dutse.⁹¹¹

The main ethnic groups, according to the Jigawa state government website, are the Hausa, the Fulani and the Mangawa, Ngizimawa and Badawa.⁹¹² The NGO Zaccheus Onumba Dibiazue Memorial Libraries (ZODML) states that Jigawa state's inhabitants are mainly of Hausa or Fulani origin.⁹¹³ While Islam is the predominant religion in the state,⁹¹⁴ there are also Christians.⁹¹⁵

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 7 499 059 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.⁹¹⁶

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

In June 2025, IOM reported a multi-dimensional crisis in Nigeria's North-West, characterised by ethnic and religious tensions leading to attacks and banditry,⁹¹⁷ with low levels of violent conflict in Jigawa state.⁹¹⁸

Clashes between herders and farmers and communal clashes occurred in Jigawa state in the reference period, for example in May,⁹¹⁹ June⁹²⁰ and July 2024⁹²¹ as well as in January⁹²² and February 2025,⁹²³ in Miga,⁹²⁴ Jahun,⁹²⁵ Dutse, Kiyaw,⁹²⁶ and Birnin Kudu LGAs.⁹²⁷ According to a state representative, Guri LGA, 'a fertile region with thriving farming and herding activities, often experienced clashes between the two groups over land and resource use'.⁹²⁸ Some clashes resulted in civilian fatalities⁹²⁹ and injuries⁹³⁰ as well as property loss,⁹³¹ and the burning of houses.⁹³² In February 2025, tensions between farmers and herders in the state increased,⁹³³ with clashes described as 'persistent' in May 2025.⁹³⁴

Protests in Jigawa state, sparked by economic hardship⁹³⁵ and political demands,⁹³⁶ were reported in February⁹³⁷ and in August 2024 in the state capital Dutse.⁹³⁸ Protests in early

August 2024 turned violent.⁹³⁹ Violent crackdowns by the authorities led to protesters being killed among others in Jigawa state,⁹⁴⁰ where a 24-hour-curfew was imposed.⁹⁴¹ In December 2024, herders protested in the Kaugama LGA after land was allegedly seized from them by a rice-farming company supported by the state authorities.⁹⁴²

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

For the period 1 January 2024 - 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 26 security incidents (defined as battles, violence against civilians, and riots) in Jigawa state, which resulted in 45 fatalities. Of these incidents, 10 were coded as battles, 9 as riots, and 7 as incidents of violence against civilians.⁹⁴³

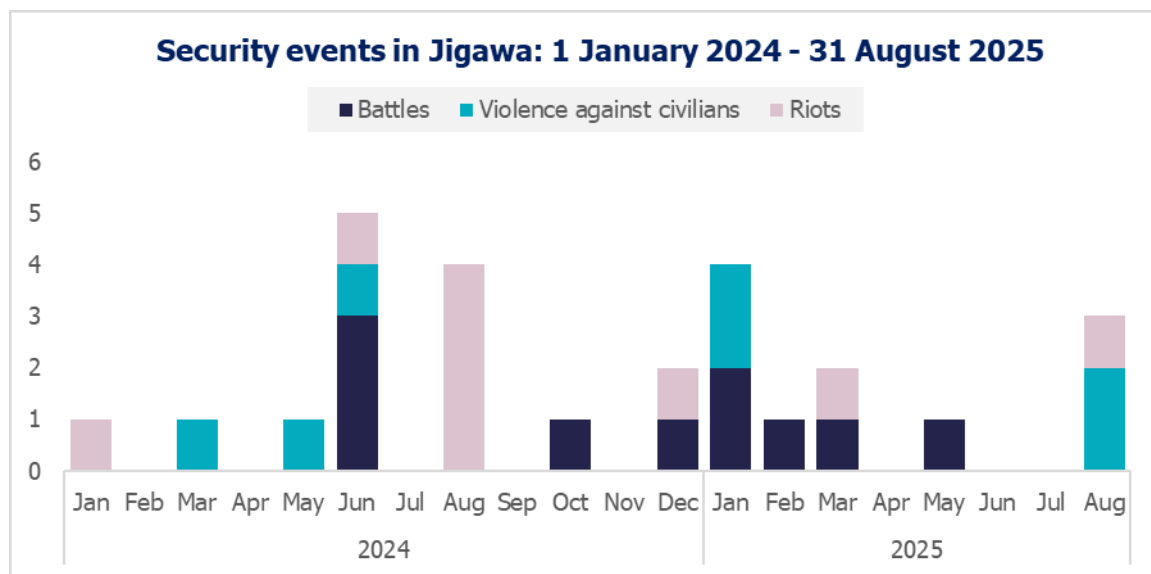

Figure 7: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Jigawa state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.⁹⁴⁴

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 13 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Dutse (5), followed by Birnin Kudu and Jahun (4 incidents each) LGAs. No incidents were recorded in 14 LGAs. According to ACLED, Fulani ethnic militia and unidentified armed groups (coded as either ‘Actor 1’ or ‘Actor 2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.⁹⁴⁵

In June 2024, herders attacked four localities in Birnin Kudu, Dutse, and Kiwaya LGAs, including Baranda village, reportedly using matchets, bows, arrows, and sticks. The residents' attempt to defend themselves reportedly led to eight of them getting injured.⁹⁴⁶

Conflict-related infrastructure damage and road security - No information could be found during the reference period.

Displacement, movement and return - No information could be found on conflict-induced displacement or returns in Jigawa state during the reference period. A May 2024 report by the Conciliation Resources and Institute of Development Studies highlights the displacement and impoverishment caused by the seizing of farmland and pastoral land from communities and families by politicians in Jigawa, as well as in corporate deals, causing some pastoralists to migrate to other states or even out of the country.⁹⁴⁷

c) State response in maintaining law and order

In late June 2024, a restoration of peace between farmers and herders in Jigawa state was reportedly initiated by the state's governor.⁹⁴⁸ As clashes resumed in Birnin Kudu, Dutse and Kiyawa LGAs by the end of the same month, police forces were deployed to the areas to prevent further escalation.⁹⁴⁹ In the context of a worsening of the herder-farmer conflict in early July 2024 in Birnin Kudu LGA, the Nigerian Tribune reported that security personnel and vigilante forces were deployed to the area, citing a police report, which noted that 'farmers were also mobilised in large numbers to defend their farmlands' before security personnel arrived to the areas.⁹⁵⁰ In May 2025, authorities announced plans to establish an anti-riot police unit in Jigawa state, a move reportedly aimed at addressing Jigawa residents' yearnings over the area's frequent violent conflicts.⁹⁵¹

2.3.2. Kaduna

Kaduna state is comprised of the following 23 LGAs: Birnin Gwari, Chikun, Giwa, Igabi, Ikara, Jaba, Jema'a, Kachia, Kaduna North, Kaduna South, Kagarko, Kajuru, Kaura, Kauru, Kubau, Kudan, Lere, Makarfi, Sabon Gari, Sanga, Soba, Zangon Kataf, Zaria.⁹⁵² The Federal Government lists only 22 LGAs,⁹⁵³ excluding Kajuru LGA, which is included by the Kaduna State Government.⁹⁵⁴ The capital city is Kaduna.⁹⁵⁵

The main ethnic groups include Hausa, Gbagyi, Adara, Ham, Gong, Atyap, Bajjuu, Ninkyob, Kurama, Koro, Zango Kataf, Mada, Agworok, Ikulu, Moroa'a, Atuku,⁹⁵⁶ Gbari, Kamuku and

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

In June 2025, IOM reported a multi-dimensional crisis in the North-West, characterised by ethnic and religious tensions that had led to attacks and banditry.⁹⁵⁹ As of July 2024 households in Kaduna state were reported to be heavily impacted by farmer-herder conflict, kidnappings, and banditry.⁹⁶⁰ According to Nigeria Watch, Kaduna was the third Nigerian state worst affected by rural banditry in 2024,⁹⁶¹ with the number of civilians targeted in bandit-related violence increasing significantly in early 2024.⁹⁶² As of July 2024, there were several thousand armed bandits in Kaduna state. ACLED and GI-TOC reported a decrease in violence by bandit groups in Kaduna since 2023, but suggested they now generate revenue perpetrating less violence and often coercing local communities.⁹⁶³ These groups were said to be maintaining camps in the state's forests.⁹⁶⁴ According to a June 2025 HumAngle report, in southern Kaduna, ethnic violence was fused with terror raids, causing the destruction of villages like Jika da Kolo and Tudun Biri.⁹⁶⁵

During the reference period, armed groups continued to carry out attacks, including against smaller towns, schools and travellers,⁹⁶⁶ as well as abductions⁹⁶⁷ and looting of villages.⁹⁶⁸ Dozens of civilians were reportedly killed in an airstrike by security forces against armed groups in September 2024.⁹⁶⁹ A Vigilante Service force reportedly also existed in the state.⁹⁷⁰ According to UN Security Council reports, Boko Haram's Adamu Yunusa/Adamu Sadiqu faction was present in Kaduna state.⁹⁷¹

Abductions reported in Kaduna state during the reference period included mass abductions⁹⁷² and led to civilian fatalities.⁹⁷³ Between July 2023 and June 2024, Kaduna state experienced 111 of the country's 1 130 abduction incidents and accounted for 1 113 of the 7 568 victims, making it the third-worst Nigerian state affected by abductions.⁹⁷⁴ In 2024, Kaduna was the state with the highest number of abduction victims (793), accounting for 32.3 % of all abduction victims recorded in Nigeria,⁹⁷⁵ as well as abduction-related deaths (86 fatalities).⁹⁷⁶ Also, abductions in Kaduna state reportedly increased by 37 % compared to the foregoing 4-year average.⁹⁷⁷ and In February 2025, a significant rise in abductions was reported across Kachia LGA, including neighbouring villages.⁹⁷⁸

Between 2019 and October 2024, Kaduna was among the five Nigerian states most impacted by inter-group clashes between bandit groups.⁹⁷⁹ Climate change-induced drought reportedly led to clashes between farmers and herders⁹⁸⁰ and clashes between bandit/criminal groups⁹⁸¹ increased due to competition over limited resources.⁹⁸²

Sources reported demonstrations in Kaduna state during the reference period,⁹⁸³ including protests in August 2024. These August protests resulted in the arrest⁹⁸⁴ and killing of protesters during a crackdown by the authorities.⁹⁸⁵

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

For the period between 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 475 security incidents (defined as battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians, and riots) in Kaduna state, which resulted in 951 fatalities. Of these incidents, 290 were coded as incidents of violence against civilians, 144 were coded as battles, 30 as riots, and 11 as explosions/remote violence.⁹⁸⁶

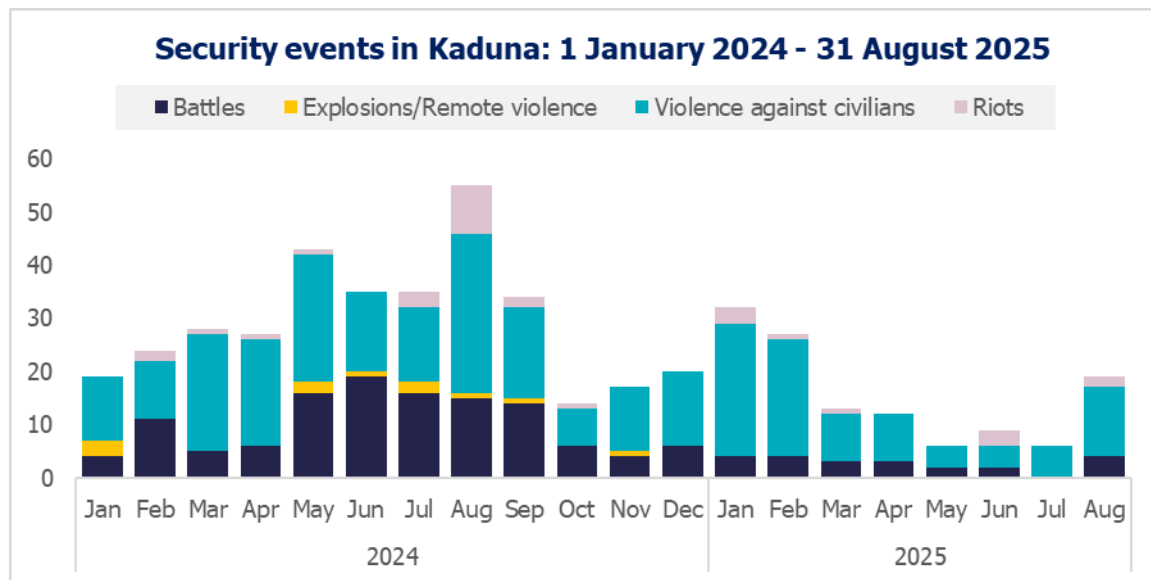

Figure 8: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Kaduna state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.⁹⁸⁷

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 22 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Kachia (107), followed by Kajuru (60), Birnin Gwari (52), Kagarko (43) and Giwa (41). No incidents were recorded in Jaba LGA. According to ACLED, Kaduna communal militia (coded as either 'Actor 1' or 'Actor 2') were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.⁹⁸⁸

Nigeria Watch noted an increase in fatalities, resulting from rural banditry, cattle rustling and government counter-operations across the country in 2024, with Kaduna state accounting for 225 of the 1 452 deaths, including of civilians, recorded in nine states and the FCT. Attacks by Boko Haram, ISWAP and Ansaru and government counter-operations reportedly claimed 53 lives in Kaduna state in 2024.⁹⁸⁹

In early March 2024, around 280 children were abducted from a school in Kaduna. Local reports identified the Ansaru group as the perpetrators.⁹⁹⁰ In August 2024, a Fulani militia reportedly abducted 17 Adara community members and killed two more in the Kachia and Kajuru LGAs, destroying houses and looting properties.⁹⁹¹ In September 2024, unidentified armed men abducted two nurses and an unknown number of patients from a primary healthcare centre in Birnin-Gwari LGA.⁹⁹²

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - Attacks by criminal groups have resulted in looting of medical supplies and the razing or occupying of medical facilities in some north-western states, including Kaduna. Some facilities shut down as a result of insecurity.⁹⁹³ Furthermore, mining activities in the state were disrupted due to attacks by armed groups, affecting mining as a source of income.⁹⁹⁴ In November 2024, bandits set fire to several farms in the Birnin Gwari LGA, destroying harvested maize in the process.⁹⁹⁵

Road security - Criminal groups reportedly have been stopping cars on major highways, including the Abuja-Kaduna highway, and abducting people.⁹⁹⁶ While media sources reported violent incidents, including abductions, on that highway during the reference period,⁹⁹⁷ according to police sources no abductions were recorded.⁹⁹⁸ In April 2024, an evangelical pastor was reportedly killed by bandits along the Birnin Gwari-Kaduna highway.⁹⁹⁹

Displacement, movement and return - According to IOM, the conflict in the north-western states of Nigeria has worsened, leading to widespread displacement throughout the region.¹⁰⁰⁰ As of February 2025, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Kaduna state at 117 989¹⁰⁰¹ compared to 113 089 as of November 2024. IOM lists armed banditry/kidnapping (55 %), communal clashes (24 %), disasters (11 %), and farmer-herder clashes (8 %) as the main reasons for displacement in the state.¹⁰⁰² The Africa Center for Strategic Studies in October 2024 attributed 50 % of displacements in Kaduna to criminal group activity.¹⁰⁰³

No information could be found on returns in Kaduna state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Security forces conducted ground¹⁰⁰⁴ and air operations against armed groups,¹⁰⁰⁵ including counter-operations against Boko Haram, ISWAP and Ansaru in 2024.¹⁰⁰⁶ Security operations resulted in the release of abduction victims during the reference period.¹⁰⁰⁷ In late March 2024, around 130 children abducted from a school in early March 2024 were reportedly freed by security forces.¹⁰⁰⁸

In early 2024, residents of Kaduna state reportedly called for the Federal Government to recruit, train, and empower local vigilante groups to combat banditry and abductions, highlighting the state's security breakdown.¹⁰⁰⁹ Ansaru factions and bandit groups have reportedly displaced state institutions in Chikun, Giwa, and Birnin Gwari LGAs.¹⁰¹⁰ In June 2024, three new military bases were established in Kaduna state in order to tackle the insecurity.¹⁰¹¹ In February 2025, Kachia LGA residents protested against a surge in attacks and abductions, highlighting the need for increased security measures.¹⁰¹² The construction of new access roads between Fadama, Koroto, and Kutara in April 2025 has been reported to enhance security in the state by facilitating quicker access to bandit-infested areas.¹⁰¹³ Critics argued that despite government efforts to address farmer-herder clashes in Kaduna State, the crisis was not receiving the necessary attention from authorities.¹⁰¹⁴

In May 2024, the Nigerian military announced that two officers would face a court-martial for a December 2023 military drone attack in Tundun Biri, Kaduna state, which killed 85 individuals when the military mistook them for 'terrorists'; the military authorities did not provide details on the investigation.¹⁰¹⁵ In September 2024, a military airstrike in Kaduna state that killed 24 people was supposedly carried out 'based on credible intelligence from multiple reliable sources'; the Air Force announced an investigation into the strike.¹⁰¹⁶

2.3.3. Kano

Kano state is comprised of the following 44 LGAs: Ajingi, Albasu, Bagwai, Bebeji, Bichi, Bunkure, Dala, Dambatta, Dawakin Kudu, Dawakin Tofa, Doguwa, Gabasawa, Garko, Garun Malam, Gaya, Gezawa, Gwale, Gwarzo, Kabo, Karaye, Kibiya, Kiru, Kumbotso, Kura, Madobi, Makoda, Minjibir, Kano Municipal, Nassarawa, Rimini Gado, Rogo, Shanono, Sumaila, Takai, Tarauni, Tsanyawa, Tudun Wada, Tofa, Warawa, Wudil,¹⁰¹⁷ Rano, Fagge, Ungoggo,¹⁰¹⁸ and Ghari (formerly Kunchi).¹⁰¹⁹ The capital city is Kano.¹⁰²⁰

The majority of the population in Kano are Sunni Muslims, with a minority of Shia Muslims. Smaller communities of the population include Christians and other religious groups.¹⁰²¹ The main ethnic groups are the Hausa and the Fulani people.¹⁰²²

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the state's population at 15 462 177 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁰²³

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

JAS-Boko Haram faction¹⁰²⁴ has a long-standing presence in Kano state, employing tactics similar to those of bandits, including coercion.¹⁰²⁵ The UK Foreign, Commonwealth & Development Office (FCDO) noted that attacks likely associated with 'terrorist groups' such as Boko Haram had occurred in several Nigerian states since 2021, including Kano.¹⁰²⁶

In May 2025, a violent demonstration in Kano state resulted in the death of a Division Police Officer,¹⁰²⁷ highlighting the ongoing issue of mob violence.¹⁰²⁸

Protests in Kano state in August¹⁰²⁹ and in October 2024¹⁰³⁰ were reportedly suppressed by authorities, leading to the arrests¹⁰³¹ and killing of protesters,¹⁰³² as well as the vandalism of properties, arson and looting.¹⁰³³

During the reference period, there were reports of abductions in Kano state.¹⁰³⁴

In June 2025, two explosions in Kano state resulted in civilian injuries and fatalities,¹⁰³⁵ raising concerns about the circulation of unexploded ordnances in scrap markets.¹⁰³⁶

In December 2024, Kano residents expressed concern over a resurgence of violent clashes between bandit groups following clashes after a football match, killing at least two people.¹⁰³⁷ An April 2025 Nigerian Tribune article reported a recent rise of ‘innocent’ killings by rival gang groups in Kano.¹⁰³⁸

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

For the period between 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 43 security incidents (defined as battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians, and riots) in Kano state, which resulted in 32 fatalities. Of these incidents, 24 were coded as incidents of riots, 16 were coded as violence against civilians, and 3 as battles.¹⁰³⁹

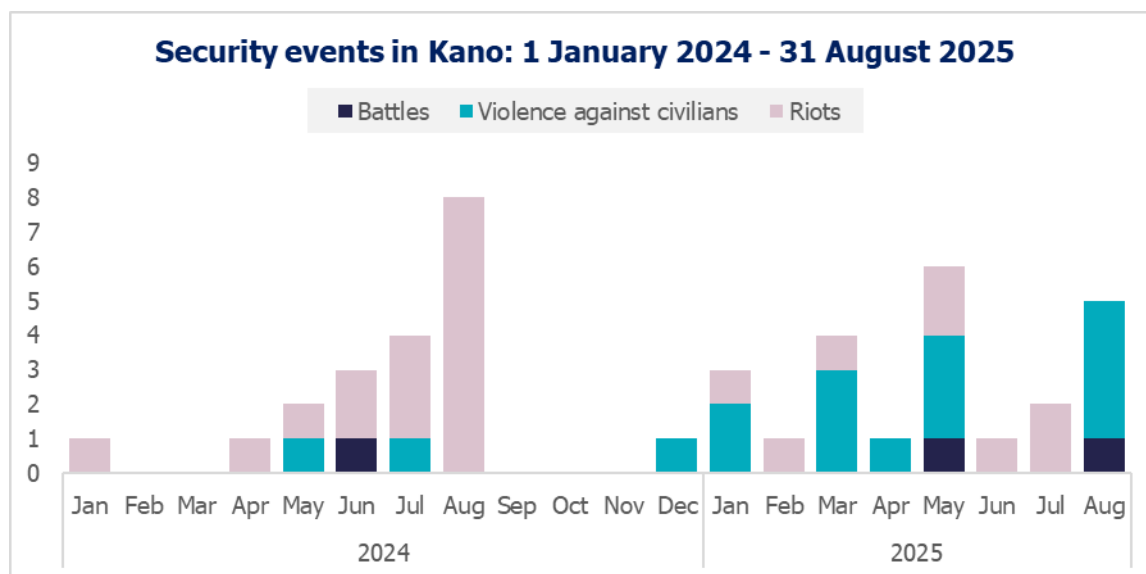

Figure 20: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Kano state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁰⁴⁰

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 17 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Kano Municipal (11), followed by Gwale and Ungogo (4 incidents each), as well as Rano and Kumbotso (3 incidents each) LGAs, and Ungogo (3 incidents). No incidents were recorded in 27 LGAs. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups (coded as either ‘Actor 1’ or ‘Actor 2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹⁰⁴¹

According to Nigeria Watch, Kano state was the fourth most peaceful in 2024,¹⁰⁴² with 1.37 fatalities per 100 000 inhabitants. Regarding deaths resulting from farmer-herder clashes in 2024, Kano was among the three least-affected states.¹⁰⁴³ ACLED reported a similar trend, with Kano State ranking fourth from last overall among the states with the lowest number of security incidents (defined as battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians, and riots) during the reference period.¹⁰⁴⁴

In February 2025, residents of Sheka in Kumbotso LGA reportedly captured a gang member and beat him to death, which sparked further clashes in Sheka.¹⁰⁴⁵

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - No information could be found during the reference period.

Displacement, movement and return - As of February 2025, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Kano state at 12 555¹⁰⁴⁷ as opposed to 12 532 as of November 2024. IOM lists insurgency (77 %), disasters (12 %), communal clashes (8 %), and armed banditry/kidnapping (3 %) as the main reasons for displacement in the state.¹⁰⁴⁸

No information could be found on returns in Kano state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

During the reference period, state police conducted security operations and raids in Kano state, tackling armed robbery, thuggery,¹⁰⁴⁹ abductions,¹⁰⁵⁰ and criminal activities.¹⁰⁵¹

2.3.4. Katsina

Katsina state is comprised of the following 34 LGAs: Bakori, Batagarawa, Batsari, Baure, Bindawa, Charanchi, Dan Musa, Dandume, Danja, Daura, Dutsi, Dutsin Ma, Faskari, Funtua, Ingawa, Jibia, Kafur, Kaita, Kankara, Kankia, Katsina, Kurfi, Kusada, Mai'Adua, Malumfashi, Mani, Mashi, Matazu, Musawa, Rimi, Sabuwa, Safana, Sandamu, Zango.¹⁰⁵² The capital city is Katsina.¹⁰⁵³

The majority of the population in Katsina are Hausa and Fulani, and are mainly settled cultivators and traders, but there is also a significant number of nomadic Fulani cattle herders.¹⁰⁵⁴ There are also Maguwazawa, Yoruba and Igbo minorities in Katsina state. The majority of the population are Muslims, with a Christian minority.¹⁰⁵⁵

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the state's population at 10 368 483 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁰⁵⁶

In May 2025, IOM reported a multi-dimensional crisis in Nigeria's North-West, with long-standing ethnic and religious tensions leading to attacks and banditry.¹⁰⁵⁷ Katsina was one of the three states worst affected by rural banditry,¹⁰⁵⁸ with bandits maintaining camps in the state's forests.¹⁰⁵⁹ In early 2024, violent incidents related to banditry in Katsina state increased,¹⁰⁶⁰ following a spike in attacks on civilians.¹⁰⁶¹ Between 2019 and October 2024, Katsina was among the five Nigerian states most severely impacted by inter-group clashes between bandit groups.¹⁰⁶² In July 2024, FEWS NET reported that households in Katsina state were also severely impacted by farmer-herder conflict and abductions.¹⁰⁶³

During the reference period, attacks against civilians, leading to civilian deaths, abductions,¹⁰⁶⁴ including mass abductions,¹⁰⁶⁵ lootings, house burnings,¹⁰⁶⁶ and cattle rustling were reported.¹⁰⁶⁷ Between July 2023 and June 2024, Katsina state accounted for 119 of the country's 1 130 abduction incidents and 887 of the 7 568 victims, making it the second-most Nigerian state affected by abductions.¹⁰⁶⁸ In 2024, Katsina was the state with the fourth-highest number of abduction victims (267)¹⁰⁶⁹ and abductions reportedly increased by 97 % compared to the foregoing 4-year average.¹⁰⁷⁰ According to Amnesty International, 306 individuals were abducted in Katsina between May 2023 and May 2025 by armed groups, who also pressured individuals into paying taxes by threatening to kill them.¹⁰⁷¹ According to the February 2025 UN Security Council report, Boko Haram's Adamu Yunusa/Adamu Sadiqu faction was present in Katsina state.¹⁰⁷²

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

For the period between 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 746 security incidents (defined as battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians, and riots) in Katsina state, which resulted in 2 145 fatalities. Of these incidents, 433 were coded as incidents of violence against civilians, 271 were coded as battles, 28 as explosions/remote violence, and 14 as riots.¹⁰⁷⁸

ACLED, Katsina communal militia (coded as either 'Actor 1' or 'Actor 2') were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹⁰⁸⁰

Katsina state was the fourth 'most dangerous' state in Nigeria in 2024, according to Nigeria Watch, with 11.39 violence-related fatalities per 100 000 inhabitants, following Zamfara, Borno, and Niger states.¹⁰⁸¹ ACLED reports a similar trend, ranking Katsina as the third state with the highest number of security incidents (defined as battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians, and riots) during the reference period.¹⁰⁸²

According to Nigeria Watch, in 2024, Katsina saw the highest number of fatalities due to rural banditry, cattle rustling and government counter-operations, accounting for 577 of the about 1 452 deaths, including of civilians, recorded in nine states and the FCT.¹⁰⁸³

In January 2024, over 60 army-style dressed bandits invaded Tashar Na-Gulle village in Batsari LGA, abducting some 30 persons.¹⁰⁸⁴ In May 2025, armed bandits attacked Kuki in Dutsin-Ma LGA, affecting 2 155 individuals.¹⁰⁸⁵ In mid-August 2025, armed men attacked a mosque in Unguwan Mantau village, killing a minimum of 17 persons in the mosque,¹⁰⁸⁶ and killing and abducting more in nearby villages, where they also burned houses.¹⁰⁸⁷ An airstrike in February 2025 in Safana area led to at least six civilian deaths.¹⁰⁸⁸

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - An October 2024 Africa Center for Strategic Studies report highlights the ongoing attacks by criminal groups on medical facilities in north-western states, including Katsina. The attacks result in the looting of medical supplies and the razing of facilities, with some shutting down due to insecurity.¹⁰⁸⁹ In March 2024, terrorist attacks in Wurma village in Kurfi LGA resulted in the destruction of a primary healthcare centre and a police outpost.¹⁰⁹⁰ A security analyst noted in June 2025 that the existence of terrorists often led to dilapidated schools, and health centres, with such infrastructure often destroyed or taken by armed groups in remote areas of Katsina state.¹⁰⁹¹

Road security - Criminal groups in Katsina state were reportedly engaging in grand larceny along major highways.¹⁰⁹² Reported incidents included an attempted attack on security forces on the Dutsinma-Kurfi highway,¹⁰⁹³ an attack on a commercial vehicle on the Jibia-Katsina road,¹⁰⁹⁴ and an abduction incident on the Kankara-Dutsinma road.¹⁰⁹⁵ The roads leading from Jibia to Batsari, Batsari to Katsina, Jibia to Katsina, and Kankara to Sheme were reportedly among the most vulnerable to attacks.¹⁰⁹⁶

Displacement, movement and return - According to IOM, the conflict in the north-western states of Nigeria has worsened, leading to widespread displacement throughout the region.¹⁰⁹⁷ As of February 2025, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Katsina state at 270 968¹⁰⁹⁸ compared to 227 203 as of November 2024. IOM lists armed banditry/kidnapping (77 %), disasters (15 %), communal clashes (7 %), and armed insurgency (1 %) as the main reasons for displacement in the state.¹⁰⁹⁹ The IMDC reported 295 000 cases of internal displacement due to conflict and violence in Nigeria in 2024, with 123 000 in three north-western states, including Katsina.¹¹⁰⁰ The abovementioned bandit attack in May 2025 on Kuki in Dutsin-Ma LGA displaced 604 individuals.¹¹⁰¹ The Africa Center for Strategic Studies in October 2024 attributed 84 % of displacement in Katsina to criminal group activity.¹¹⁰²

c) State response in maintaining law and order

In late January 2024, around 30 people who had been abducted in the Batsari LGA earlier the same month, were reportedly rescued by the army.¹¹⁰³ In April 2025, a series of attacks in Katsina state reportedly led to residents' outrage, as they claimed government security forces had failed to protect them. Despite repeated calls for help from communities, who were under attack for two days, security forces were absent, resulting in the abduction of over 50 persons.¹¹⁰⁴ Following the abovementioned attack on a mosque in Unguwan Mantau village by armed men in mid-August 2025, a police source reported that the security forces had stopped the attackers, preventing further attacks on two more villages.¹¹⁰⁵ Later that month, 76 abduction victims were reportedly rescued in a security operation involving an airstrike on a bandit stronghold in Pauwa Hill.¹¹⁰⁶

According to a security analyst, in Nigerian 'territories overrun by terrorists', including in remote areas in Katsina state, governance and secular leadership were scarcely present and state structures, including police posts and local government offices, were 'destroyed or taken

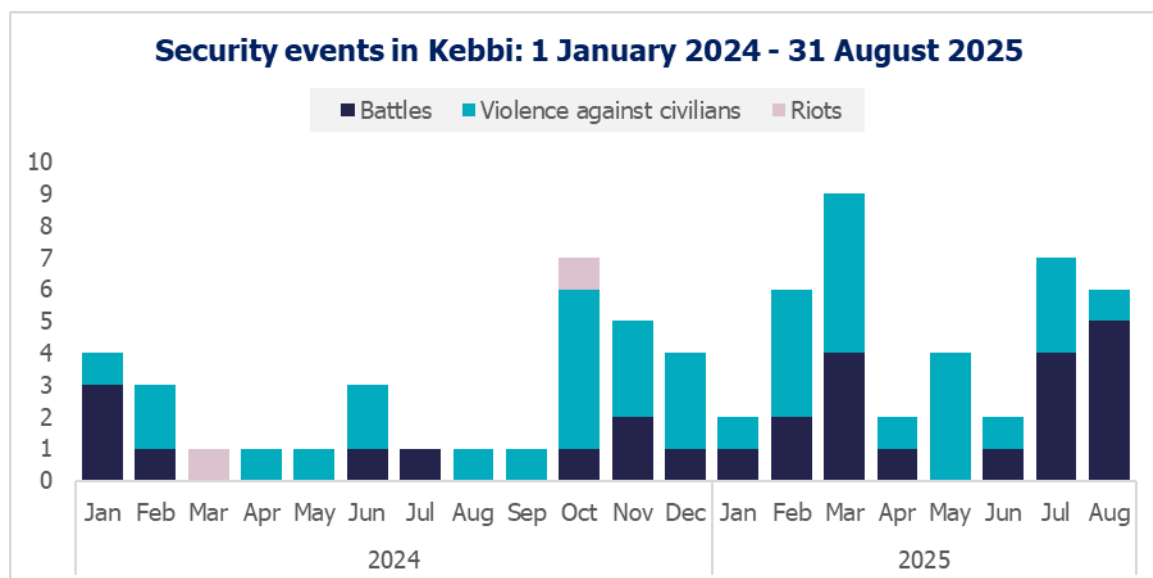

Figure 9: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Kebbi state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹¹³⁰

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 18 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Danko (19), followed by Arewa (12), Shanga (9), as well as Suru and Augie (5 incidents each) LGAs. No incidents were recorded in 3 LGAs. According to ACLED, Kebbi communal militia, unidentified armed groups, and ISSP (coded as either 'Actor 1' or 'Actor 2') were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹¹³¹

According to Nigeria Watch, regarding deaths resulting from farmer-herder clashes in 2024, Kebbi was among the three least-affected states, recording no fatalities.¹¹³²

In mid-June 2025, bandits stormed the village of Tadjurga in the Zuru LGA, killing and abducting several people and looting and stealing cattle.¹¹³³

On 8 November 2024, clashes broke out between residents of Mera village in Augie LGA and the Lakurawa, resulting in 15 casualties.¹¹³⁴ In response to the killing of a Lakurawa leader by security forces, Lakurawa attacked eight villages in the Arewa area in early March 2025, killing 13 people¹¹³⁵ and setting the villages on fire.¹¹³⁶

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - No information could be found during the reference period.

Road security - On 8 December 2024, armed bandits barricaded the road between Mairairai and Bena, abducting at least 30 people. Following clashes with state forces and vigilantes in the Danko/Wasagu LGA, the abduction victims were reportedly freed.¹¹³⁷ In a separate incident in early April 2025, armed bandits ambushed a commercial vehicle on the Kebbi/Sokoto highway, killing one person.¹¹³⁸

Displacement, movement and return - As of August 2025, no figures could be found on conflict-related IDPs in Kebbi state. In early March 2025, the Lakurawa group reportedly attacked the villages of Birnin Debe, Dan Marke, and Tambo, resulting in residents being displaced to IDP camps in the Kangiwa village of the Arewa Dandi LGA.¹¹³⁹ Attacks in mid-June 2025 on residents of Tadurga and Kyabu/Kandu in the Zuru and Danko/Wasagu LGAs of the state, reportedly displaced hundreds of people.¹¹⁴⁰

No information could be found on conflict-induced returns in Kebbi state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Following attacks on residents of Tadurga and Kyabu/Kandu in the Zuru and Danko/Wasagu LGAs of the state in mid-June 2025, a survivor of the attacks reportedly stated that government security forces only arrived the next day, long after the attackers had left.¹¹⁴¹ In May 2025, the chairman of Danko-Wasagu LGA reportedly noted that villages previously under siege by bandits, such as Dan Kade and Yar Tasha had been freed due to the increased military presence in the area. He added that arrangements were being made to secure the Kebbi state border by deploying large numbers of military personnel there.¹¹⁴²

2.3.6. Sokoto

Sokoto state is comprised of the following 23 LGAs: Binji, Bodinga, Dange Shuni, Gada, Goronyo, Gudu, Gwadabawa, Illela, Isa, Kebbe, Kware, Rabah, Sabon Birni, Shagari, Silame, Sokoto North, Sokoto South, Tambuwal, Tangaza, Tureta, Wamako, Wurno, Yabo. The capital city is Sokoto.¹¹⁴³

The majority of the population are Hausa people,¹¹⁴⁴ followed by Fulanis. There are also Zabarmawa, Tuareg and Dakarki minorities in Sokoto state.¹¹⁴⁵ Most of the residents are Sunni Muslims, with a Shia minority.¹¹⁴⁶

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

As of July 2024, households in Sokoto state had been severely affected by farmer-herder conflict, abductions, and banditry.¹¹⁴⁸ Sokoto was considered to be one of the three states in the North-West most affected by banditry,¹¹⁴⁹ with bandit groups having established bases in remote areas.¹¹⁵⁰

During the reference period, attacks¹¹⁵¹ and abductions, including mass abductions,¹¹⁵² as well as arson and cattle rustling¹¹⁵³ by armed men and bandit groups¹¹⁵⁴ such as Lakurawa were reported in Sokoto state. Some of these attacks led to civilian deaths.¹¹⁵⁵ In 2024, abductions in Sokoto state reportedly increased by 108 % compared to the foregoing 4-year average.¹¹⁵⁶ Between July 2023 and June 2024, Sokoto state experienced 67 of the country's 1 130 abduction incidents and accounted for 487 of the 7 568 victims.¹¹⁵⁷ Armed groups reportedly also pressured individuals into paying taxes by threatening to kill them.¹¹⁵⁸ Lakurawa emerged in north-western Sokoto state in September 2024,¹¹⁵⁹ with authorities acknowledging their existence in Nigeria for the first time in November 2024, noting that it has a headquarters in Sokoto state.¹¹⁶⁰ However, displaced residents of northern Sokoto state had reported Lakurawa activity there since 2018.¹¹⁶¹ Furthermore, the UK FCDO stated that attacks likely

A government airstrike in December 2024 in Silame LGA targeting armed groups reportedly killed ten villagers.¹¹⁶³

Vigilante forces reportedly also existed in Sokoto state during the reference period.¹¹⁶⁴

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

For the period between 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 299 security incidents (defined as battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians, and riots) in Sokoto state, which resulted in 550 fatalities. Of these incidents, 215 were coded as incidents of violence against civilians, 74 were coded as battles, 5 as explosions/remote violence, and 5 as riots.¹¹⁶⁵

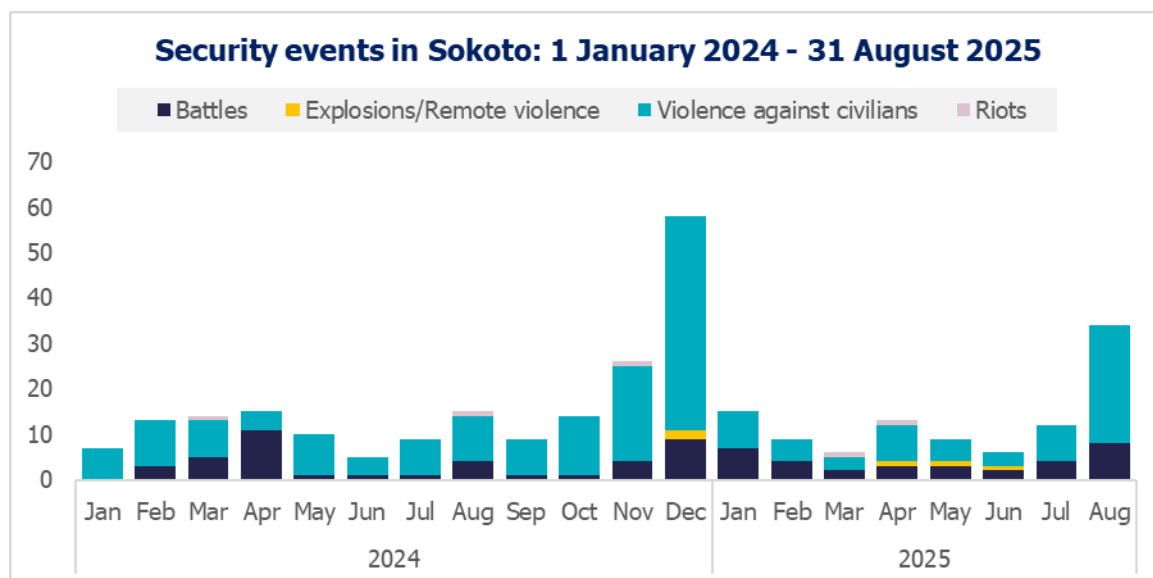

Figure 10: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Sokoto state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹¹⁶⁶

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 21 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Sabon Birni (102), followed by Isa (39), Tangaza (23), Goronyo (20 incidents), and Rabah (19). No incidents were recorded in two LGAs. According to ACLED, Sokoto communal militia (coded as either 'Actor 1' or 'Actor 2') were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹¹⁶⁷

On 2 July 2025, an incident of armed banditry and abduction in Tangaza LGA affected over 500 persons and led to 50 casualties.¹¹⁶⁸ Between 2 and 3 June 2025, several bandit attacks involving abductions occurred in a number of locations in Isa LGA affecting around 18 500 persons.¹¹⁶⁹ In March 2024, at least 15 pupils were abducted by bandits from a boarding school in Gidan Bakuso hamlet while they were asleep.¹¹⁷⁰

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - Reports indicated that schools in Sokoto state had been closed or temporarily closed due to banditry.¹¹⁷¹

Road security - Criminal groups in Sokoto state were reportedly engaging in grand larceny along major highways.¹¹⁷² FEWS NET reported in July 2024 that bandits had intensified attacks along the Sokoto-Gusau road by mounting illegal checkpoints and abducting travellers.¹¹⁷³

Displacement, movement and return - IOM noted that the crisis in north-western Nigeria has accelerated in recent years, resulting in widespread displacement across the region.¹¹⁷⁴ As of February 2025, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Sokoto state at 99 729¹¹⁷⁵ compared to 96 232 as of November 2024. IOM lists armed banditry/kidnapping (81 %), insurgency (10 %), disaster (8 %), and communal clashes (1 %) as the main reasons for displacement in the state.¹¹⁷⁶ The IDMC reported 295 000 cases of internal displacements resulting from conflict and violence in Nigeria in 2024, of which almost 123 000 occurred in three north-western states, including Sokoto.¹¹⁷⁷ The Africa Center for Strategic Studies in October 2024 attributed 87 % of displacements in Sokoto state to criminal group activity.¹¹⁷⁸ Mass displacement in

Sokoto state as a result of bandit attacks was reported for example in several locations of Isa LGA,¹¹⁷⁹ as well as in Shagari,¹¹⁸⁰ Rabah,¹¹⁸¹ and Tangaza LGAs.¹¹⁸²

No information could be found on returns in Sokoto state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Government operations against armed groups, such as operations targeting Lakurawa,¹¹⁸³ including an airstrike in December 2024 in Silame LGA,¹¹⁸⁴ were reported in Sokoto state during the reference period.¹¹⁸⁵ In early September 2025, security forces reportedly rescued nine abduction victims in an operation in Sokoto state.¹¹⁸⁶

In October 2024, it was reported that some villages in Sokoto had lost confidence in the government's ability to protect them and were paying criminal groups for protection, otherwise facing attacks¹¹⁸⁷ and abductions.¹¹⁸⁸ In July 2024, residents of the Lambar-Tureta area protested against the withdrawal of army officers protecting the area, fearing that the withdrawal at a time of intensified terrorist attacks would make them a lot more vulnerable.¹¹⁸⁹

2.3.7. Zamfara

Zamfara state is comprised of the following 14 LGAs: Anka, Bakura, Birin Magaji (or Birnin Magaji/Kiyaw), Bukkuyum, Bungudu, Chafe, Gummi, Gusau, Kaura Namoda, Maradun, Maru, Shinkafi, Talata Mafara, Zurmi. The capital city is Gusau.¹¹⁹⁰

The two main ethnic groups are the Hausa and the Fulani. Other ethnic groups in Zamfara State include the Gwari, Kamuku, Kambari, Dukawa, Bussawa, Zabarma, Igbo, Yoruba, Kanuri, Nupe, and the Tiv. While Islam is the predominant religion in the state, there are also Christians and followers of indigenous religions.¹¹⁹¹

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

In June 2025, IOM reported a multi-dimensional crisis in Nigeria's North-West, with long-standing tensions between ethnic and religious groups leading to attacks and banditry.¹¹⁹³ As of July 2024, one third of the North-West's 20 000 to 30 000 armed bandits were reported to be in Zamfara state.¹¹⁹⁴ Between 2019 and October 2024, Zamfara was among the five states most affected by inter-group clashes between bandit groups.¹¹⁹⁵ Amnesty International reported that between May 2023 and May 2025, over 273 people were killed by bandits in the state. 725 villages across 13 LGAs were controlled by bandit/criminal groups,¹¹⁹⁶ who have reportedly established bases in remote parts of various north-western states, including Zamfara.¹¹⁹⁷ Armed groups reportedly pressured individuals into paying taxes by threatening to kill,¹¹⁹⁸ abduct, forcibly evict or hurt them,¹¹⁹⁹ with some civilians killed for refusing to pay.¹²⁰⁰

During the reference period, abductions of civilians,¹²⁰¹ including mass abductions¹²⁰² and abductions leading to civilian deaths were reported in Zamfara state.¹²⁰³

In early 2024, the vigilante force Zamfara state community protection guards,¹²⁰⁴ also known as Askarawa, was formed.¹²⁰⁵ Previously banned due to violence concerns, the new vigilante force has undergone training to prevent such issues.¹²⁰⁶ Some government airstrikes against

Sources also reported IED explosions in Zamfara state during the reference period.¹²¹²

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

For the period between 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 760 security incidents (defined as battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians, and riots) in Zamfara state, which resulted in 2 806 fatalities. Of these incidents, 439 were coded as incidents of violence against civilians, 277 were coded as battles, 31 as explosions/remote violence, and 13 as riots.¹²¹³

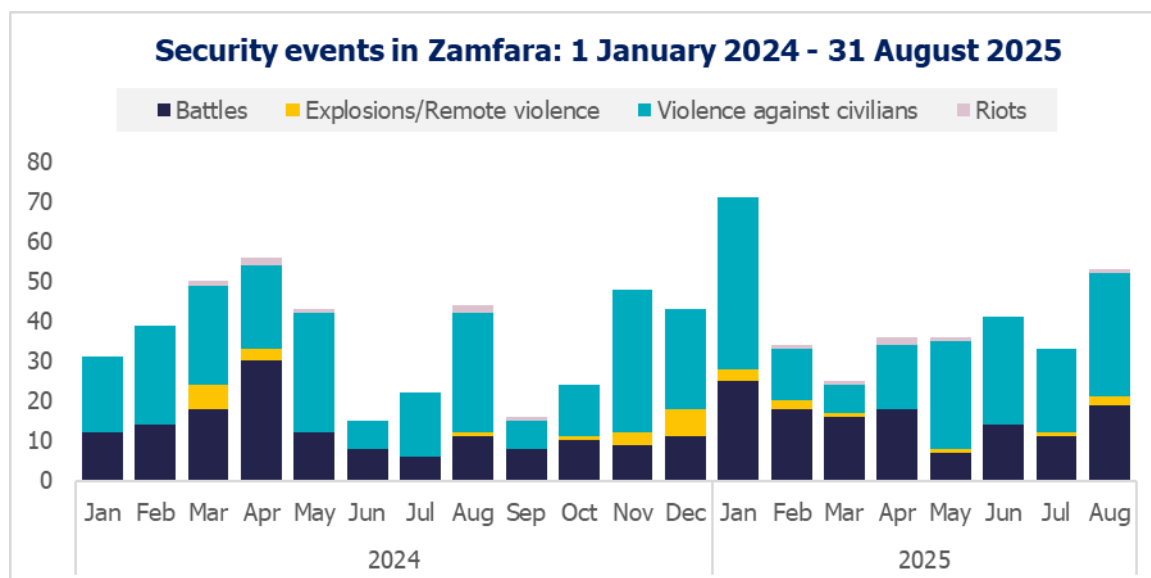

Figure 11: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Zamfara state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹²¹⁴

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in all 14 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Tsafe (145), followed by Gusau (91), Maru (82), Zurmi (68) and Kaura Namoda (66). According to ACLED, Zamfara communal militia (coded as either ‘Actor 1’ or ‘Actor 2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹²¹⁵

Zamfara state was the most dangerous state in Nigeria in 2024, according to Nigeria Watch, with 19.52 fatalities per 100 000 inhabitants, primarily due to banditry.¹²¹⁶ Nigeria Watch also noted an increase in fatalities resulting from rural banditry, cattle rustling and government counter-operations across the country in 2024, with Zamfara state accounting for 394 of the about 1 452 deaths, including of civilians, recorded in nine states and the Federal Capital Territory (FCT).¹²¹⁷ ACLED ranked Zamfara as the second state with the highest number of security incidents (defined as battles, explosions/remote violence, violence against civilians, and riots) during the reference period, after Borno state ranking first.¹²¹⁸

Between July 2023 and June 2024, the state experienced 132 of the country's 1 130 abduction incidents and accounted for 1 639 of the 7 568 victims, including 146 civilian fatalities, making it the Nigerian state most affected by abductions in that period.¹²¹⁹ In 2024, Zamfara was the state with the second-highest number of abduction victims (421)¹²²⁰ and abductions in the state reportedly increased by 156 % compared to the foregoing 4-year average.¹²²¹ Amnesty

International reported that over 467 individuals were abducted in Zamfara between May 2023 and May 2025.¹²²²

In May 2024, armed men attacked Bilbis in Tsafe LGA and three villages in Birin Magaji LGA, resulting in 20 deaths and seven injuries. Over 100 people were abducted for ransom.¹²²³ In December 2024, unidentified men raided Kakin Dawa village in the Maradun LGA, abducting over 50 women and children.¹²²⁴ In May 2025, an armed group killed four women and abducted 20 residents in the Kaura Namoda LGA.¹²²⁵ In April 2024,¹²²⁶ as well as in January¹²²⁷ and June 2025, government attacks from the air targeting bandits were reported to have accidentally killed civilians.¹²²⁸

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - An October 2024 Africa Center for Strategic Studies report noted that attacks by criminal groups have resulted in looting of medical supplies and the razing or occupying of medical facilities in some north-western states, including Zamfara. Some facilities reportedly shut down as a result of insecurity. The source noted that healthcare access in Zurmi, Maru, Bungudu, Tsafe, Birnin Magaji, Gusau East, and Shinkafi LGAs had disappeared for almost two years as a result, forcing people to receive healthcare in other places inside or outside the country. Activities of bandits and a related worsening of the security situation also forced the mentioned LGAs to shut schools for over two years, with 168 schools remaining shut in Zamfara state as of October 2024. Also, large areas of 'farmlands have become inaccessible or deserted due to displacements, producing very little output. Where people can farm, a substantial portion of their harvests go to the criminal groups'.¹²²⁹

Road security - Criminal groups in Zamfara state were reportedly engaging in grand larceny along major highways,¹²³⁰ with bandits planting landmines on roads to block government forces' accessing during attacks.¹²³¹ In May 2025, Amnesty International reported that bandit groups were preventing farmers in the Dangulbi district of the Maru LGA from accessing the nearest markets to sell their harvest.¹²³² Blocked by bandits, residents in Anka LGA's Bagega and Kawaye districts were cut off from the outside world for weeks in late April and early May 2025.¹²³³

Displacement, movement and return - According to IOM, the conflict in the north-western states of Nigeria has worsened, leading to widespread displacement throughout the region.¹²³⁴ According to the October 2024 Africa Center for Strategic Studies report, criminal groups' establishment of bases in remote parts of Zamfara and other north-western states has led to civilian displacement.¹²³⁵ As of February 2025, IOM estimated the number of IDPs in Zamfara state at 216 885 compared to 191 055 as of November 2024.¹²³⁶ UNHCR, as of August 2025, estimated the number of IDPs in Zamfara state at 216 968.¹²³⁷ IOM lists armed banditry/kidnapping (79 %), insurgency (12 %) and communal clashes (9 %) as the main reasons for displacement in the state.¹²³⁸ The IMDC reported 295 000 cases of internal displacements resulting from conflict and violence in Nigeria in 2024, of which almost 123 000 occurred in three north-western states, including Zamfara.¹²³⁹ The Africa Center for Strategic Studies in October 2024 attributed 100 % of displacements in Zamfara state to criminal group activity.¹²⁴⁰ In an attack by armed bandits on 24 June 2025 on six locations in Bukkuyum and Gummi LGAs in Zamfara state, 6 245 individuals, including a high number of children, were displaced.¹²⁴¹ According to a May 2025 Nigerian Tribune article, there were no camps for the IDPs in Zamfara state.¹²⁴²

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Offensives against bandits were carried out by vigilantes¹²⁴³ and the government during the reference period,¹²⁴⁴ including government airstrikes.¹²⁴⁵ Regarding Lakurawa activity, the government also reportedly carried out raids on communities and counter-operations in 2024.¹²⁴⁶ Sources also reported security operation during the reference period, which resulted in abduction victims being released.¹²⁴⁷ Non-military government efforts in late August 2025 reportedly led to the release of over 142 abduction victims.¹²⁴⁸

The Zamfara State parallel House of Assembly criticised state's governor Dauda Lawal in May 2025 for failing to fulfil electoral campaign promises to end armed banditry and allow insecurity to grow and leaving IDPs with nowhere to go.¹²⁴⁹ The same month, communities in Bagega and Kawaye districts of Anka LGA, expressing desperation due to ineffective government intervention, initiated direct negotiations with bandits.¹²⁵⁰ On a similar note, the Africa Center for Strategic Studie reported in October 2024 that some villages in Zamfara 'having lost confidence in the government's ability to come to their aid', were paying criminal groups protection money, noting that those who cannot pay are subjected to attacks.¹²⁵¹ In contrast to this, some sources cited Zamfara state governor Dauda Lawal as saying security has improved.¹²⁵² In early September 2025, he reportedly stated that his main problem in tackling banditry in Zamfara state was that he did not have direct control over the security agencies, which received their orders from the federal government. A Daily Trust article cited unspecified sources as saying that poor road conditions were helping the bandits and seriously hindering the security forces' ability to access affected areas promptly.¹²⁵³

In January 2025, at least 16 civilians were killed in Zamfara state in a military air strike, apparently after being mistaken for criminal gangs; the Nigerian Air Force indicated that it "views with grave concern reports of the loss of civilian lives in the course of the operation" and that a "comprehensive investigation" would be carried out and it would be "communicated to inform and reassure the public".¹²⁵⁴ Human Rights Watch indicated that investigations into airstrikes by the Nigerian military have yet to produce results and that the military continue facing accusations of further erroneous strikes.¹²⁵⁵

2.4.1. Abia

Abia state is comprised of the following 17 LGAs: Aba North, Aba South, Arochukwu, Bende, Ikwuano, Isiala Ngwa North, Isiala Ngwa South, Isuikwuato, Obi Ngwa, Ohafia, Osisioma Ngwa, Ugwuagbo, Ukwia East, Ukwia West, Umuahia North, Umuahia South and Umunneochi. The capital city is Umuahia.¹²⁵⁷

Igbos comprise 95 % of the population.¹²⁵⁸

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population of Abia in 2022 at 4 143 093, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹²⁵⁹

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

Sources ranked Abia state among the country's five safest states during the period from 2011 to 2024 (KDI)¹²⁶⁰ and among the least violent within the Niger Delta in terms of conflict-related fatalities,¹²⁶¹ which decreased from 26 in the fourth quarter of 2024 to 11 in the first quarter of 2025¹²⁶² before marginally rising to 13 in the following quarter (PIND).¹²⁶³ Drivers of insecurity were incidents linked to separatist militias,¹²⁶⁴ criminality (including kidnappings), communal violence¹²⁶⁵ and cult/gang-related clashes.¹²⁶⁶

In 2024, Abia was reportedly one of the Niger Delta states most affected by violence linked to separatist militias,¹²⁶⁷ which included incidents that the authorities attributed to the banned IPOB movement¹²⁶⁸ and its armed wing, the ESN.¹²⁶⁹

Referring to the South-East in general, a Nigerian senior security advisor interviewed by EUAA in July 2025 stated that IPOB was now generally viewed as 'less combative' than in the past and appeared not to have been implicated in most of the recent attacks against federal security personnel. According to this source, these attacks seemed to have been carried out either by criminal organisations ‘masquerading’ as Biafran agitators (using Biafran symbols and flags) or by elements linked to the so-called Biafran Republic Government In Exile (BRGIE) of the Finland-based Biafran agitator Simon Ekpa.¹²⁷⁰ For more information on BRGIE, see section 1.1.3 Non-state armed actors.

In May 2024, deadly disputes over land and boundaries erupted as communities in Arochukwu LGA clashed with communities in Odukpani LGA (Cross River state)¹²⁷¹/Eket LGA (Akwa Ibom state).¹²⁷² Further deadly clashes over land-related issues were reported during the first quarter of 2025 in what PIND described as a ‘resurgence of communal violence’, involving communities in Ikwuano, Isuikwuato and Obi Ngwa LGAs.¹²⁷³

Civil society organisations reported of ‘escalating attacks’ by suspected Fulani armed bandits and herdsmen on local communities, including in Isuikwuato, Umunneochi, and Obi Ngwa LGAs, also noting the occurrence of kidnappings and farm destruction.¹²⁷⁴ March 2025 witnessed the kidnapping of four individuals by gunmen in Obi Ngwa LGA.¹²⁷⁵

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 96 security incidents in Abia state that resulted in a total of 118 fatalities. Of these incidents, 51 were coded as battles, 7 as explosion/remote violence, 7 as riots, and 31 as violence against civilians.¹²⁷⁶

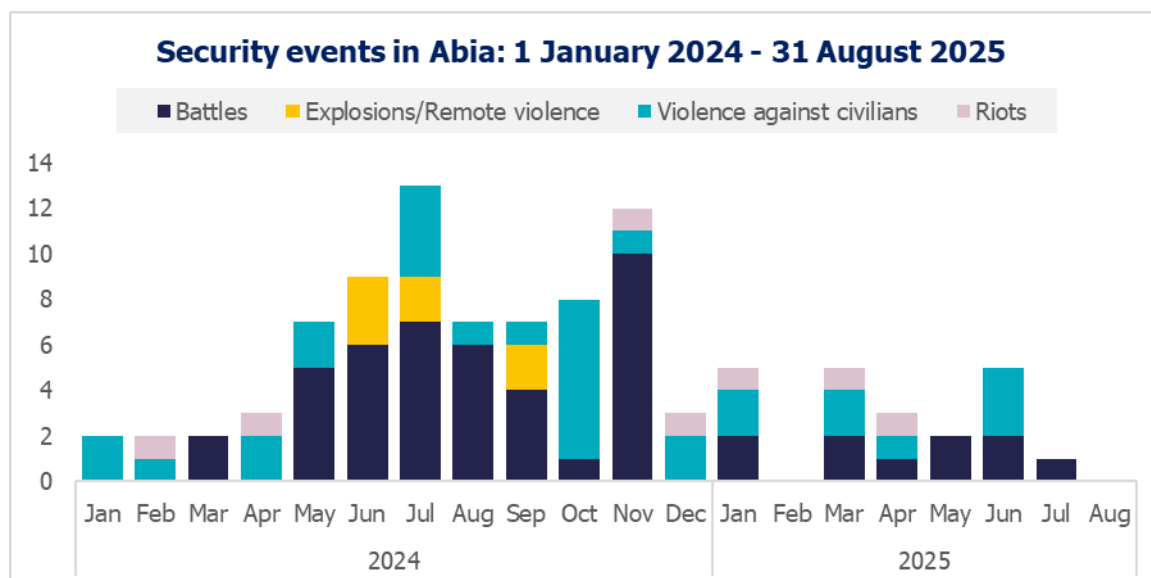

Figure 12: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Abia state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹²⁷⁷

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in all 17 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Aba South LGA (22 incidents), followed by Umuahia North (12) and Umunneochi (also spelled Nneochi) LGAs (8 incidents). According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups, IPOB, unidentified cult militias, and military and police forces (coded as either ‘Actor1’ or ‘Actor2’) were involved in the vast majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹²⁷⁸

Over the year 2024, PIND recorded 13 incidents attributed to separatist militants that resulted in more than 40 fatalities,¹²⁷⁹ while Nigeria Watch recorded 34 such deaths, the fourth-highest figure among all states.¹²⁸⁰ These incidents included deadly clashes during (suspected) separatist militant attacks targeting the security forces,¹²⁸¹ some of which also resulted in civilian casualties.¹²⁸²

Several fatalities resulted from ‘security breaches’ in Umunneochi LGA in June 2025¹²⁸³ and a July 2025 attack on a Chinese-operated construction site in Isuikwuato LGA by suspected kidnappers wearing military camouflage and armed with assault rifles.¹²⁸⁴ Moreover, several fatalities arose from violence linked to rivalries between cults/gangs in various locations across Aba North LGA.¹²⁸⁵

In May 2024, six civilians were among those killed in a surprise attack by alleged IPOB members targeting a security checkpoint¹²⁸⁶ in Aba North LGA,¹²⁸⁷ while attacks by unidentified gunmen targeting a police patrol in Aba South LGA killed four civilians in July 2024¹²⁸⁸ and June 2025.¹²⁸⁹ Suspected kidnappers killed a driver working for a Chinese company in Isuikwuato LGA in July 2025.¹²⁹⁰ At least seven people died in communal clashes in May 2024¹²⁹¹ and February, March 2025¹²⁹² and June 2025.¹²⁹³

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - Civil society organisations reported of farm destruction by suspected armed herdsmen.¹²⁹⁴

Road security -The reference period saw activities of criminal elements on the Abia stretches of the Ikigew (Imo state)–Umunneochi axis¹²⁹⁵ and the Enugu-Aba-Port Harcourt Expressway.¹²⁹⁶

Displacement, movement and return - No information could be found on numbers of individuals affected by conflict-induced displacement in Abia state during the reference period. Following a deadly November 2024 attack by gunmen on an army checkpoint in Umuahia South LGA, youths of the Ekenobizi community deserted the area due to fears of a retaliatory military attack on the community.¹²⁹⁷ No information could be found on returns in Abia state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Civil society organisations highlighted that the security forces demonstrated ‘alarming inertia’ in responding to attacks by herdsmen on communities across the South-East.¹²⁹⁸ While the state government officially denied having engaged the ESN to fight insecurity,¹²⁹⁹ ESN launched a campaign against the Fulanis in the forests of the South-East, reportedly dislodging over 70 Fulani herder and criminal settlements in forests across the South-East zone in 2024.¹³⁰⁰ Meanwhile, sources noted that security forces launched at least two raids on

2.4.2. Anambra

Anambra state is comprised of the following 21 LGAs: Aguata, Awka North, Awka South, Anambra East, Anambra West, Anaocha, Ayamelum, Dunukofia, Ekwusigo, Idemili North, Idemili South, Ihiala, Njikoka, Nnewi North, Nnewi South, Ogbaru, Onitsha North, Onitsha South, Orumba North, Orumba South and Oyi. The capital city is Awka.¹³⁰⁵

The main ethnic group are the Igbos (98 %) and a small population of Igala (2 %) who live in the Northwestern part of the state.¹³⁰⁶

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population of Anambra in 2022 at 5 953 517, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹³⁰⁷

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

Anambra state was described as being marked by ‘insecurity’¹³⁰⁸ as it faced a number of security issues, including cultism, armed robbery,¹³⁰⁹ killings¹³¹⁰ and kidnapping.¹³¹¹ Gunmen carried out multiple deadly attacks across Anambra targeting security forces¹³¹² and vigilantes,¹³¹³ with some of these attacks suspected to have been carried out by separatist elements.¹³¹⁴ Referring to the South-East in general, a Nigerian senior security advisor interviewed by EUAA in July 2025 stated that IPOB was now generally viewed as ‘less combative’ than in previous years and appeared not to have been implicated in the majority of recent attacks against federal security personnel. According to this source, these attacks seemed to have been carried out by criminal groups ‘masquerading’ as Biafra agitators or by elements linked to Simon Ekpa’s BRGIE.¹³¹⁵ For more information on BRGIE, see section on Pro-Biafran separatist groups in 1.1.3 Non-state armed actors.

According to Nigeria Watch, in 2024, Anambra recorded one of the lowest numbers of deaths linked to ethnic and communal violence,¹³¹⁶ although civil society organisations in May 2025 reported of ‘escalating attacks’ by suspected armed bandits and herdsmen on local communities, with Ayamelum and Orumba North LGAs witnessing continued violence.¹³¹⁷

Lethal attacks by unidentified gunmen targeted local communities in Aguata and Orumba North (July 2025),¹³¹⁸ Njikoka (October 2024)¹³¹⁹ and Orumba South LGAs (June 2025).¹³²⁰ The reference period also saw gunmen shooting and injuring Jude Ezenwafor, the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP)’s candidate for the Anambra state election due to be held in November 2025,¹³²¹ and assaulting a female member of the National Youth Service Corps.¹³²²

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 218 security incidents in Anambra state that resulted in a total of 305 fatalities. Of these incidents, 96 were coded as battles, 1 as explosion/remote violence, 13 as riots, and 108 as violence against civilians.¹³²³

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 20 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Akwa South LGA (46 incidents), followed by Ihiala (30), Aguata (21), and Idemili South LGAs (20). There was only one LGA where no incidents were recorded. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups and unidentified cult militias (coded as either ‘Actor1’ or ‘Actor2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹³²⁵

According to Nigeria Watch, Anambra witnessed 88 fatalities arising from cult-related violence (more than any other state), with the state capital of Awka described as a stronghold of cult activities. Deadly incidents attributed to cults occurred recurrently in Awka city (in March,¹³²⁶ October¹³²⁷ and November 2024¹³²⁸), as well as in Awka South LGA (October 2024),¹³²⁹ Oyi (April 2025)¹³³⁰ and Orumba North LGA (June 2025),¹³³¹ often near premises of institutions of higher education.¹³³² The clashes in Oyi LGA involved the Black Axe Confraternity and the Eiye Confraternity.¹³³³ Amongst others, suspected cult clashes killed 13 people in Awka city in March 2024, between 13¹³³⁴ and 16 people in Awka South Local Government Area (LGA) in October 2024,¹³³⁵ and at least 13 people in attacks on near higher education facilities in Awka city in October¹³³⁶ and November 2024¹³³⁷ and in Orumba North LGA in June 2025.¹³³⁸ Attacks by unknown gunmen resulted in five deaths in Njikoka LGA (October 2024),¹³³⁹ between 10 and 13 deaths in Orumba South LGA (June 2025),¹³⁴⁰ and at least three deaths in Aguata and Orumba North LGAs (July 2025).¹³⁴¹

Nigeria Watch recorded 114 fatalities related to pro-Biafran agitation in 2024, the second-highest figure among the five states of the South-East zone, with Aguata and Ihiala among the most severely affected LGAs across the zone.¹³⁴²

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - No information could be found during the reference period.

Road security -It was noted that despite dozens of police checkpoints along roads such as the Enugu-Awka-Onitsha Road, the Onitsha-Owerri Road, the Awka Old Road, the Nkpor Old Road and the Umuchu Road, the state witnessed a high incidence of kidnappings.¹³⁴³

Displacement, movement and return - No information could be found on numbers of individuals affected by conflict-induced displacement in Anambra state during the reference period. Continued communal violence in Ayamelum and Orumba North LGAs prompted farmers to abandon their lands.¹³⁴⁴ No information could be found on returns in Anambra state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Amnesty International noted that activities of gunmen had turned some communities in the South-East, including parts of Ihiala LGA, into 'ungoverned spaces',¹³⁴⁵ while cult groups operated 'unchecked' in several towns, including Awka, Obosi, Ogidi, Onitsha and Umuoji.¹³⁴⁶ Civil society organisations observed that the security forces demonstrated 'alarming inertia' in responding to attacks by herdsmen on communities across the region.¹³⁴⁷

In Nnewi South LGA, IPOB exercised 'fragmented shadow governance' with the ESN operating checkpoints and enforcing lockdowns, while police were near-absent and courts were closed.¹³⁴⁸ ESN launched a campaign against the Fulanis in the forests of the South-East,

In January 2025, Anambra State House of Assembly adopted a law to strengthen security and order in the state, establishing a new security outfit called the ‘Anambra State Agunechemba’ to address key security challenges.¹³⁵⁰ Moreover, the state governor launched a new security system named Operation Udo ga Achi (‘Operation Peace Shall Reign’) comprised of military, police and intelligence, NSCDC and Agunechemba personnel.¹³⁵¹ However, in June 2025, the opposition Young Progressive Party (YPP)’s governorship candidate Paul Chukwuma accused the ruling party of ‘poor handling’ of security measures, pointing to continued killings, kidnappings and other crimes and alleging that the new Agunechemba security outfit was a ‘scam’.¹³⁵² Security operations during the reference period led to the arrest or killing of several gunmen,¹³⁵³ ESN members¹³⁵⁴ and cultists.¹³⁵⁵

2.4.3. Ebonyi

Ebonyi state is comprised of the following 13 LGAs: Abakaliki, Afikpo North, Afikpo South, Ebonyi, Ezza North, Ezza South, Ikwo, Ishielu, Ivo, Izzi, Ohaozara, Ohaukwu and Onicha. The capital city is Abakaliki.¹³⁵⁶

The majority of the population is Igbo.¹³⁵⁷

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population of Ebonyi in 2022 at 3 242 518, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹³⁵⁸

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

The situation in Ebonyi state has been described as being marked by insecurity.¹³⁵⁹ Conflicts between farmers and herders have led to fatalities, property destruction, and displacement.¹³⁶⁰ According to a Nigerian senior security adviser interviewed by EUAA in July 2025, the ESN has reduced, if not dislodged, the Fulani presence in the forests of the South-East with considerable success, apparently contributing to a reduction in incidents of kidnappings by

Fulani elements across the South-East. However, parts of Ebonyi state still experienced incidents involving forest-based criminal groups.¹³⁶¹ Civil society organisations cited by the Punch newspaper in May 2025 pointed to ‘escalating attacks’ by suspected armed bandits and herdsmen on local communities.¹³⁶²

The reference period also witnessed a number of deadly clashes linked to long-standing land disputes, including between two communities in Ohaukwu LGA (Ebonyi) and in Ado LGA (Benue) (December 2024)¹³⁶³ and two further communities¹³⁶⁴ in Afikpo North and Afikpo South LGAs.¹³⁶⁵ In Ivo LGA, a decades-long land dispute between two communities in Ogor and Omobor (Umuobor) villages repeatedly erupted into deadly clashes in late 2024 and early 2025.¹³⁶⁶ As of March 2025, it was noted that a more than century-old land dispute between the Abaomege and Ishinkwo communities of Onicha LGA had caused over 100 deaths over the past five years.¹³⁶⁷ Moreover, a number of abductions of rural residents were reported.¹³⁶⁸ Deadly cult clashes occurred in Ezza North LGA in January 2024.¹³⁶⁹

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 71 security incidents in Ebonyi state that resulted in a total of 135 fatalities. Of these incidents, 25 were coded as battles, 9 as riots, and 37 as violence against civilians, while no incidents were coded as explosions/remote violence.¹³⁷⁰

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 12 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Ivo LGA (14 incidents), followed by Ohaukwu (12), and Afikpo South LGA (8). There was only one LGA where no incidents were recorded. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups (16), communal militias and police forces (coded as either ‘Actor1’ or ‘Actor2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹³⁷²

According to Nigeria Watch, in 2024, Ebonyi recorded nearly 30 deaths linked to ethnic and communal violence, more than any other state.¹³⁷³ Amongst others, civilian fatalities resulted from clashes linked to land disputes in Ohaukwu LGA of Ebonyi and Ado LGA of Benue (four deaths),¹³⁷⁴ Afikpo North and Afikpo South LGAs (between four¹³⁷⁵ and six deaths),¹³⁷⁶ and Ivo LGA (at least 13 deaths).¹³⁷⁷ Dozens of fatalities resulted from attacks on communities some of which attributed to armed herdsmen, including in Ivo LGA (November 2024)¹³⁷⁸ and Ishielu LGA (February 2025),¹³⁷⁹ and from attacks by unknown gunmen on communities in Ohaukwu

According to Nigeria Watch, the state recorded seven fatalities linked to pro-Biafran agitation in 2024, the lowest figure among the five states of the South-East zone.¹³⁸⁷ Several deaths resulted from attacks on police forces by suspected IPOB/ESN operatives in the Abakaliki outskirts (March 2024)¹³⁸⁸ and by unidentified gunmen along the Abakaliki–Enugu road (April 2024).¹³⁸⁹

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - Conflicts between farmers and herders resulted in property destruction.¹³⁹⁰ Clashes and armed attacks resulted in damage to buildings and property in Afikpo North/Afikpo South,¹³⁹¹ Ohaukwu,¹³⁹² and Ivo LGAs.¹³⁹³

Road security - No information could be found during the reference period.

Displacement, movement and return - No information could be found on numbers of individuals affected by conflict-induced displacement in Ebonyi state during the reference period. Nigerian senior security advisor told EUAA in July 2025.¹³⁹⁷ Meanwhile, security forces raided a camp run by IPOB and ESN in Izzi LGA in March 2024.¹³⁹⁸ In July 2025, the Ebonyi State Police Command announced that security operations conducted across all of the state's 13 LGAs during the first half of 2025 had led to the arrest of 939 individuals suspected of various crimes such as murder, robbery, child abduction and cultism.¹³⁹⁹

2.4.4. Enugu

Enugu state is comprised of the following 17 LGAs: Aninri, Awgu, Enugu East, Enugu North, Enugu South, Ezeagu, Igbo Etiti, Igboeze North, Igboeze South, Isiuo, Nkanu East, Nkanu West, Nsukka, Oji River, Udenue, Udi and Uzo Uwani. The capital city is Enugu.¹⁴⁰⁰

The majority of the population is Igbo.¹⁴⁰¹

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population of Enugu in 2022 at 4 690 053, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁴⁰²

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

While Enugu state's governor maintained that Enugu continued to be one of the country's safest states,¹⁴⁰³ the situation in some parts of Enugu was described as marked by growing 'insecurity'.¹⁴⁰⁴ According to a Nigerian senior security adviser interviewed by EUAA in July 2025, the ESN has reduced, if not dislodged, the Fulani presence in the forests of the South-East with considerable success, apparently contributing to a reduction in incidents of kidnappings by Fulani elements across the South-East. However, parts of Enugu state still experienced incidents involving forest-based criminal groups.¹⁴⁰⁵

Referring to the South-East in general, the Nigerian senior security advisor stated that IPOB was now generally viewed as 'less combative' than in previous years and appeared not to have been implicated in the majority of recent attacks against federal security personnel. According to this source, these attacks seemed to have been carried out either by criminal groups 'masquerading' as Biafran agitators or by elements linked to Simon Ekpa's BRGIE.¹⁴⁰⁶ For more information on the BRGIE, see section 1.1.3 Non-state armed actors.

During the reference period, unidentified gunmen carried out multiple deadly attacks targeting police forces¹⁴⁰⁷ and vigilantes¹⁴⁰⁸ and assassinated the chairperson of the traders' association of Enugu's largest market.¹⁴⁰⁹ Meanwhile, clashes erupting from a long-standing land dispute between two communities in Udi and Enugu South LGAs in July 2025 left one person dead.¹⁴¹⁰

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 133 security incidents in Enugu state that resulted in a total of 135 fatalities. Of these incidents, 43 were coded as battles, 10 as riots, and 80 as violence against civilians.¹⁴¹¹

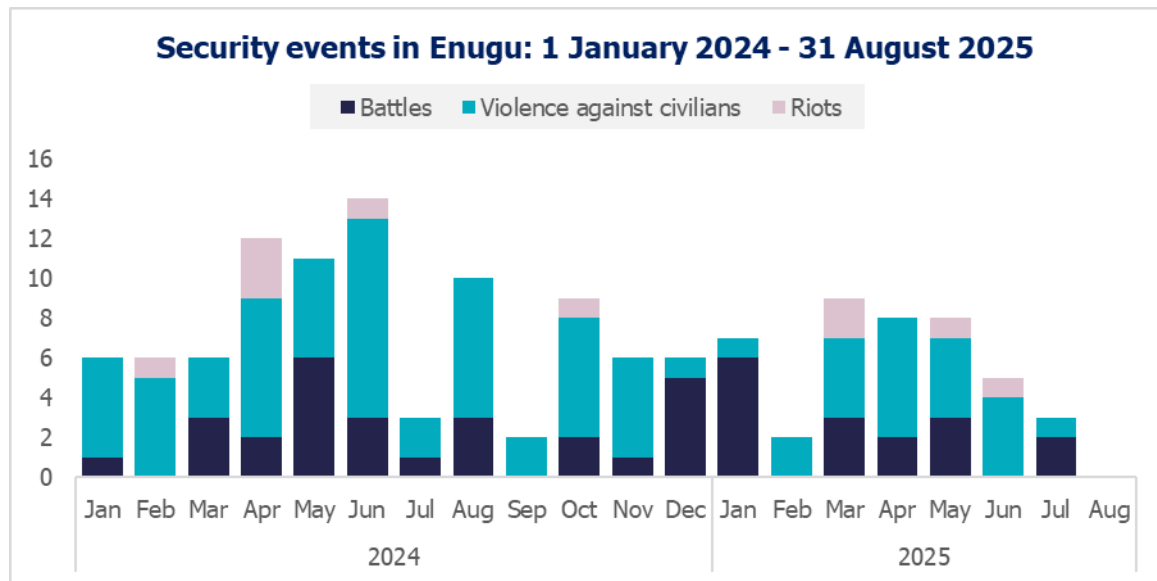

Figure 15: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Enugu state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁴¹²

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in all 17 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Isi Uzo LGA (24 incidents), followed by Enugu North (18), Nsukka (14), Uzo Uwani (13) and Udi (12) LGAs. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups, Fulani ethnic militias and police forces (coded as either 'Actor1' or 'Actor2') were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹⁴¹³

In 2024, according to Nigeria Watch, Enugu recorded close to 25 fatalities arising from ethnic and communal violence, the third-highest figure across all states.¹⁴¹⁴ While the same source listed Enugu as one of the states experiencing the fewest fatalities specifically related to herder–farmer clashes in 2024,¹⁴¹⁵ suspected armed herdsmen carried out a deadly attack on a community in Uzo Uwani LGA in April 2024.¹⁴¹⁶ In June 2025, Eha-Amufu (Isiuzo LGA)¹⁴¹⁷ saw at least two deadly attacks by suspected armed herdsmen.¹⁴¹⁸ Nsukka LGA reportedly saw a ‘spate of killings, kidnappings, and other violent crimes’.¹⁴¹⁹ Amongst others, an attack by suspected armed herdsmen resulted in four deaths in Uzo-Uwani in April 2024,¹⁴²⁰ while the June 2025 attacks in Eha-Amufu (Isiuzo LGA) claimed between 11¹⁴²¹ and more than 14 lives.¹⁴²²

According to Nigeria Watch, the state recorded 50 fatalities related to pro-Biafran agitation in 2024, the third-highest figure among the five states of the South-East zone.¹⁴²³

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - A renewed land dispute in Enugu South LGA in May 2025 resulted in the destruction of property in the Etiti-Ngwo community.¹⁴²⁴

Road security - The reference period saw gunmen abducting 11 bus passengers on the Amechi-Idodo axis of the Enugu–Abakaliki expressway, an area that has become notorious for kidnappings.¹⁴²⁵

Displacement, movement and return - As of 31 August 2025, no information could be found on numbers of individuals affected by conflict-induced displacement in Enugu state during the reference period. Attacks on communities in Uzo Uwani LGA and Eha-Amufu have prompted displacements.¹⁴²⁶ The April 2024 attack in Uzo Uwani left the stricken community deserted as villagers abandoned their houses for fear of further attacks.¹⁴²⁷ No information could be found on returns in Enugu state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Civil society organisations observed that the security forces demonstrated ‘alarming inertia’ in responding to attacks by herdsmen on communities across the South-East.¹⁴²⁸ Despite a campaign launched by the ESN against Fulani criminal elements in the forests of the South-

East, parts of Enugu state still experienced incidents linked to forest-based criminal groups, a Nigerian senior security advisor told EUAA in July 2025.¹⁴²⁹ Meanwhile, security forces arrested dozens of suspected IPOB/ESN members¹⁴³⁰ and killed members of the pro-Biafra separatist faction led by Simon Ekpa.¹⁴³¹

The security forces killed and arrested suspected kidnappers,¹⁴³² dismantled a criminal hideout operating under the guise of a place of worship,¹⁴³³ arrested suspected informants of militant herders who had attacked communities in June 2025,¹⁴³⁴ and foiled at least one armed robbery.¹⁴³⁵ Moreover, the The Enugu State Boundary Committee resolved a long-running land dispute between two communities in Nkanu East and Nkanu West LGAs.¹⁴³⁶

2.4.5. Imo

Imo state is comprised of the following 27 LGAs: Ahiazu Mbaise,¹⁴³⁷ Aboh Mbaise, Ehime Mbano, Ezinihitte, Ideato North, Ideato South, Ihitte/Uboma, Ikeduru, Isiala Mbano, Isu, Mbaitoli, Ngor Okpala, Njaba, Nkwerre, Nwangele, Obowo, Oguta, Ohaji/Egbema, Okigwe, Onuimo, Orlu, Orsu, Oru East, Oru West, Owerri Municipal, Owerri North and Owerri West. The capital city is Owerri.¹⁴³⁸

Igbo people constitute 98 % of the population.¹⁴³⁹

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population of Imo in 2022 at 5 459 337, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁴⁴⁰

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

The situation in Imo has been marked by rising insecurity, which also affected the city of Owerri.¹⁴⁴¹ According to PIND, Imo ranked among the three Niger Delta states witnessing the highest numbers of conflict-related deaths in 2024, with Ohaji/Egbema being one of the three most affected LGAs in the region.¹⁴⁴² Conflict-related fatalities in the state dropped from 22 in the fourth quarter of 2024 to 13 in the first quarter of 2025 (PIND)¹⁴⁴³ but then saw a marked increase to 41 in the following quarter.¹⁴⁴⁴ Main sources of insecurity were criminal activities (including targeted killings and kidnappings for ransom), violence linked to separatist militias,¹⁴⁴⁵ and communal clashes.¹⁴⁴⁶

In 2024, Imo was reportedly one of the Niger Delta states experiencing the highest numbers of fatalities attributed to separatist militias,¹⁴⁴⁷ including IPOB/ESN.¹⁴⁴⁸ Meanwhile, referring to the South-East in general, a Nigerian senior security advisor interviewed by EUAA in July 2025 stated that IPOB was now generally viewed as ‘less combative’ than in previous years and appeared not to have been implicated in the majority of recent attacks against federal security personnel. According to this source, these attacks seemed to have been carried out either by criminal groups ‘masquerading’ as Biafran agitators or by elements linked to Simon Ekpa’s BRGIE.¹⁴⁴⁹ For more information on the BRGIE, see section 1.1.3 Non-state armed actors.

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period from 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 154 security incidents in Imo state that resulted in a total of 275 fatalities. Of these incidents, 76 were coded as battles, 3 as explosion/remote violence, 5 as riots, and 70 as violence against civilians.¹⁴⁵⁰

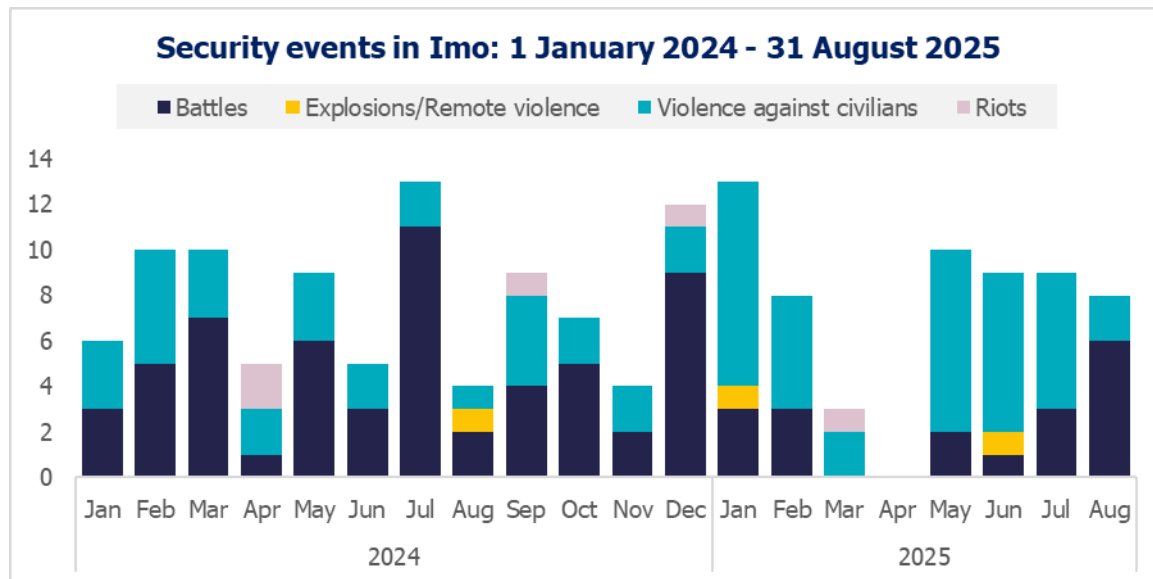

Figure 16: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Imo state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁴⁵¹

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 20 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Okigwe LGA (27 incidents), followed by Owerri West (23), Orsu (15), Mbaitoli (14) and Owerri Municipal (13) LGAs. No incidents were recorded in seven LGAs. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups, IPOB, and Fulani ethnic militias (coded as either ‘Actor1’ or ‘Actor2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹⁴⁵²

Over the year 2024, PIND attributed more than 100 deaths in Imo to violence linked to separatist militias,¹⁴⁵³ while Nigeria Watch recorded 174 such deaths, the highest figure among all states, with Orsu and Ehime Mbano Oyo among the LGAs most severely affected in the zone. Many of those killed were members of IPOB and ESN who died in special operations led by security forces.¹⁴⁵⁴ Incidents attributed to separatist militias included multiple deadly clashes with security forces¹⁴⁵⁵ and alleged lethal attacks on civilians in Okigwe (June 2024),¹⁴⁵⁶ Owerri North (July 2024)¹⁴⁵⁷ and Onuimo LGAs (August 2024).¹⁴⁵⁸ Amongst others, gunmen suspected to be IPOB members killed six people in Okigwe LGA (June 2024)¹⁴⁵⁹ and eight community leaders in Onuimo LGA (August 2024).¹⁴⁶⁰ Meanwhile, unidentified gunmen killed more than 18 local residents in a string of attacks across multiple communities in Orsu

Imo was one of the Niger Delta states witnessing the highest numbers of fatalities (more than 50) linked to criminal violence in 2024, mainly as a result of gun attacks and clashes between militia groups, vigilantes and security forces.¹⁴⁶⁴ Unidentified gunmen were involved in deadly clashes with security forces,¹⁴⁶⁵ freed inmates in an attack on a correctional facility,¹⁴⁶⁶ and killed dozens of civilians in Ohaji/Egbema (March 2024),¹⁴⁶⁷ Mbaitoli (April 2024),¹⁴⁶⁸ Onuimo (August 2024),¹⁴⁶⁹ Ideato North (December 2024¹⁴⁷⁰ and July 2025¹⁴⁷¹), Orsu LGAs (January 2025)¹⁴⁷² and on the Okigwe-Owerri road (May 2025).¹⁴⁷³ Unknown gunmen also carried out kidnappings in Owerri West (September 2024),¹⁴⁷⁴ Isiala Mbano (November 2024)¹⁴⁷⁵ and Okigwe LGAs (January 2025)¹⁴⁷⁶ and Owerri city (December 2024¹⁴⁷⁷ and February 2025¹⁴⁷⁸).

Imo was also one of the Niger Delta states most affected by fatalities related to vigilante and mob violence in 2024, resulting in killings of civilians in Owerri North (April 2024) and Owerri West LGAs (September 2024).¹⁴⁷⁹ Deadly inter-cult fighting was reported in Owerri city (March 2024)¹⁴⁸⁰ and Ohaji/Egbema LGA (September 2024).¹⁴⁸¹ Moreover, civil society organisations reported of ‘escalating attacks’ by suspected armed bandits and herdsmen on local communities.¹⁴⁸² Attacks by armed herdsmen resulted in several deaths.¹⁴⁸³ At least five residents of Oguta LGA were killed by suspected armed herdsmen June 2025,¹⁴⁸⁴ while at least eight people died in an inter-cult clash involving two communities in Ohaji/Egbema in September 2024.¹⁴⁸⁵

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - An armed attack on travellers along the Okigwe-Owerri Road on 8 May 2025, resulted in the killing of at least 30 people¹⁴⁸⁶ and the burning of more than 20 commuter vehicles and lorries,¹⁴⁸⁷ while the Okigwe area was also affected by farmland destruction.¹⁴⁸⁸

Road security - Besides the aforementioned attack on travellers along the Okigwe-Owerri Road on 8 May 2025,¹⁴⁸⁹ two further ambushes the same month reportedly led to the killing of at least two drivers and the kidnapping of multiple travellers/bus passengers. The following month, separatist militias reportedly killed two lorry drivers at Ogi Junction in Okigwe LGA.¹⁴⁹⁰

Displacement, movement and return - No information could be found on conflict-induced displacement or returns in Imo state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Amnesty International noted that activities of gunmen had turned some communities in the South-East, including parts of Oguta LGA, into ‘ungoverned spaces’.¹⁴⁹¹ Civil society organisations observed that the security forces demonstrated ‘alarming inertia’ in responding to attacks by herdsmen on communities across the region. Amongst others, the Okigwe area saw no evidence of significant arrests or prosecutions in response to attacks and destructions.¹⁴⁹²

In Oguta and Orsu LGAs, IPOB exercised ‘fragmented shadow governance’ with the ESN operating checkpoints and enforcing lockdowns, while police were near-absent and courts remained closed.¹⁴⁹³ On 30 May 2025, Owerri’s residents remained indoors in compliance with a sit-at-home directive issued by IPOB for that day, despite the police calling on residents to ignore the directive.¹⁴⁹⁴ ESN launched a campaign against the Fulanis in the forests of the South-East, reportedly dislodging over 70 Fulani herders and criminal settlements in forests across the South-East zone in 2024. Meanwhile, security agencies sustained operations to destroy IPOB/ESN,¹⁴⁹⁵ killing and arresting multiple commanders and members across Imo.¹⁴⁹⁶

In July 2025, the Imo State Police Command announced that over the previous six months, it had arrested 2 785 individuals suspected of crimes such as murder, terrorism, armed robbery,

2.5. South-South

The South-South consists of the following six states: Akwa Ibom, Bayelsa, Cross River, Delta, Edo, and Rivers.¹⁴⁹⁸

For an overview of the main conflict drivers at the country and regional levels, see 1. General description of the security situation.

2.5.1. Akwa Ibom

Akwa Ibom state is comprised of the following 31 LGAs: Abak, Eastern Obolo, Eket, Esit Eket, Essien Udim, Etim Ekpo, Etinan, Ibeno, Ibesikpo Asutan, Ibiono Ibom, Ika, Ikono, Ikot Abasi, Ikot Ekpene, Ini, Itu, Mbo, Mkpato Enin, Nsit Atai, Nsit Ibom, Nsit Ubium, Obot Akara, Okobo, Onna, Oron, Oruk Anam, Udung Uko, Ukanafun, Uruan, Urue Offong Oruko, Uyo. The capital city is Uyo.¹⁴⁹⁹

The main ethnic groups are Ibibio, Anang, and Eket.¹⁵⁰⁰ Other groups include the Oron (also Oro), Ibeno, Itu Mbonuso and Andonis.¹⁵⁰¹

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 4 979 418 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁵⁰² The population is predominantly of Christian faith.¹⁵⁰³

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

According to PIND, during the reporting period, the main sources of insecurity in Akwa Ibom state were clashes between rival cult gangs and kidnappings for ransom.¹⁵⁰⁴ In 2024, Akwa Ibom was among the Niger Delta states most affected by kidnappings for ransom, with more than 18 such incidents documented by PIND, resulting in more than 16 fatalities.¹⁵⁰⁵ Kidnappings reportedly also occurred for the purpose of child trafficking.¹⁵⁰⁶

In May 2024, the PIND noted that abductions for ransom had become ‘increasingly prevalent and intense’ in Akwa Ibom state and that the ‘trends and patterns of kidnapping’ could potentially intensify and negatively influence the state's political, socio-economic and security situation.¹⁵⁰⁷ A few months later, the organisation described the ongoing abductions as 'a prevailing security threat' in the state and particularly mentioned the targeted abduction of travellers.¹⁵⁰⁸ Victims of abductions included for example 18 passengers and the driver of a bus travelling from Uyo to Port Harcourt in Rivers state in July 2024,¹⁵⁰⁹ and a lawyer and his niece travelling along the Abak-Ikot Abasi road in December 2024. Both were rescued the following day.¹⁵¹⁰ In April 2025, in the context of the kidnapping of passengers from a ship travelling from Akwa Ibom to Cross River state (please see section 2.5.3 Cross River), the Nigerian news site noted that the so-called 'Oron axis' including Oron, Mbo, Okobo, Udung Uko and Urue Offong/Uruko LGAs in Akwa Ibom state had become a 'hotbed for kidnappers in the recent past'.¹⁵¹¹ In its report on conflict trends in the Niger Delta region covering the period April to June 2025, PIND pointed out that conflict risks and lethal violence had declined compared to the first quarter of 2025. However, kidnapping for ransom and sea robbery remained major drivers of insecurity.¹⁵¹²

Sources reported of clashes over supremacy between rival cult groups, including between Vikings/Bagger¹⁵¹³ and Red Skin in Mbo LGA in March 2024,¹⁵¹⁴ and between Black Axe (also Aye¹⁵¹⁵) and Vikings/Bagger in Oron LGA in October 2024.¹⁵¹⁶ Sources also reported of activities of the Ku Klux Klan (KKK) confraternity in Uyo LGA in June 2025,¹⁵¹⁷ and along the Calabar-Itu Road, where suspected members were involved in robbery, abductions and other criminal activities.¹⁵¹⁸ PIND described cult-related violence as 'a major source of insecurity and fatalities' in the second quarter of 2025.¹⁵¹⁹

Communal violence was another source of insecurity and occurred mostly in the context of disputes between herders and farmers, or over land, involving communities in the Eket, Esit Eket and Ibeno LGAs.¹⁵²⁰ While intra-communal land disputes were 'prevalent' in Akwa Ibom

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period between 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 59 security incidents in Akwa Ibom state, which resulted in 65 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 26 were coded as battles, 12 as riots and 21 as incidents of violence against civilians.¹⁵²³

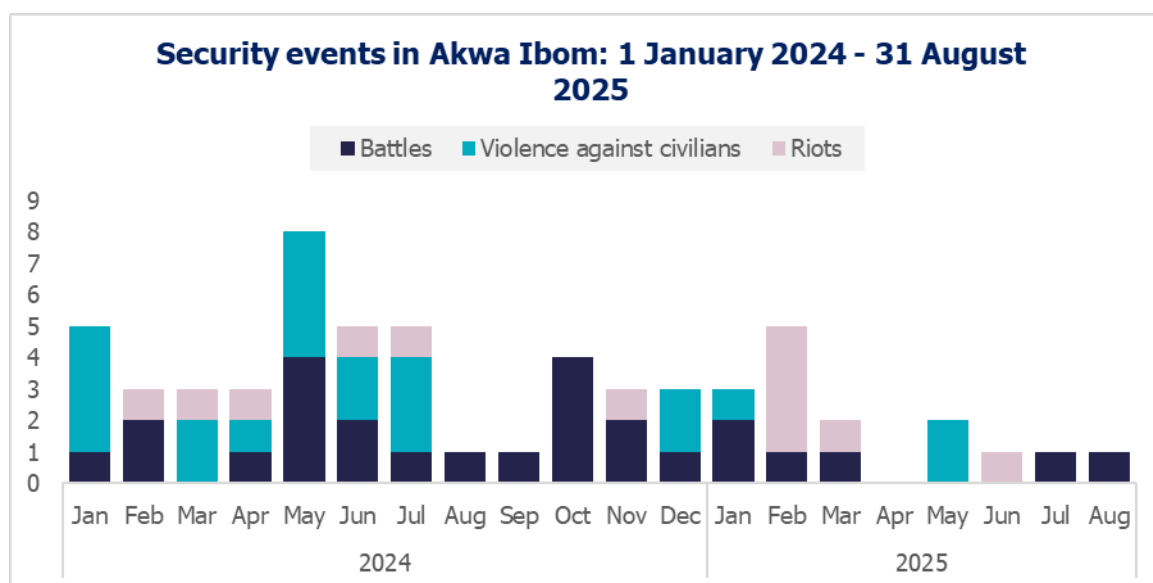

Figure 30: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Akwa Ibom state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁵²⁴

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 18 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Uyo (12), Abak and Itu (6 incidents each), Oron (5 incidents). No incidents were recorded in 13 LGAs. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups and unidentified cult militia (coded as either 'Actor 1' or 'Actor 2') were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹⁵²⁵

In a report covering the period from January to March 2025, PIND described Akwa Ibom state as 'one of the least violent' in the Niger Delta region in terms of reported fatalities.¹⁵²⁶ Similarly, in 2024, Akwa Ibom was among the five most peaceful states, according to Nigeria Watch.¹⁵²⁷

Cult-related violence, resulting in casualties, including among civilians and others, was reported during the reference period, for example in Eket LGA in April 2024,¹⁵²⁸ in Uyo LGA in July 2024,¹⁵²⁹ in Oron LGA in October 2024,¹⁵³⁰ in Ikot Ekpene LGA in January 2025,¹⁵³¹ and in Etim Ekpo LGA in May 2025.¹⁵³² Several people were killed in an escalation of violence between Vikings and Black Axe cults in October 2024. A school principal was beheaded by members of the Viking confraternity,¹⁵³³ while two other suspected members of the Black Axe and Viking cults had been beheaded earlier in Mbo LGA.¹⁵³⁴

Sources reported of incidents of mob violence during the reference period, targeting for example suspected cult members,¹⁵³⁵ suspected thieves,¹⁵³⁶ members of the security forces,¹⁵³⁷ and others.¹⁵³⁸

Two people were reportedly killed, several injured in an attack on Iwuochang community in Ibeno LGA in the context of a long-standing land dispute between Ibeno, Eket and Esit Eket LGAs over the oil-rich Stubbs Creek in February 2024.¹⁵³⁹ Tensions reportedly flared up again in early 2025.¹⁵⁴⁰

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - More than 20 houses, including a church, were destroyed in the aforementioned attack on Iwuochang community in Ibeno LGA in February 2024.¹⁵⁴¹ In the same context, houses, schools and medical facilities were damaged in an attack on Inua Eyet Ikot community in November 2024.¹⁵⁴²

Road security - No information could be found during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

In June 2025, the Nigerian Centre for Human Rights and Accountability Network (CHRAN) mentioned that the Department of State Services (DSS) prevented the allegedly planned abduction of politicians expected to attend a political ceremony on an upcoming holiday. In a security operation in Oron LGA, the DSS detained four suspected members of a group of sea pirates reportedly known for kidnappings across the South-South geopolitical zone targeting high-profile victims.¹⁵⁴⁴ In December 2024, two kidnap victims, a lawyer and his niece, were freed in a police operation that resulted in the killing of three suspected kidnappers.¹⁵⁴⁵ Punch reported in January 2025 of the state government’s announcement – in view of increase in acts of vandalism of public facilities – to have at least one member of the state-funded Ibom Community Watch agency in every village of the state who should ‘act as an eye’ for the police.¹⁵⁴⁶ Meanwhile, in May 2025, the state’s parliament demanded the recruitment of more than 1 000 youths for the Ibom Community Watch to ensure that not only Uyo but all senatorial districts of the state were covered.¹⁵⁴⁷

2.5.2. Bayelsa

Bayelsa state is comprised of the following 8 LGAs: Brass, Ekeremor, Kolokuma/Opokuma, Nembe, Ogbia, Sagbama, Southern Ijaw, Yenagoa. The capital city is Yenagoa.¹⁵⁴⁸

The state’s main ethnic group are the Ijaw; other groups include the Urhobo¹⁵⁴⁹ and Isoko.¹⁵⁵⁰

Bayelsa’s population was ‘exceeding 2.5 million’, according to the website of the Bayelsa state government, noting that it was the country’s least populous state.¹⁵⁵¹ Similarly, UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 2 537 375 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁵⁵²

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

cults occurred particularly in Yenagoa between the Greenlanders and Bobos cult gangs who were fighting for control over a carpark in Igbogene.¹⁵⁵³ Other cult gangs reportedly involved in the conflict were the Icelanders, Vikings and Deebams.¹⁵⁵⁴ Cult-related violence targeted not only rival cult members; civilians were also killed or injured by suspected cultists.¹⁵⁵⁵ Sources reported of cult-related killings using firearms,¹⁵⁵⁶ machetes¹⁵⁵⁷ or of stoning people.¹⁵⁵⁸ Cult-related crimes also included robbery and theft.¹⁵⁵⁹ Insecurity and lethal violence increased in the second quarter of 2025, mainly driven by clashes between rival cult gangs – particularly in Yenagoa and Southern Ijaw LGA – and criminal activities. Nevertheless, based on the recorded fatalities, Bayelsa remained one of the least violent states in the Niger Delta region, according to PIND.¹⁵⁶⁰

Suspected sea pirates were involved in the abduction of four women travelling by boat and robbing the other passengers,¹⁵⁶¹ as well as in ambushes on private pipeline surveillance workers¹⁵⁶² and federal security forces.¹⁵⁶³

Lethal clashes between Opolo and Okutukutu communities in Yenagoa LGA over land ownership and the boundaries of their communal land were reported in February 2024.¹⁵⁶⁴

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period between 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 44 security incidents in Bayelsa state, resulting in 44 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 13 were coded as battles, 1 as explosion/remote violence, 7 as riots, and 23 as incidents of violence against civilians.¹⁵⁶⁵

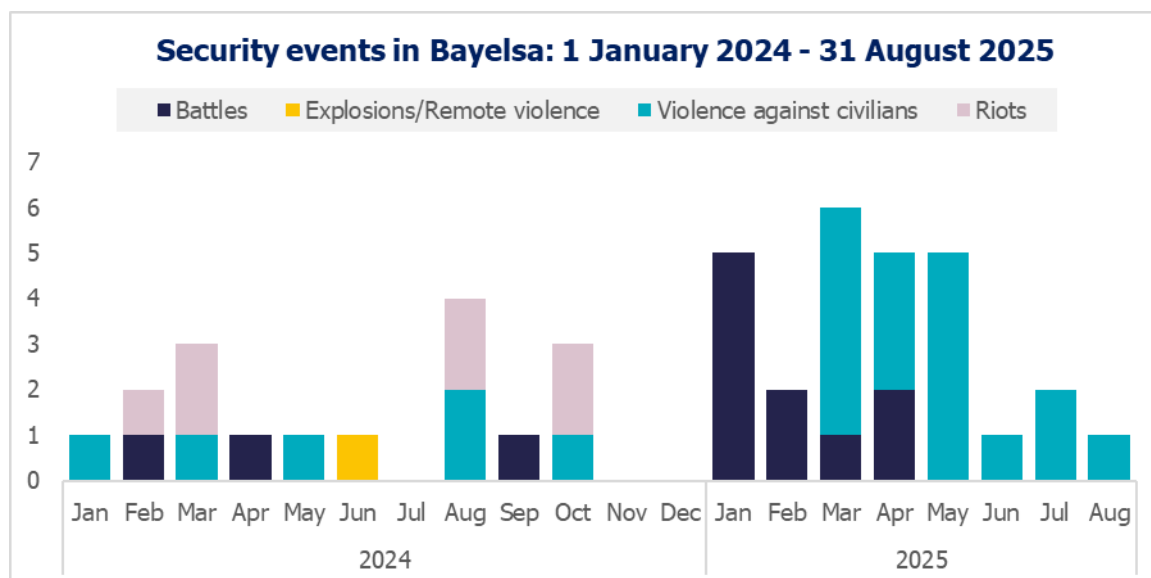

Figure 31: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Bayelsa state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁵⁶⁶

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 6 LGAs of the state. The by far highest number of incidents was recorded in Yenagoa LGA (29), followed by Southern Ijaw (8), Ogbia (3) and Ekeremor (2). No incidents were recorded in 2 LGAs. According to ACLED, unidentified cult militia, unidentified armed groups and pirates (coded as either ‘Actor 1’ or ‘Actor 2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹⁵⁶⁷

In early 2025, cult-related violence was a ‘major driver’ of insecurity in the state.¹⁵⁶⁸ In comparison, in 2024, Bayelsa was among the country’s five states with the lowest number of deaths (91), according to Nigeria Watch.¹⁵⁶⁹ Daily Trust noted that the violence was believed to have increased after the government’s decision at the end of 2024 to move all inter-state carparks to Igbogene, Yenagoa LGA, as the gangs were fighting over revenues generated from the new transport terminal. The source estimated that 15 people were killed in seven cult-related incidents in Yenagoa in the period from January to April 2025.¹⁵⁷⁰ The Guardian Nigeria reported in May 2025 of the killing of six people within a week, among them two graduates from Niger Delta University (NDU) who were attacked while heading out for shopping.¹⁵⁷¹ In some areas of the state, social activities were reportedly ‘paralyzed’, with people avoiding the streets and shop owners closing early for fear of being attacked.¹⁵⁷²

The Guardian Nigeria noted in May 2025 that in some parts of the capital Yenagoa, the violent conflict between rivalling cult groups continued ‘unabated’ and that after the killing of 15 people within a month, the police authorities ‘appeared helpless’ in the ongoing ‘cult war’. Residents in Swali community (Yenagoa LGA) reportedly blamed the authorities for failing to take ‘proactive actions’ against the attackers, and the community’s leader claimed that many of those detained by the police would return only a few days later and harass the residents.¹⁵⁷³

Similarly, a rights activist stated that police efforts were made difficult by ‘all sorts of calls from different angles’ that the police would receive when they arrested cultists, ‘pleading for their release’. He alleged links between the political class and cultists, noting that the cultists were sometimes ‘the same boys’ whom politicians would ‘use during elections’.¹⁵⁷⁴

In May 2025, the paramount ruler of Swali community was reportedly suspended by the Bayelsa state governor due to the escalation of cult-related killings and crime and over ‘credible intelligence’ that two of the traditional leader’s sons were involved in cult activities.¹⁵⁷⁵

2.5.3. Cross River

Cross River state is comprised of the following 18 LGAs: Abi, Akamkpa, Akpabuyo, Bakassi, Bekwarra, Biase, Boki, Calabar Municipality, Calabar South, Etung, Ikom, Obanliku, Obubra, Obudu, Odukpani, Ogoja, Yakurr, and Yala.¹⁵⁷⁶ The capital city is Calabar.¹⁵⁷⁷

The main ethnic groups include the Efik, Ejagham and Bekwarra.¹⁵⁷⁸

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 4 406 204 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁵⁷⁹

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

Communal conflicts over land were ‘prevalent’ in Cross River state in 2024,¹⁵⁸⁰ and a major driver of violence and insecurity during the reference period.¹⁵⁸¹ Another source of insecurity was cult/gang-related violence,¹⁵⁸² involving abductions,¹⁵⁸³ and killings.¹⁵⁸⁴ Sea pirates were also involved in abductions for ransom, targeting passengers travelling by boat between Cross River and Akwa Ibom states.¹⁵⁸⁵

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period between 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 45 security incidents in Cross River state, resulting in 56 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 17 were coded as battles, 11 as riots, and 17 as violence against civilians.¹⁵⁸⁶

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 10 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Calabar Municipality LGA (13), followed by Biase (7), and Akamkpa and Odukpani (6 each) LGAs. No security incidents were recorded in 8 LGAs. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups, communal militias and pirates (coded as either 'Actor 1' or 'Actor 2') were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹⁵⁸⁸

In the period from January to March 2025, the number of reported conflict incidents reportedly halved compared to 2024. However, the number of fatalities remained unchanged, according to PIND. These fatalities resulted mainly from inter- and intracommunal violence, particularly in Akamkpa and Odukpani LGAs, as well as from cult/gang-related violence.¹⁵⁸⁹ In October 2024, Ambazonia Freedom Fighters from Cameroon reportedly attacked communities in Akamkpa LGA,¹⁵⁹⁰ six fighters were later detained by the Cross River police command.¹⁵⁹¹

Lethal clashes were recorded between communities in Obubra and Ikom LGAs in 2024,¹⁵⁹² as well as within or between communities in Akamkpa,¹⁵⁹³ Odukpani¹⁵⁹⁴ and Biase¹⁵⁹⁵ LGAs in the first half of 2025. Moreover, inter-communal violence in the context of a land and boundary dispute between the Ukwia community (Odukpani LGA, Cross River) and the Isu community (Arochuckwu LGA, Abia) resulted in fatalities in May 2024,¹⁵⁹⁶ and January 2025.¹⁵⁹⁷

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - No information could be found during the reference period.

Road/waterway security - Punch noted in May 2025 that due to 'rampant' sea piracy and insecurity, travelling along the Oron-Calabar waterway between Akwa Ibom and Cross River states had become increasingly dangerous.¹⁵⁹⁸

Displacement, movement and return - According to UNHCR, there were 45 978 refugees from abroad residing in Cross River state as of 1 June 2025.¹⁵⁹⁹ As of the end of June 2025, Cross River state hosted more than 50 000 refugees, particularly from Cameroon, according to the State Governor quoted by Cross River State News.¹⁶⁰⁰ No information could be found on conflict-induced displacement or returns in Cross River state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Punch noted in May 2025 that pirates seemed to have taken full control of the Calabar-Oron waterway. Boat drivers reportedly complained about ongoing attacks and kidnappings despite

2.5.4. Delta

Delta state is comprised of the following 25 LGAs: Aniocha North, Aniocha South, Bomadi, Burutu, Ethiope East, Ethiope West, Ika North-East, Ika South, Isoko North, Isoko South, Ndokwa East, Ndokwa West, Okpe, Oshimili North, Oshimili South, Patani, Sapele, Udu, Ugheli North, Ugheli South, Ukwuani, Uvwie, Warri North, Warri South, and Warri South-West. The capital city is Asaba.¹⁶⁰³

The main ethnic groups are Urhobos, Ishekiri, Ijaw, Delta-Igbos.¹⁶⁰⁴

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 5 636 145 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁶⁰⁵

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

Communal tensions,¹⁶⁰⁶ criminal violence,¹⁶⁰⁷ and gang/cult-related violence were the main drivers of insecurity in Delta state during the reference period.¹⁶⁰⁸ Criminal activities included kidnapping,¹⁶⁰⁹ homicide,¹⁶¹⁰ robbery and clashes between security forces and 'bandits'.¹⁶¹¹

Sources reported of communal violence over land between communities in Ughelli South and Bomadi LGAs,¹⁶¹⁷ in Ughelli North and Ughelli South LGAs,¹⁶¹⁸ as well as between herders and farmers in Ika South LGA,¹⁶¹⁹ Ika North-East and Ughelli North LGAs,¹⁶²⁰ and – specifically involving Fulani herders – in Ethiope East¹⁶²¹ and Ethiope West¹⁶²² LGAs.

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 211 security incidents in Delta state, resulting in 217 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 103 were coded as battles, 2 as explosion/remote violence, 25 as riots, and 81 as violence against civilians.¹⁶²³

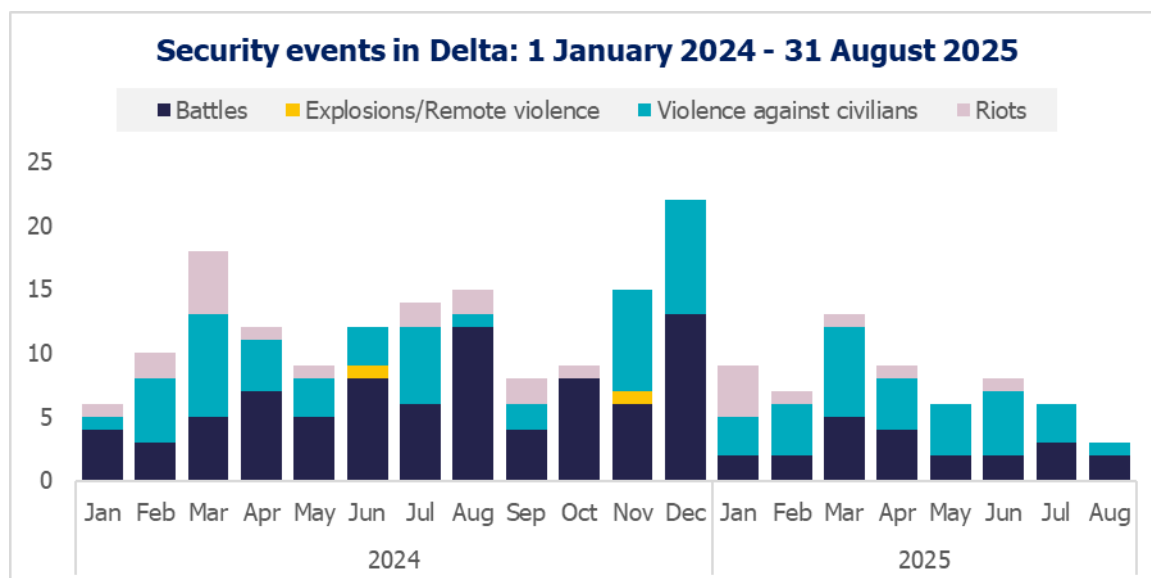

Figure 18: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Delta state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁶²⁴

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 24 LGAs of the state, with the highest number of security incidents documented in Ughelli North LGA (48), followed by Aniocha South (34), Oshimili North (13), Ndokwa West and Oshimili South (12 incidents each). No incidents were recorded in one LGA (Warri South-West). According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups and Fulani ethnic militia (coded as either ‘Actor 1’ or ‘Actor 2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹⁶²⁵

Delta State was among the states in the Niger Delta region with the highest rates of conflict-related fatalities in 2024,¹⁶²⁶ as well as in the first quarter of 2025, according to PIND.¹⁶²⁷ At local government level, the highest number of conflict-related fatalities was recorded in Ughelli North LGA in both 2024 and early 2025.¹⁶²⁸ In the second quarter of 2025, PIND recorded the highest number of fatalities in Ethiope East LGA.¹⁶²⁹

Security incidents during the reference period were, for example communal clashes over land in Bomadi LGA in March 2024. 16 soldiers on a peace mission were killed in the context of these clashes.¹⁶³⁰ The Okuama community was subsequently surrounded by soldiers who were said to have set some buildings on fire in response to the killings.¹⁶³¹ In August 2024, four persons were killed in separate incidents in Ughelli North LGA in clashes between Black

Displacement, movement and return - No information could be found during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Punch stated in June 2025 that over the previous three months there had been a ‘surge in violent crimes, including kidnappings and killings’ across the state, which continued ‘unabated’. In reaction to communities’ protests, a joint security operation was set up, including ‘police officers, local hunters, vigilantes, and anti-cult volunteers’. In the course of the operation, the security forces engaged in a gunfight with suspected kidnappers along the Abraka Railway, reportedly killing four suspects. In another community, women reportedly protested over the disappearance of at least 26 children in the area, claiming that these disappearances continued ‘without any clear leads or arrests’.¹⁶³⁵

2.5.5. Edo

Edo state is comprised of the following 18 LGAs: Akoko-Edo, Egor, Esan Central, Esan North-East, Esan South-East, Esan West, Etsako Central, Etsako East, Etsako West, Igueben, Ikpoba-Okha, Oredo, Orhionmwon, Ovia North-East, Ovia South-West, Owan East, Owan West and Uhunmwonde.¹⁶³⁶ The state’s capital is Benin city.¹⁶³⁷

The main ethnic groups include Binis, Okpe, Esan, Afemai, Ora, Akoko-Edo, Igbanke, Emai and Ijaw.¹⁶³⁸

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 4 777 042 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁶³⁹

In July 2025, the Nigerian Observer pointed to ‘rampant cultism and targeted kidnappings’ as major security challenges, particularly in Benin city, Ekpoma, Auchi and their surrounding areas.¹⁶⁴⁰ PIND mentioned criminal activities, including homicide, kidnapping for ransom, and communal violence as the main sources of insecurity in early 2025.¹⁶⁴¹ In the second quarter of 2025, PIND pointed to a decline in the number of reported fatalities, despite an increase in the number of security incidents. Criminal activities, cult-related clashes and communal conflict remained the main security challenges.¹⁶⁴² Criminal violence was also a ‘significant’ driver of insecurity in 2024, alongside cult/gang-related violence,¹⁶⁴³ while in terms of communal conflict, Edo was one of three states recording the lowest number of fatalities in 2024, according to Nigeria Watch.¹⁶⁴⁴

During the reference period, media sources reported on cult gang clashes involving the Black Axe,¹⁶⁴⁵ Eiye, Vikings,¹⁶⁴⁶ and Maphite¹⁶⁴⁷. Edo state, and particularly Benin city, was reportedly ‘notorious’ for lethal clashes between Black Axe and Viking confraternities.¹⁶⁴⁸ Another group operating in Edo state was the Buccaneer Confraternity.¹⁶⁴⁹ Clashes between rival cult groups were mostly driven by fights for supremacy in terms of territorial control.¹⁶⁵⁰

Communal violence included killings¹⁶⁵¹ and abductions by suspected herders,¹⁶⁵² mob violence,¹⁶⁵³ an attack by suspected Ijaw militias,¹⁶⁵⁴ and attacks by unidentified armed men.¹⁶⁵⁵

The Nigerian non-profit Policy and Advocacy Centre (PLAC) reported on pre-election violence ahead of the governorship elections in Edo state in September 2024, including shootings and assaults.¹⁶⁵⁶ In the same context, PIND mentioned the targeted abduction of political figures.¹⁶⁵⁷ Election Day, however, was ‘largely peaceful’.¹⁶⁵⁸

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period between 1 January 2024 and 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 237 security incidents in Edo state, resulting in 212 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 105 were coded as battles, 33 as riots and 99 as violence against civilians.¹⁶⁵⁹

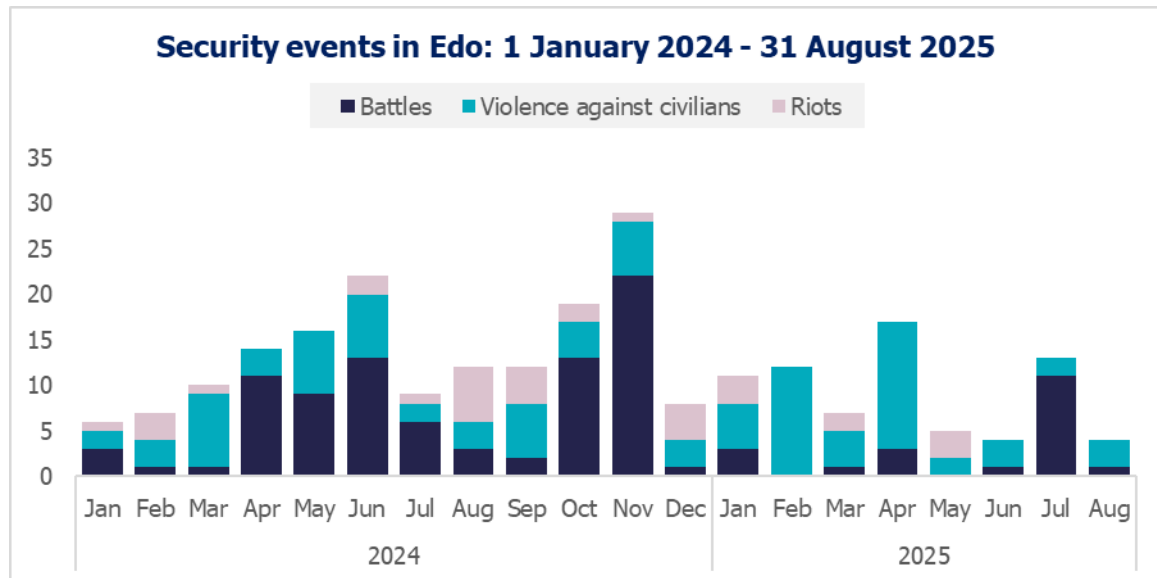

Figure 19: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Edo state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁶⁶⁰

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in all 18 LGAs of Edo state, with the highest number documented in Oredo LGA (71), followed by Etsako West (25), Ikpoba Okha (19), Ovia North-East (18), and Ovia South-West (15). According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups, cult militia and Fulani ethnic militia (coded as either ‘Actor 1’ or ‘Actor 2’) were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹⁶⁶¹

PIND recorded the highest number of conflict-related deaths in Oredo LGA in 2024,¹⁶⁶² and in the second quarter of 2025.¹⁶⁶³ In the first quarter of 2025, the highest number of conflict-related fatalities was recorded in Esan North-East LGA.¹⁶⁶⁴

Media reported of waves of cult-related violence and crime during the reference period.¹⁶⁶⁵ For example, 150 fatalities were recorded in the period January - May 2024, according to the governor of Edo state,¹⁶⁶⁶ 20 suspected members of rival cults were reportedly killed within a month in the period October-November 2024,¹⁶⁶⁷ and in the period March - April 2025, the Nigerian consulting company Nextier recorded 13 incidents of gunmen attacks,¹⁶⁶⁸ while the Nigerian Tribune reported of at least 15 people killed within four days during the same period in Benin city in fights for supremacy between Black Axe and Maphite cults.¹⁶⁶⁹

Attacks on farmers by unknown gunmen or suspected herders included, for example, the killing of a man on his farm in Ubune-Ivbiaro community/Owan East LGA in March 2024,¹⁶⁷⁰ and the killing of two men on their farms in Okpekpe community/Etsako East LGA in February 2025.¹⁶⁷¹ At least 22 people were reportedly killed in an attack by suspected Ijaw militias on seven farming communities in February 2025, while the state police confirmed seven killed and six injured. The attack reportedly occurred in retaliation for the previous killing of a suspected cocoa thief by vigilantes hired by the farmers.¹⁶⁷² In March 2025, seven travellers on their way from Rivers to Kano state for Islamic religious festivities were killed in a mob attack in Uromi.¹⁶⁷³ The travellers, Hausa hunters, had been stopped by local vigilantes who found several arms when searching their car and subsequently suspected them of being kidnappers and herders, triggering the attack.¹⁶⁷⁴

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - Media sources reported on conflict-related infrastructure damage in the context of communal violence such as the burning of houses, destruction of property, and crops.¹⁶⁷⁵ In March 2025 and based on a previously adopted law, authorities began with the demolition of houses presumably linked to kidnapping activities.¹⁶⁷⁶

Road security - The Nigerian Observer reported on several attacks on travellers along the Ivbiaro-Auchi route in Owan East LGA in May 2025, and quoted a village chief as saying that given the insecurity many locals were afraid to go to their farms.¹⁶⁷⁷ PIND mentioned targeted abductions of travellers ahead of the elections for state governor in September 2024.¹⁶⁷⁸

Displacement, movement and return - Residents were reportedly fleeing ‘en masse’ following violent clashes with suspected Ijaw militias that affected seven farming communities in Ovia South-West LGA in February 2025.¹⁶⁷⁹ No further information on conflict-induced displacement and no information on returns in Edo state during the reference period could be found.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Security experts and opposition members reportedly criticised the state government for its ‘lack of coordination’ in the context of a resurgence of cult-related violence and criminal activity, following contradicting information on the status of the Edo State Security Network (ESSN).¹⁶⁸⁰ The ESSN and other state-owned or private security networks had been suspended from participating in securing voters and election materials by the Inspector General of Police (IGP) ahead of the September 2024 gubernatorial elections.¹⁶⁸¹ The suspension was lifted by October/November 2024.¹⁶⁸² Two civil society organisations reportedly attributed the rise in crime to the ban of the ESSN,¹⁶⁸³ with a member of one organisation noting that there was an ‘insufficient’ number of police officers in relation to the state’s population.¹⁶⁸⁴

In January 2025, the Secret Cult and Similar Activities (Prohibition) Law was signed into law by the state governor. The new law foresees a 21-year prison term for ‘financial and material sponsors of secret cults’ and states that ‘[a]ny person found to be a cultist under Section 4, who assaults, injures, maims, or kills any person(s) or destroys any property in furtherance of the activities of any secret cult, is guilty of an offence and is liable to 21 years of imprisonment without an option of fine’. In case of a fatality, the law provided for the death penalty for the perpetrator(s) and the confiscation and demolition of their properties and place of residence by the state. Persons harbouring cult members face a 10-year prison term and the confiscation and demolition of their properties.¹⁶⁸⁵

PLAC pointed to an ‘alarming rise’ in attacks targeting police officers and military forces in the South-South zone in 2024,¹⁶⁸⁶ such as the killing of two police officers in Edo state in March 2024.¹⁶⁸⁷ A police station was set on fire in Etsako East LGA in October 2024 by youths who accused police of collaborating with suspected criminals.¹⁶⁸⁸ Similarly, communities in Etsako West LGA alleged in a protest letter to the IGP in April 2025, in the context of ongoing killings, kidnappings and rape, that police officers collaborated with suspected herders whom they accused of being responsible for the attacks.¹⁶⁸⁹ Punch described the mob killing of suspected herders in Uromi in March 2025 (see above) as ‘the symptom of a broken security and justice system’ in Nigeria.¹⁶⁹⁰ Following a second attack on a Catholic seminary in Etsako East LGA in July 2025, where a police officer was killed and three seminarians kidnapped, the Human Rights Writers Association of Nigeria (HURIWA) pointed to the state’s security forces’ ‘lack of capacity to protect the lives and property of the citizens’.¹⁶⁹¹

2.5.6. Rivers

Rivers state is comprised of the following 23 LGAs: Port Harcourt, Obio-Akpor, Okrika, Ogu–Bolo, Eleme, Tai, Gokana, Khana, Oyigbo, Opobo–Nkoro, Andoni, Bonny, Degema, Asari-Toru, Akuku-Toru, Abua–Oduval, Ahoada West, Ahoada East, Ogba–Egbema–Ndoni, Emohua, Ikwerre, Etche, Omuma. The capital city is Port Harcourt.¹⁶⁹²

The main ethnic groups include Ikwerre, Ibani, Opobo, Eleme, Okrika, and Kalabari, Etche, Ogba, Ogoni, Engenni and others.¹⁶⁹³

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 7 476 805 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁶⁹⁴

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

In the first six months of 2025, PIND identified criminal activities and clashes between rival cult gangs as major security challenges in Rivers state, with the highest number of conflict-related fatalities being recorded in Emohua LGA in the period from January to March 2025,¹⁶⁹⁵ and in Port Harcourt LGA in the period from April to June 2025.¹⁶⁹⁶ Similarly, in 2024, clashes between rival cult gangs, security forces and local vigilantes, kidnapping for ransom – especially in Port Harcourt, Ikwerre, Degema, Ogba-Egbema-Ndoni, and Ahoada West LGAs –, as well as vigilante and mob violence triggered by criminal activity and clashes between local vigilantes, cult gangs and ‘hoodlums’ constituted primary drivers of insecurity.¹⁶⁹⁷ Cult-related violence was predominantly caused by fights for supremacy over territory, levies collection and other criminal activities.¹⁶⁹⁸ In its report analysing the main drivers of crime and violence in the Niger Delta and covering the period from 2019 to 2024, the Nigerian Stakeholder Democracy Network (SDN) rated ‘cultism’ as overall ‘very high’ in Rivers state.¹⁶⁹⁹ Cult groups operating in Rivers state reportedly included the Deebam¹⁷⁰⁰ (also spelled Deygbam¹⁷⁰¹), Icelanders,¹⁷⁰² Vikings,¹⁷⁰³ the Klu-Klux-Klan,¹⁷⁰⁴ the Black Axe confraternity,¹⁷⁰⁵ and the Greenlanders,¹⁷⁰⁶ who predominantly operated around Owube Kingdom in Ahoada West LGA.¹⁷⁰⁷ Clashes between these groups were reported during the reference period, including between Deebam and Icelanders,¹⁷⁰⁸ Vikings and Icelanders,¹⁷⁰⁹ the Klu-Klux-Klan and Vikings,¹⁷¹⁰ and between Vikings and the Black Axe confraternity.¹⁷¹¹

Sources also reported of pirate attacks on boats travelling along sea routes and the abduction of passengers;¹⁷¹² pipeline vandalism,¹⁷¹³ and oil theft,¹⁷¹⁴ also involving children.¹⁷¹⁵

Following an outbreak of violence and attacks on oil infrastructure, the Nigerian president declared a state of emergency in Rivers state in March 2025, and suspended the state’s leadership and parliament for six months.¹⁷¹⁶ The move, which was criticised as ‘unconstitutional’,¹⁷¹⁷ constituted the culmination of an ongoing political crisis between state governor Fubara and his predecessor,¹⁷¹⁸ and according to one source, triggered ‘ethnic

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the Period 1 January 2024 - 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 141 security incidents in Rivers state, resulting in 111 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 42 were coded as battles, 28 as explosion/remote violence, 14 as riots, and 57 as violence against civilians.¹⁷²⁰

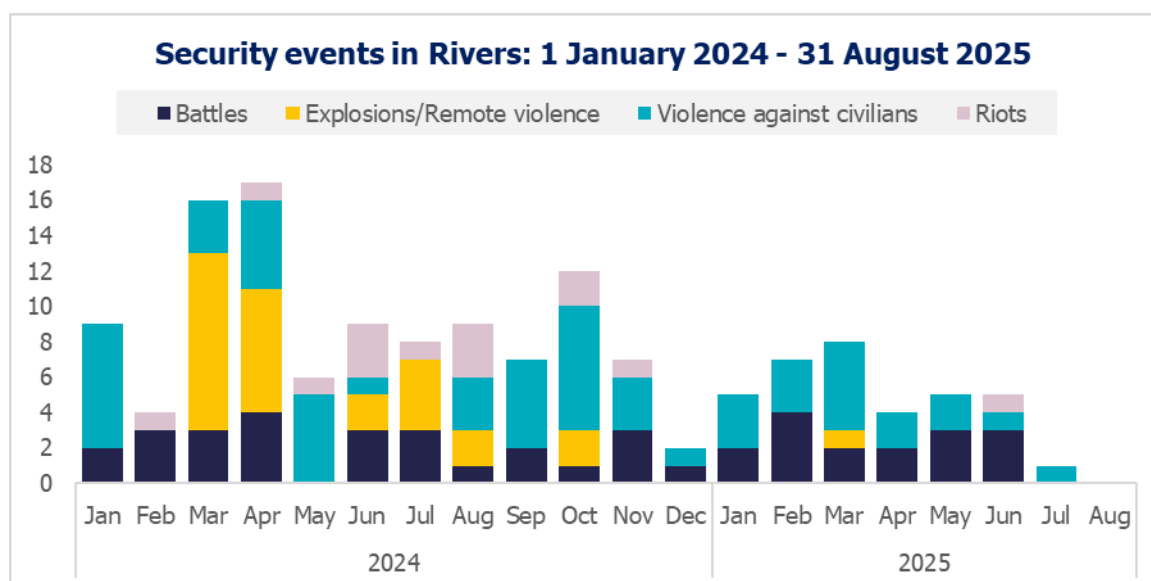

Figure 20: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Rivers state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁷²¹

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 19 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in the capital Port Harcourt (36 incidents), followed by Degema LGA (25), Obio (12), Emohua and Ikwerre LGAs (11 incidents each). No incidents were recorded in 4 LGAs. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups and cult militias, the Icelander cult group, and pirates (coded as either 'Actor 1' or 'Actor 2') were involved in the majority of incidents coded as violence against civilians.¹⁷²²

PIND noted that, overall, Rivers was one of three states in the Niger Delta region with the highest level of lethal violence in 2024.¹⁷²³ It recorded the fourth highest level within the region in the first quarter of 2025, with a slight increase compared to the last quarter of 2024,¹⁷²⁴ and the third highest level in the second quarter of 2025.¹⁷²⁵ According to Nigeria

Watch, Rivers was among the three most affected states in terms of cult-related fatalities and the fifth most affected state in terms of fatalities related to kidnappings in 2024.¹⁷²⁶

For example, at least 19 people were feared to have been killed in a battle for supremacy between Deebam and Icelanders cult groups in Obelle community in Emohua LGA in February 2025. According to the police quoted by Punch, 10 fatalities were confirmed, and the fight was over control of levies from an oil company in the region.¹⁷²⁷ Moreover, since the beginning of 2025, the Nigerian Foundation for Investigative Journalism (FIJ) reported of three incidents of sea pirates abducting at least 28 passengers from boats travelling on waterways in Rivers state.¹⁷²⁸

Conflict-related infrastructure damage and road security - No information could be found during the reference period.

Displacement, movement and return - No information could be found during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

In the context of attacks by sea pirates on passenger boats, the FIJ reported that several abducted passengers could be rescued by security forces. Nevertheless, the 'maritime police lacked funding and equipment' to secure the state's waterways, according to the chairman of the Maritime Workers Union quoted by the FIJ.¹⁷²⁹

In January 2024, the Nigerian navy reportedly launched Operation Delta Sanity to fight oil theft in the Niger Delta Region and extended it in April and July 2024.¹⁷³⁰ A second phase of the operation was launched on 30 December 2024.¹⁷³¹ In December 2024, the state government declared that it had donated six gunboats to the Nigerian navy to improve waterway patrols and response times.¹⁷³² Operations against oil theft,¹⁷³³ vandalism,¹⁷³⁴ and illegal refineries continued to be reported in 2025.¹⁷³⁵

Vanguard reported on a case of oil theft executed with the complicity of two officers of the NSCDC.¹⁷³⁶ Four soldiers and an NSCDC member were arrested in May 2024 on suspected involvement in armed robbery, the hijacking of food trucks and diversion of these goods.¹⁷³⁷

On the other hand, sources reported of lethal attacks on security personnel¹⁷³⁸ and suspected police informants.¹⁷³⁹ One official stated that the police was ‘doing their best’, but that it was ‘not enough’. Cult members had sophisticated arms, while a local security outfit had only hunting guns.¹⁷⁴⁰

2.6. South-West

The South-West consists of the following six states: Ekiti, Ogun, Ondo, Osun, Oyo, and Lagos.¹⁷⁴¹

For an overview of the main conflict drivers at the country and regional levels, see 1. General description of the security situation.

2.6.1. Ekiti

Ekiti state is comprised of the following 15 LGAs: Ado, Efon, Ekiti East, Ekiti South-West, Ekiti West, Emure, Gbonyin (also Ayekire), Ido Osi, Ijero, Ikere, Ikole, Ilejemeje, Irepodun/Ifelodun, Ise/Orun, Moba and Oye.¹⁷⁴² The capital city is Ado-Ekiti.¹⁷⁴³

The main ethnic group in Ekiti state are the Ekiti, a Yoruba subgroup. Other groups include minorities of the Akoko Yoruba subgroup.¹⁷⁴⁴

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population at 3 592 163 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁷⁴⁵

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

The Kimpact Development Initiative (KDI), a Nigerian NGO with a focus on good governance and democratic development, noted in a report of February 2025 that in the period from 2011 to 2024, Ekiti ranked among the country’s five safest states and that the South-West remained ‘relatively stable’ despite ‘pockets of violence’.¹⁷⁴⁶

In September 2024, the state government reportedly condemned a ‘wave of kidnappings’ that had resurfaced, although the state had enjoyed ‘relative peace’ until then, according to a state

In terms of cult activities, media sources described incidents involving the following cult groups: the Supreme Eiye Confraternity, the Black Axe,¹⁷⁵⁵ and the Buccaneer Confraternity.¹⁷⁵⁶

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period 1 January 2024 - 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 30 security incidents in Ekiti state, resulting in 16 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 10 were coded as battles, 3 as riots, and 17 incidents were coded as violence against civilians.¹⁷⁵⁷

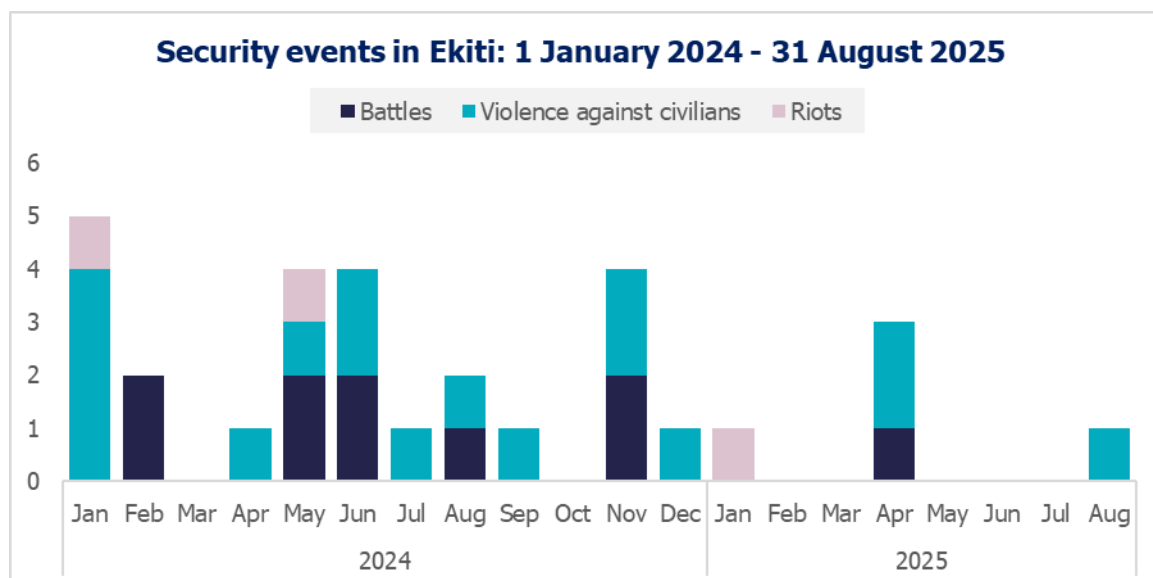

Figure 21: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Ekiti state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁷⁵⁸

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 10 LGAs of the state, with the highest number recorded in the capital city Ado Ekiti (12 incidents), followed by Ikere (5 incidents), Emure (4 incidents), and Ilejemeje LGAs (3). No security incidents were recorded in five LGAs. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups (coded as either ‘Actor 1’ or ‘Actor 2’) were involved in 14 of the 17 security incidents coded as violence against civilians, the majority of them abductions and killings.¹⁷⁵⁹

For example, in January 2024, unknown gunmen abducted six pupils, three teachers and the driver of a school bus travelling in Emure LGA.¹⁷⁶⁰ On the same day in a separate incident, two traditional rulers were killed by unknown attackers while they were travelling along the Oke-Ako-Ipao Ekiti-Aiyedun road in Ikole LGA.¹⁷⁶¹ The abducted children and teachers were released a few days later; the driver, however, was killed by the kidnappers.¹⁷⁶² The gang had reportedly established a hideout in the forest between Ise and Emure LGAs.¹⁷⁶³ Other sources also reported about suspected criminals hiding in forests in¹⁷⁶⁴ and across border regions,¹⁷⁶⁵ including along major roads.¹⁷⁶⁶

c) State response in maintaining law and order

In mid-February 2024, the police arrested several members of a kidnapping gang, including vigilante members, involved in the abduction of a school bus in Emure LGA.¹⁷⁶⁷ In September 2024, Punch reported of a meeting between special advisors on security from Ekiti and neighbouring states to tackle an increase in ‘cross-border insecurity’ and ‘inter-border crimes’ where suspected perpetrators moved to neighbouring states to evade prosecution.¹⁷⁶⁸ In January 2025, the police commissioner of Ekiti state noted that border security was strengthened to curb the ‘influx of bandits’.¹⁷⁶⁹ ‘Bush combing operations’ in coordination with neighbouring states targeting suspected criminals hiding in the state’s forests were also reported in April 2025.¹⁷⁷⁰ A special security agency tasked with securing farmland and forests, the so-called the Agro Marshalls (ESAM), had already been established by the Ekiti state government in April 2024.¹⁷⁷¹ As of May 2025, crime rates had decreased across the state, according to the state’s governor, although there still was insufficient security coverage in the rural areas.¹⁷⁷² To ensure security especially at grassroot level, more than 400 additional members were recruited into the state’s security network of Amotekun,¹⁷⁷³ Agro-Marshall and Grazing Marshall Corps in July 2025.¹⁷⁷⁴

2.6.2. Ogun

Ogun state is comprised of the following 21 LGAs: Abeokuta North, Abeokuta South, Ado-Odo/Ota, Ewekoro, Ifo, Ijebu East, Ijebu North, Ijebu North-East, Ijebu Igbo, Ijebu Ode, Ikenne, Imeko Afon, Ipokia, Obafemi Owode, Odogbolu, Odeda, Ogun Waterside, Remo North, Sagamu, Yewa North and Yewa South. The capital city is Abeokuta.¹⁷⁷⁵

The main ethnic groups are the Egba, the Ijebu, the Remo, the Egbado, the Awori and the Egun.¹⁷⁷⁶

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

In mid-January 2024, the Guardian Nigeria mentioned cult violence, kidnapping, armed robbery and ritual killings as sources of insecurity in Ogun state. Cult-related attacks appeared to occur predominantly in Abeokuta North, Abeokuta South, Sagamu, Ikenne and Odogbolu.¹⁷⁷⁸ Punch described Ogun state as being ‘under a security siege’, with kidnappings, ritual killings, armed robbery, violent Fulani herdsman, criminal activities, and cultism as the main challenges.¹⁷⁷⁹ PLAC described several incidents of abductions and killings by unknown gunmen during 2024.¹⁷⁸⁰ Vanguard pointed to at least 47 kidnappings in the period from January to August 2024,¹⁷⁸¹ and to killings by unknown gunmen in early 2025.¹⁷⁸²

Cult-related violence was recorded during the reference period, involving rival cult groups such as the Black Axe (Aye), the Supreme Eiyé Confraternity,¹⁷⁸³ and the Buccaneer Confraternity.¹⁷⁸⁴ In a report of July 2025, the research consultancy SBM Intelligence listed Ogun as a ‘high density state’ in terms of cult/gang-related violence, with 78 incidents recorded in the period from January 2020 to March 2025.¹⁷⁸⁵

As of November 2024, ritual killings in Ogun state occurred at ‘alarming rates’, mainly targeting women and girls, according to the Nigerian news site THISDAY. The source further explained that rituals killings were often based on the belief that the perpetrators would get rich quickly through rituals involving human sacrifices.¹⁷⁸⁶

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period 1 January 2024 - 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 140 security incidents in Ogun state, resulting in 110 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 64 were coded as battles, 20 as riots, and 56 incidents were coded as violence against civilians.¹⁷⁸⁷

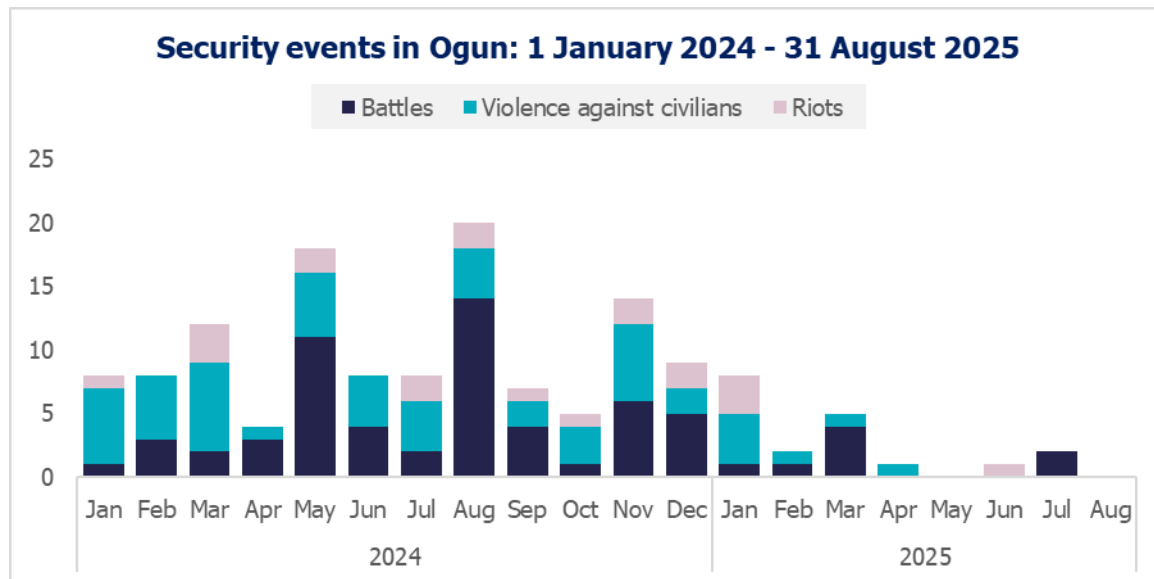

Figure 22: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Ogun state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁷⁸⁸

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 18 LGAs of the state, with the highest number documented in Abeokuta South LGA (27), followed by Ado-Odo LGA (19), Obafemi (15) and Odeda (10), Abeokuta North and Sagamu LGAs (9 incidents each). No incidents were recorded in three LGAs. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups and unidentified cult militias (coded either as ‘Actor 1’ or ‘Actor 2’) were involved in the majority of security incidents coded as violence against civilians, mainly in the context of abductions and killings.¹⁷⁸⁹

For example, in April 2024, a lecturer at Babcock University Ilishan, was killed by eight gunmen in an event centre in Ipero Remo (Ilkenne LGA), reportedly for refusing to go with them, while two other persons were abducted by the gunmen.¹⁷⁹⁰ A security guard at the centre suspected of being involved in the incident was later arrested.¹⁷⁹¹ In another example, in August 2024, a Point of Sale (POS) operator, and son of the Baale (a traditional ruler) of Kuto, was reportedly killed by suspected cultists in Kuto, Abeokuta LGA.¹⁷⁹² In the period from January to June 2024, at least 24 people were killed in clashes between rival cult groups in Ogun state, according to Punch. Most of the clashes occurred between the Aiye and Black Axe (Eye) confraternities. In some clashes, members of the Buccaneer cult group were involved.¹⁷⁹³

Conflict-related infrastructure damage – No information could be found during the reference period.

Road security - Sources pointed to kidnappings in certain areas across the state such as the Wasinmi road, the Lafenwa-Ayetoro-Imeko road, and the Lagos-Ibadan Expressway,¹⁷⁹⁴ and armed robberies on the 'Long Bridge', the Sagamu-Benin Expressway and the Papalanto highway.¹⁷⁹⁵ Three persons were kidnapped (and later rescued) on the Sagamu-Ijebu Ode Expressway, where the attackers reportedly blocked the road with a truck.¹⁷⁹⁶

Displacement, movement and return - No information could be found during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Measures taken by the police to address security challenges reportedly included additional patrols along 'identified hotspots' of kidnappings, the use of surveillance drones,¹⁷⁹⁷ joint patrols of Ogun and Lagos state police along the Lagos-Ibadan Expressway,¹⁷⁹⁸ intelligence sharing with Oyo state on the activities of suspected criminals ('bandits') along the border area,¹⁷⁹⁹ and the recruitment of additional personnel for the Amotekun state security network.¹⁸⁰⁰ Several media sources reported of successful police operations targeting suspected kidnappers and criminals,¹⁸⁰¹ also in collaboration with community vigilantes.¹⁸⁰²

PLAC reported on several incidents of police misconduct, including gender-based violence, in 2024. In July, the operator of a betting shop was reportedly shot dead by a police officer who, according to an eye witness, was drunk.¹⁸⁰³ The media company Nigerian NewsDirect pointed to allegations of police involvement in cult groups in Ibaragun following fights between the Eiye Confraternity and the Black Axe cult groups over control of recruitment in the community.¹⁸⁰⁴ Following a series of armed robbery attacks, students of the Abeokuta Federal University announced in July 2025 that they would set up night patrols, noting that the police in the area was understaffed.¹⁸⁰⁵

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population of Ondo state at 5 316 603 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁸⁰⁹ Ondo state is part of the Niger Delta region.¹⁸¹⁰

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

Main security issues reported during the reference include communal conflict and criminal activities,¹⁸¹¹ especially kidnapping for ransom.¹⁸¹²

The Nigerian civil society organisation Yiaga Africa recorded communal clashes in several LGAs ahead of the November 2024 gubernatorial elections, including clashes over a boundary between Ode-Irele (Irele LGA) and Igbobini (Ese-Ode LGA) communities, as well as between communities in Akoko South-West, Ifedore, Ondo East and Ose LGAs.¹⁸¹³ During the reference period, a surge in kidnappings was reported by the media,¹⁸¹⁴ with such incidents reportedly occurring regularly.¹⁸¹⁵ The Daily Trust similarly pointed to ‘frequent’ incidents of kidnapping by armed criminals (‘bandits’) and noted that there had been numerous incidents of kidnappings and killings since November 2024, including the killing of victims who were unable to secure the requested ransom.¹⁸¹⁶ In November 2024, Yiaga Africa observed that kidnapping for ransom had become ‘a trend’ in Ose LGA.¹⁸¹⁷ Nextier recorded 29 kidnapping victims in Ondo state in 2024. In contrast to other parts of Nigeria, in the South-West kidnapping mainly took the form of kidnapping for ransom and rituals.¹⁸¹⁸

Several sources reported about lethal attacks on farmers by suspected (Fulani) herders in the reference period,¹⁸¹⁹ and about an increase in violent farmer-herder conflicts as of early 2025.¹⁸²⁰ Attacks occurred in the context of conflicts over land and resources between local farmers and herders migrating from the north in search of grazing land and water for their cattle.¹⁸²¹

Some sources reported on incidents of cult-related violence in Ondo state.¹⁸²² Cult groups explicitly mentioned were the Eiye,¹⁸²³ Black Axe and Ku Klux Klan confraternities.¹⁸²⁴

In terms of election-related violence, the Center for Democracy and Development (CDD) and Yiaga Africa pointed to some violent incidents in the context of the November 2024 Ondo state gubernatorial elections,¹⁸²⁵ including the killing of a campaign manager of state governor Aiyedatiwa in April 2024.¹⁸²⁶ However, the CDD noted that only 'a little' of the projected disruption eventually materialised and that the electoral process in general was peaceful.¹⁸²⁷

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period 1 January 2024 - 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 89 security incidents in Ondo state, resulting in 72 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 15 were coded as battles, 16 as riots, and 58 incidents were coded as violence against civilians.¹⁸²⁸

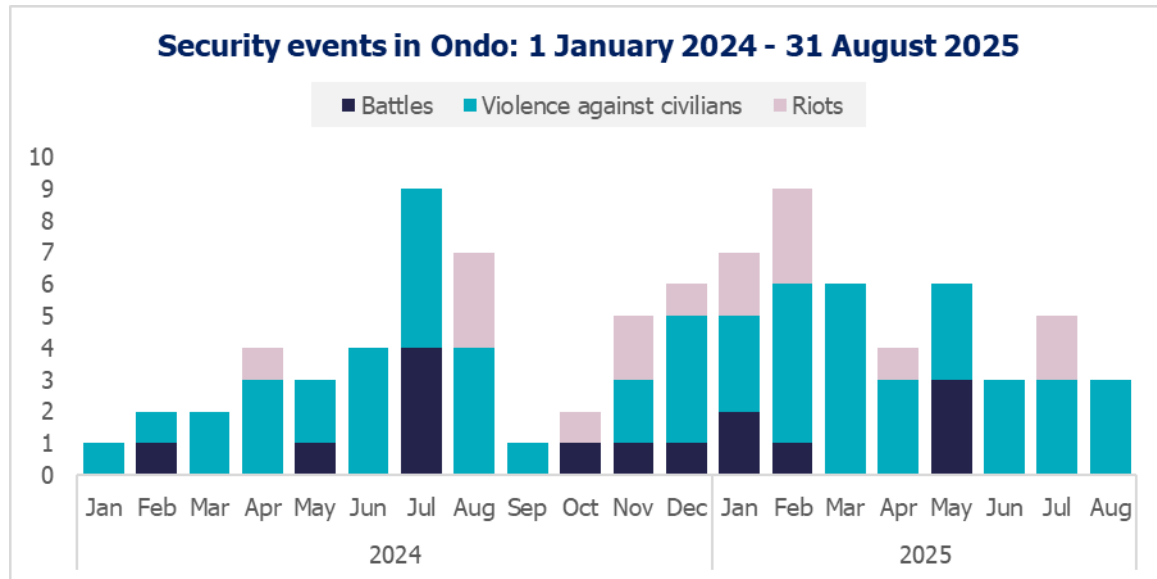

Figure 23: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Ondo state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁸²⁹

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 15 LGAs of the state, with the highest numbers recorded in Akure North LGA (18), followed by Akoko South-West (14), Akure South (12), Owo (11), and Akoko North-East LGAs (7 Incidents). No incidents were recorded in three LGAs. According to ACLED, unidentified armed groups and Fulani ethnic militia (coded as either ‘Actor 1’ or ‘Actor 2’) were involved in the majority of security incidents coded as violence against civilians, mainly in the context of abductions for ransom and killings.¹⁸³⁰

PIND observed a sharp increase in lethal violence in early 2025 compared to the preceding quarter, mainly due to communal conflict and criminal activities, in particular abductions for ransom. In the period from January to March 2025, Akure North LGA recorded the highest number of conflict-related deaths.¹⁸³¹ Lethal violence declined ‘significantly’ in the second quarter of 2025, according to PIND, with the highest number of fatalities recorded in Ondo West LGA during that period.¹⁸³² In May 2025, the local chairman of the All Progressive Congress (APC) in Ifon, Ose LGA, was reportedly kidnapped at his residence and later killed by the kidnappers despite receiving part of the demanded ransom.¹⁸³³ In March 2025, nine surveyors were abducted by armed gunmen while working on site in Akure North LGA. The kidnappers reportedly demanded a ransom of 100 million Naira [EUR 56 553¹⁸³⁴] and later reduced it to 50 million Naira [EUR 28 277].¹⁸³⁵ The victims were released a week later after the payment of 20 million Naira [EUR 11 311].¹⁸³⁶

On 8 March 2025, at least 14 people were killed in a nightly attack by suspected herders on four communities in Akure North LGA, reportedly in retaliation for the killing of more than 100 cows, which the attackers apparently attributed to the local communities.¹⁸³⁷ Attacks by suspected herders reportedly also included arson attacks,¹⁸³⁸ and the destruction of crops.¹⁸³⁹

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - No further information, other than the aforementioned incidents, could be found during the reference period.

Road security - Daily Trust noted in May 2025 that the security situation was deteriorating particularly along highways and in rural communities. One resident particularly warned against using the Owo-Akoko road at night.¹⁸⁴⁰ Castor Vali mentioned several 'hotspots', including the 'Lokoja–Makurdi–Lafia route, the Warri–Sagamu road, the Ondo–Benin City road, and the corridor between Ibadan and Oyo', as several incidents had been recorded along all of these routes in the first quarter of 2025.¹⁸⁴¹ THISDAY noted that kidnappers were operating in the area near Akure Airport.¹⁸⁴² Vanguard pointed to the Owo-Ose highway, a 'notorious' kidnapping route.¹⁸⁴³

Displacement, movement and return - Many farmers were reportedly abandoning their farms due to ongoing kidnappings,¹⁸⁴⁴ and attacks by suspected herdsman.¹⁸⁴⁵ As of August 2025, no further information could be found on conflict-induced displacement and no information could be found on returns in Ondo state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

SBM Intelligence pointed to rising social unrest across the country with affected communities protesting against violent attacks by suspected Fulani herders, including in Ondo state,¹⁸⁴⁶ where at least three protests with street blockades took place in early 2025.¹⁸⁴⁷

National media noted in March 2025 that kidnapping cases were 'spiraling out of control',¹⁸⁴⁸ and that Ondo state, a former 'haven of peace', had turned into a 'hotbed of fear' with perpetrators often acting 'with impunity', despite police efforts.¹⁸⁴⁹ In response to the rising crime rates, the government reportedly created a security joint task force in March 2025 that included army, police, Nigeria Security & Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) and Amotekun forces.¹⁸⁵⁰ Previously, a specialised Amotekun unit was reportedly created and deployed to newly established control points along the border,¹⁸⁵¹ following appeals by border communities to the authorities and security forces to increase surveillance especially in the border regions with Edo, Ekiti, and Kogi states.¹⁸⁵² Ondo state's Amotekun commander noted that other measures taken to tackle the farmer-herder conflict included talks to herders and farmers to inform about each group's limitations, as well as the implementation of the anti-open-grazing law.¹⁸⁵³ The Amotekun commander and police officials pointed to uncontrolled immigration and the forces' insufficient equipment as major security challenges.¹⁸⁵⁴

2.6.4. Osun

Osun state is comprised of the following 30 LGAs: Ayedaade, Ayedire, Atakunmosa East, Atakunmosa West, Boluwaduro, Boriye, Ede North, Ede South, Egbedore, Ejigbo, Ife Central, Ife East, Ife North, Ife South, Ifedayo, Ifelodun, Ila, Ilesa East, Ilesa West, Irepodun, Irewole, Isokan, Iwo, Obokun, Odo Otin, Ola Oluwa, Olorunda, Oriade, Orolu and Osogbo. The capital city is Osogbo.¹⁸⁵⁵

Most people are Yoruba; composed of Osun, Ifes, Ijesas and Igbominas.¹⁸⁵⁶

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population of Osun state at 4 435 803 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁸⁵⁷

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

A surge in gang-related criminality was reported among the main security issues in Osun state during the reference period.¹⁸⁵⁸

In March 2025, the Daily Post reported on growing insecurity and a rise in criminal activities in communities along the border with neighbouring Ondo. The source noted that kidnappings and violent attacks in Ondo state had triggered fears that criminals would use the cross-border forests to expand their activities into Osun state,¹⁸⁵⁹ a state with the reputation of one of the 'most peaceful states', according to a state official.¹⁸⁶⁰

Several media sources mentioned incidents of lethal clashes between cult groups operating in Osun state, including the Eiye,¹⁸⁶¹ Buccaneers,¹⁸⁶² and Black Axe (Aye)¹⁸⁶³ confraternities.

Reports on communal violence during the reference period included land disputes between Ifon and Ilobu communities,¹⁸⁶⁴ and Ede and Egbedi communities,¹⁸⁶⁵ a land and chieftaincy dispute between Esa-Oke and Ido-Aiyegunle communities,¹⁸⁶⁶ and a state border dispute between communities in Lagelu (Oyo state) and Iwo (Osun state) LGAs.¹⁸⁶⁷

A political dispute over control of the state's 30 LGAs escalated in February 2025, when at least six people were killed in clashes between supporters of the APC and the People's Democratic Party (PDP) (see below).¹⁸⁶⁸

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 68 security incidents in Osun state, resulting in 44 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 26 were coded as battles, 18 as riots, and 24 incidents were coded as violence against civilians.¹⁸⁶⁹

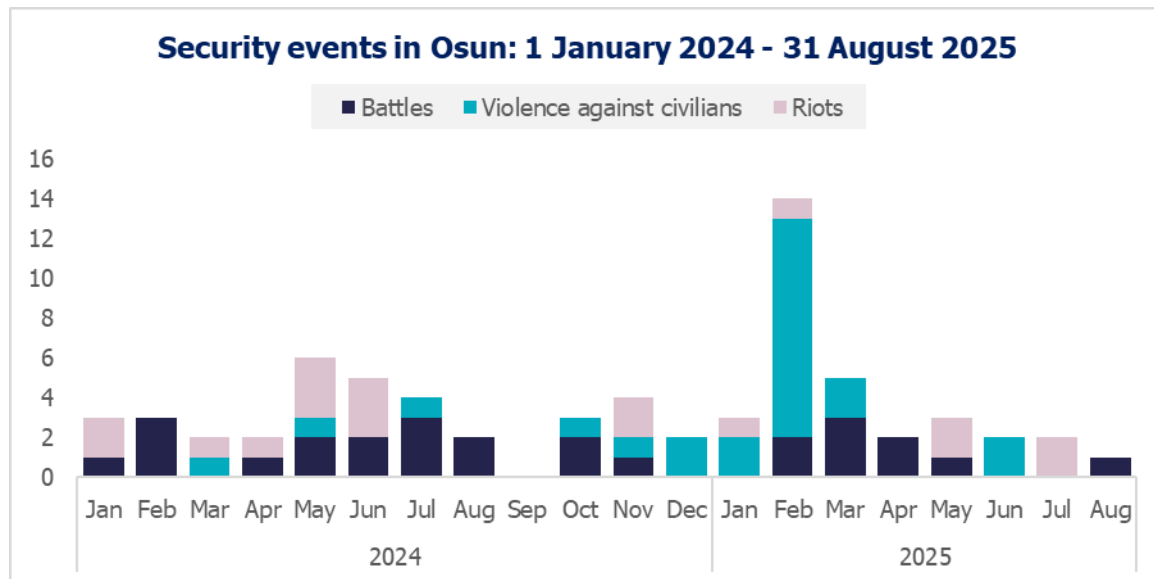

Figure 24: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Osun state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁸⁷⁰

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 23 LGAs of the state, with the highest numbers documented in Osogbo LGA (10 incidents), Boripe LGA (7) and Egbedore, Ife Central, Ilesa East, Obokun and Orolu LGAs, each of which recorded 4 security incidents in the reference period. No incidents were recorded in seven LGAs. The All Progressive Congress (APC), unidentified armed groups and communal militias (coded as either ‘Actor 1’ or ‘Actor 2’) were involved in the majority of security incidents coded as violence against civilians. Incidents recorded as violence against civilians peaked in February 2025, with 11 such incidents recorded across the state, most of them in the context of clashes between APC and PDP supporters on 17 February.¹⁸⁷¹

These clashes were reportedly triggered by attempts of previously dismissed APC chairpersons and councillors to retake their positions based on a disputed Court of Appeal ruling.¹⁸⁷² According to Punch, the APC officials had been elected in the 2022 LGA elections, which were challenged in court by some opposition parties, among them the PDP.¹⁸⁷³ Following the court’s nullification of the elections,¹⁸⁷⁴ the elected APC officials were dismissed and replaced with ‘caretaker committees’ by the state governor, a PDP candidate. New LGA elections were scheduled for 22 February 2025.¹⁸⁷⁵

SBM noted that two states, including Osun and Kwara (North-Central region), had ‘unexpected spikes in gang fatalities’, with 55 deaths in the period from 2020 to the first quarter of 2025, possibly because of gang members from neighbouring states expanding their operations into Osun.¹⁸⁷⁶

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - The FIJ pointed to the destruction of power infrastructure in the context of violent communal clashes between Ifon, Ilobu and Erin-Osu communities. Weeks later, parts of the affected communities reportedly still remained without electricity due to the damage.¹⁸⁷⁷ Other infrastructure destroyed in communal clashes included a primary health care centre,¹⁸⁷⁸ houses and other property.¹⁸⁷⁹

Road security - In November 2024, the police reportedly arrested a gang of suspected armed robbers who operated along the Ilesa-Osu Expressway.¹⁸⁸⁰ In one such incident in September 2024, a bus driver was shot and a female passenger raped.¹⁸⁸¹

Displacement, movement and return - In March 2025, Punch reported on the displacement of residents affected by the violent clashes between Ilobu and Ifon communities. According to the head of the Ilobu-Asake Development Union quoted by Punch, more than 100 000 persons had been displaced due to the communal violence.¹⁸⁸² No further information could be found on conflict-induced displacement and no information could be found on returns in Osun state during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Local media sources reported on several arrests made by the police during the reference period, including of a gang of armed robbers,¹⁸⁸³ and suspects involved in kidnapping,¹⁸⁸⁴ cult-related murder, vandalism, illegal arm possession,¹⁸⁸⁵ cultism and car theft.¹⁸⁸⁶ Vanguard mentioned a joint operation of police and local hunters in the capital Osogobo.¹⁸⁸⁷ Ten suspected Boko Haram/ISWAP members were arrested in Ilesa-East LGA in December 2024.¹⁸⁸⁸

The Nigerian media outlet the Nation pointed in July 2024 to successes by Amotekun forces (please see section 1.1.2) but also quoted the group's commander saying that the forces were 'overstretched' and lacked personnel.¹⁸⁸⁹ As of January 2025, 320 men were operating across the state,¹⁸⁹⁰ an additional 1 150 personnel was recruited as of March 2025. 2.6.5. Oyo

Oyo state is comprised of the following 33 LGAs: Afijio, Akinyele, Atiba, Atisbo, Egbeda, Ibadan North, Ibadan North-East, Ibadan North-West, Ibadan South-East, Ibadan South-West, Ibarapa Central, Ibarapa East, Ibarapa North, Ido, Irepo, Iseyin, Itesiwaju, Iwajowa, Kajola, Lagelu, Ogbomoso North, Ogbomoso South, Ogo Oluwa, Olorunsogo, Oluyole, Ona Ara, Orelope, Oriire, Oyo East, Oyo West, Saki East, Saki West and Surulere.¹⁸⁹² The capital city is Ibadan.¹⁸⁹³

The population is predominantly Yoruba, and may be divided into five large sub-ethnic groups with distinct dialects: Ibadans, Ibarapas, Oyos, Oke-Oguns and Ogbomosos.¹⁸⁹⁴

UNFPA and the US Census Bureau projected the population of Oyo state at 7 976 081 in 2022, based on figures from the 2006 census.¹⁸⁹⁵

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

In July 2025, Vanguard quoted an official saying that although there was ‘relative peace’ in Oyo state in comparison with other states, banditry and kidnapping were still prevalent in some parts of the state. Security threats were particularly prominent in the state’s ‘vast hinterlands’, mainly due to the ‘influx of bandits’.¹⁸⁹⁶ THISDAY quoted another official speaking in February 2025 about a ‘tide of banditry and criminality’ in some parts of the state, including parts of Oyo Township, Ogbomoso, Oke-Ogun, Ibarapa, and Ibadan.¹⁸⁹⁷

National media reported on incidents involving unidentified armed men during the reference period, mostly in cases of kidnapping,¹⁸⁹⁸ often from the victims’ homes.¹⁸⁹⁹

In December 2024, the Oyo Police Commissioner pointed to an increase in cultism and related criminal activities, motivated by fights for supremacy, particularly in the Ibadan areas of Apete, Abayomi (the Iwo Road axis), Ijokodo, Moniya, Monatan, Ojoo, Samonda, and Sango.¹⁹⁰⁰

Nigerian Tribune reported in June 2025 that the Black Axe (Aye) ‘frequently unleashed terror’ on residents in Saki town and other Oke Ogun areas.¹⁹⁰¹ FIJ wrote about a cult-related attack inside university premises in Ogbomoso town (Ogbomoso North LGA).¹⁹⁰² The main cult groups mentioned as operating in Oyo state were the Black Axe and the Eiye cult groups.¹⁹⁰³

National media also reported on incidents of killings in the context of so-called money rituals.¹⁹⁰⁴ These are rituals where people are killed, or body parts used in the belief that such rituals will bring wealth to the perpetrators.¹⁹⁰⁵

A secessionist group active in Oyo state reportedly was the Yoruba Nation.¹⁹⁰⁶ Some sources mentioned an attempted takeover of government buildings in Ibadan by Yoruba Nation agitators in April 2024.¹⁹⁰⁷

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 66 security incidents in Oyo state, resulting in 54 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 31 were coded as battles (most of them between Black Axe and Eiye cult groups), 10 as riots, and 25 incidents were coded as violence against civilians.¹⁹⁰⁸

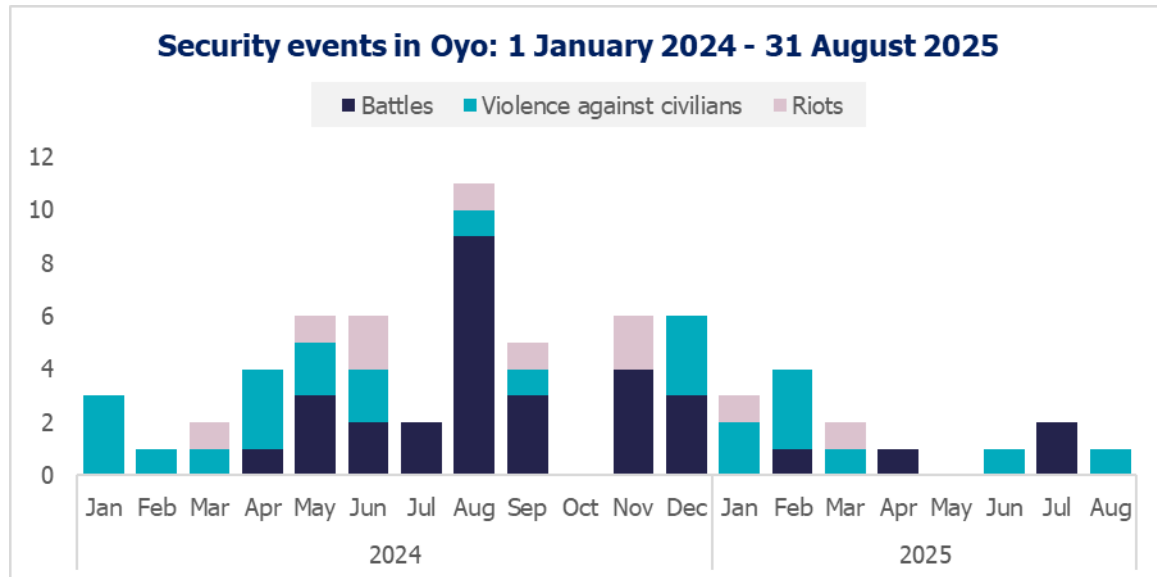

Figure 40: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Oyo state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁹⁰⁹

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in 23 LGAs of the state, with the highest numbers documented in Akinyele LGA (11 incidents), followed by Ibadan North-West LGA (8 incidents), Ibadan North and Egbeda LGAs (6 incidents each), and Lagelu and Ogbomosho North LGAs (4 incidents each). No incidents were recorded in ten LGAs. Unidentified armed groups (coded as either ‘Actor 1’ or ‘Actor 2’) were involved in the majority of cases coded as violence against civilians.¹⁹¹⁰

For example, Benedikt Akika, a chieftain of the PDP in Oyo state was abducted by unknown gunmen who forcefully entered his residence in Lagelu LGA in September 2024.¹⁹¹¹ He was reportedly freed some days later following a large-scale police search that also included cross-border forests with neighbouring Ogun, Ondo and Edo states.¹⁹¹² A suspected member of the Eiye confraternity was reportedly killed by the rival Black Axe cult group on 7 July 2025, allegedly in the context of the latter group’s so-called 7 7 Day celebrations,¹⁹¹³ which marked the foundation date of the cult group.¹⁹¹⁴

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - The Guardian Nigeria explained that violent conflicts with herders and bandits negatively affected the South-West zone’s food production, including in the agrarian suburbs of Oyo state, as farmers were increasingly abandoning their

Road security - Kidnapping ‘black spots’ included the Ijebu-Ibadan Road, the Igbeti, Igboho and Oke-Ogun axis, as well as the Igbeti-Igboho Road and Ijebu-Ibadan Road. Within the Ibadan area, incidents reportedly occurred near the Obafemi Awolowo Stadium and the Felele area.¹⁹¹⁶ Kidnappings were also reported along the Lagos-Ibadan Expressway,¹⁹¹⁷ and the Lanlate-Eruwa Road.¹⁹¹⁸

Displacement, movement and return - No information could be found during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Government forces conducted rescue operations for kidnapping victims, together with local hunters, as well as vigilantes,¹⁹¹⁹ and/or Amotekun forces.¹⁹²⁰ Amotekun forces were also involved in the surveillance of roads known for kidnapping attacks,¹⁹²¹ and of border areas and ‘vulnerable points’ together with police and military forces and local vigilante groups.¹⁹²²

Measures taken by the police forces to fight cult-related crime included intelligence gathering, advocacy campaigns, stakeholder meetings, and intelligence-led raids, according to the state’s police commander.¹⁹²³

2.6.6. Lagos

Lagos state is comprised of the following 20 LGAs: Agege, Alimosho, Ajeromi-Ifelodun, Kosofe, Mushin, Oshodi-Isolo, Ojo, Ikorodu, Surulere, Agege Ifako-Ijaye, Shomolu, Amuwo-Odofin, Lagos Mainland, Ikeja, Eti-Osa, Badagry, Apapa, Lagos Island, Epe, and Ibeju-Lekki.¹⁹²⁴ The capital city is Ikeja.¹⁹²⁵

The State is predominantly Yoruba-speaking. Lagos is a heterogeneous state, with indigenous inhabitants including the Aworis and Eguns, among other groups.¹⁹²⁶

a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

In May 2025, Punch described Lagos state as ‘a hotspot’ for cultism and crime, including armed robbery, drug-related crime, carjacking and abductions.¹⁹²⁸ According to government data, Ikeja, Lagos Island, and Lekki were the ‘top three crime locations’ of the state in the period January 2024 - May 2025.¹⁹²⁹ Similarly, already in the beginning of the reference period, Vanguard quoted the state commissioner of police describing cultism, traffic robbery and abductions as the ‘prominent crime’ in Lagos state.¹⁹³⁰ The Nation pointed to a rise in criminal activities such as kidnappings, robberies, violent clashes and killings, especially in Lagos Island, Lekki and Okota areas.¹⁹³¹ In comparison, of those LGAs mentioned above, ACLED lists only Ikeja as one of the LGAs with the highest number of recorded security incidents (see below).¹⁹³²

In terms of cult-related violence, a report of July 2025 by SBM described Lagos as an ‘epicentre of gang warfare’,¹⁹³³ and a ‘hotspot’¹⁹³⁴ for the Black Axe and Eiye cult groups fighting for supremacy and control over crime in the state.¹⁹³⁵ Other cult groups operating in Lagos state included the Buccaneers,¹⁹³⁶ and ‘street-based gangs’,¹⁹³⁷ such as the Kesari and Idi-Araba Boys,¹⁹³⁸ and the Awawa Boys. Several sources reported on children and minors being recruited into cult gangs,¹⁹³⁹ and being involved in cult-related violence.¹⁹⁴⁰

FIJ reported on an incident of neglect,¹⁹⁴¹ and various national sources reported on incidents of maltreatment by officers of state security agencies.¹⁹⁴²

b) Security incidents and impact on the population

In the period 1 January 2024 - 31 August 2025, ACLED recorded 185 security incidents in Lagos state, resulting in 150 fatalities. Of these security incidents, 98 security incidents were coded as battles (the majority of them involving cult groups), 40 as riots, and 47 incidents were coded as violence against civilians.¹⁹⁴³

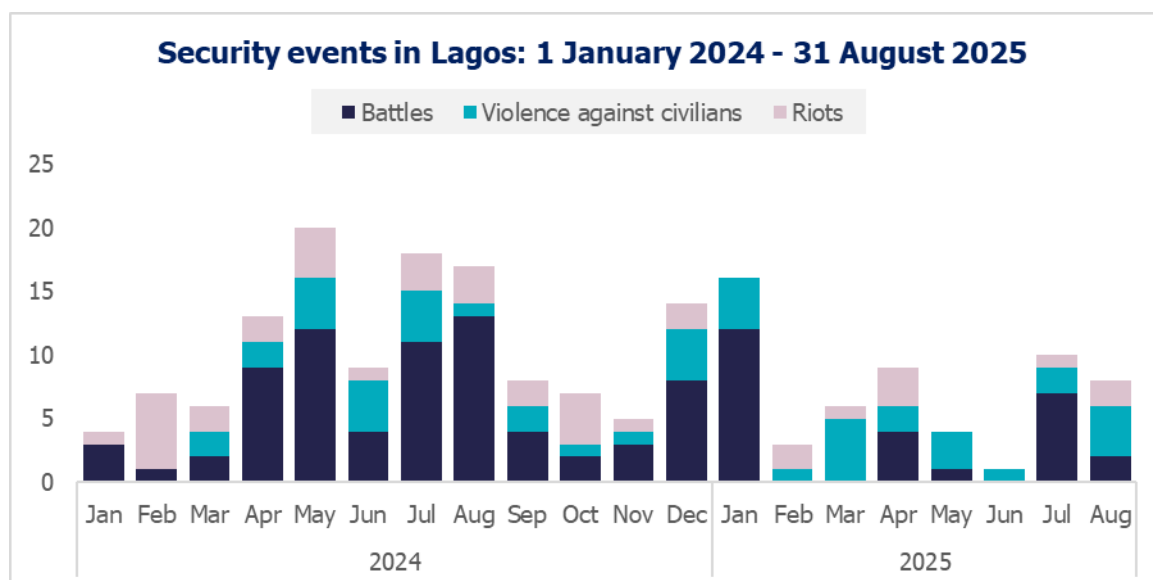

Figure 41: Evolution of security events coded as battles, explosions/remote violence, riots, and violence against civilians in Lagos state, 1 January 2024 – 31 August 2025, based on ACLED data.¹⁹⁴⁴

Security incidents were recorded by ACLED in all 20 LGAs of the state. The highest numbers were documented in Alimosho LGA (33 incidents), followed by Ojo (29), Ikorodu (18) and Ikeja and Eti-Osa LGAs (10 incidents each). Unidentified armed groups and cult militias, police and military forces (coded as either 'Actor 1' or 'Actor 2') were involved in the majority of cases coded as violence against civilians.¹⁹⁴⁵

According to Nigeria Watch, Lagos state scored second in terms of deadly cult-related violence in 2024, predominantly due to the Black Axe (Aye) and Eiye confraternities.¹⁹⁴⁶ Cult-related violence was reported during the entire reference period and occurred in various LGAs, for example in Ojo LGA in January 2024,¹⁹⁴⁷ Ajegunle/Ajeromi-Ifelodun LGA in April 2024,¹⁹⁴⁸ Mushin LGA in August 2024,¹⁹⁴⁹ Amuwo-Odofin LGA in January 2025,¹⁹⁵⁰ Ebute-

In February 2025, following claims by the victim's family that they were pressured by the alleged suspect's family, the officer was taken into prison custody.¹⁹⁵⁷

Conflict-related infrastructure damage - No information could be found during the reference period.

Road security - Incidents of kidnapping or attempted kidnapping were reported along the Lagos-Ibadan Expressway,¹⁹⁵⁸ and the Lekki-Epe Expressway.¹⁹⁵⁹ As of August 2025, no further information could be found on road security in Lagos state during the reference period.

Displacement, movement and return - No information could be found during the reference period.

c) State response in maintaining law and order

In February 2024, following incidents of kidnapping and other crimes, Lagos and Ogun state police initiated joint patrols along the Lagos-Ibadan motorway.¹⁹⁶⁰ In March 2025, the police reportedly arrested a robbery syndicate operating 'along Mile 2 to Alakija and Badagry Expressway',¹⁹⁶¹ and in August 2025, 68 suspected criminals were arrested, including seven persons suspected of committing armed robberies by posing as security personnel.¹⁹⁶² Several specialised police units reportedly conducted a large-scale security operation ahead of the cultist 7/7 Day celebrations in July 2025, and arrested an unspecified number of suspects.¹⁹⁶³ One official reportedly noted that 'lawmakers often face pressure to bail out arrested

cultists',¹⁹⁶⁴ and one source reported on investigations on the alleged role of a specialised police unit in the release of six suspected cult members in Ojo LGA.¹⁹⁶⁵

A study by the African Cities Research Consortium (ACRC) quoted by Premium Times, identified state and non-state agencies as among the 'key players' in terms of insecurity in Lagos (alongside with cult groups, land grabbers, and street gangs) due to incidents of abuse of power, human rights violations or the 'aiding and abating of criminal conducts'. The same source noted the security agencies were 'overstretched' with the rapidly growing population and related security issues.¹⁹⁶⁶
